Seven Points Prevent 8-2 Log

3.

The 1972-73 Streetsboro Rockets ended a somewhat disappointing season with a 5-4-1 overall record and fourth place in the league standings. Two of the losses were by a total of three points and had these been turned into wins the team could have been fighting for the championship. As it was the rockets still managed the third winning season in the whole school's history. Congratulations guys!!!

Best Show Ever Of Rocket Squad

Under the leadership of tri-captains, Rick Miracle, Tom Vogel, and Len Scalia, the Rocket grapplers managed to muster an impressive initial victory over PCL rival Mogadore. From then on, the team rode its laurels into a steep slump winning only 2 of the seasons first 5 matches. Responding to frantic prods from head coach, Bob Hamad, the Rocket wrestlers started a fresh and landed 4 of the next 5 duals, finishing 3-3 in the league and 6-4 overall.

The PCL tourney provided seven of the Rocket's starting line-up with coveted hardware. At the presentation ceremony, Al Brooks relinquished his first place award to Crestwood's undefeated Joey Gavitt who was unable to participate in the tourney due to an injury. The Rocket's comeback sweep then placed three mat rats in the Sectional tourney to qualify for District tourney wrestling.

New Organizations Venture Anew

The two newest organizations in the school this year are the Science Club and the Academic Challenge Team. Under the direction of their advisors, Mr. Flint and Mr. Reitz, the Science Club started the year by adding to the oak tree population around the school and by taking numerous field trips, such as to the Akron Rubber Plant and a steel plant. They also experimented with blasting off rockets.

After hours of brain stressing tryouts and practices, an Academic Challenge team was selected to represent our school for the television debut of the Academic Challenge Quiz Show. The team, with their numerous supporters, traveled to Cleveland to make their television appearance. On T.V., they used all of their knowledge to verbally battle down other competing schools.

1. BUT MR. CAMERON ...! Prior to their television taping of Academic Challenge, team members Larry Ryczek, Joey McMahon (captain), and Debbie Werner review the rules with advisor, Mr. Robert Vana. Onlookers are Gail Weingart and Bobby Powell, alternates, and Mr. Richard Niece, advisor.

Jr's. Work Hard To Sponsor Prom

Earning money to sponsor the annual Junior-Senior Prom, the Juniors started out in the summer by selling toothbrushes. With football season upon them they sold goodies at their concession stand which carried into basketball season. They also sponsored the Faculty-Senior basketball game, which once again found the seniors trailing behind the faculty. Their determination and hard work paid off as an enjoyable evening was spent at Hiram's Kennedy Center for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Sophomores Prove To Be Energetic

The sophomores were an industrious class this year under their advisor Mrs. Morris. At Homecoming, their float, a giant sewing machine, took first place in the annual competition. They also won the links contest by a wide margin. They were the consistent winners of the spirit frog until being bested by the senior class at the last Pep Rally of the season. In April, the sophomores joined the freshmen in the planning of the Sadie Hawkins Dance which proved to be a great success. Their participation in school events will surely make them successful in their Junior year.

A Final Thanks To All

Putting together a yearbook that is unique and different from all previous yearbooks is not as easily done as it is said. It takes a lot of hard work and extra time on everyone's part. First of all, before anything is even started on the yearbook, a group of hardworking, willing individuals have to be selected and organized. And that is exactly what this year's staff consisted of. I can't thank them enough for all of the free hours and Saturdays they sacrificed to make the yearbook what it is. I would also like to give a special thanks to the photographers who instead of sitting back and enjoying the school functions and activities, were always busy snapping pictures right and left so that everyone in the school could at least be pictured once in our school's history book. Our dedicated photographers are Al Hobson, Bob Rupp, and Joe Hobson. Unexposed pictures are useless, so I'd like to thank all of the people who work at Venditti Studios in Bedford, and especially Mr. Larry Thokey, who took all of the group shots and many other pictures. He's devoted a lot of time running around with pictures and supplies of film for us and he deserves a lot of credit. Also, National School Pictures should be thanked for the underclass pictures. A tip of the hat to Taylor Publishing Company and a very special thanks to Mr. Al Butto, our representative, for all of his time, great ideas, and personal assistance to the yearbook staff. I would like to thank the faculty, administration, and parents for their understanding and cooperation during all of the times yearbook meetings did not coincide with their plans. And thank you Mrs. DeCerbo, our new advisor, for everything you've done and made possible for us. Thanks again to everyone.
