"I knew we should have used Spic-n-Span," Barry Hatfield speaks to Doug

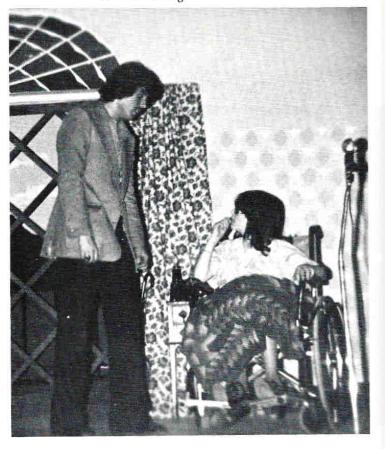

"How do you take tar off your face?" Michelle Adkins applies make-up.

"I really look up to you Jeff," Stephanie Szabo and Jeff Tyson converse on stage.

"Grease is the word," Todd's director and older sister, Bobbi Beale, prepares him for the stage.

Off New Faces

Look out world, here comes Barb Stutzman!

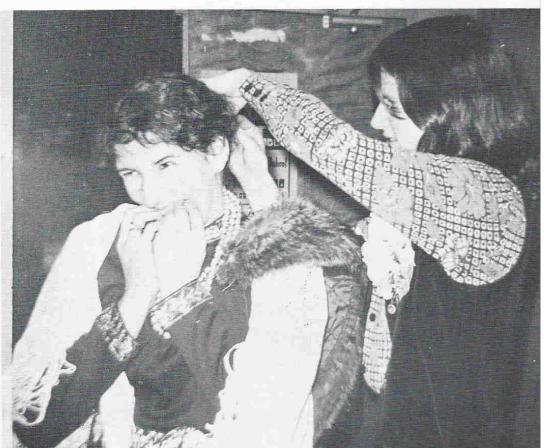

This years drama department produced four very different shows: A comedy, The Mouse That Roared, directed by Chris Wright. A drama, A Christmas Carol, directed by senior Ralph Harner. A melodrama, Virtue Victorious, directed by senior Bobbi Beale. And lastly, a mystery, House on the Cliff, directed by Majorie Patch. These four productions gave their audiences a splendid variety during the year.

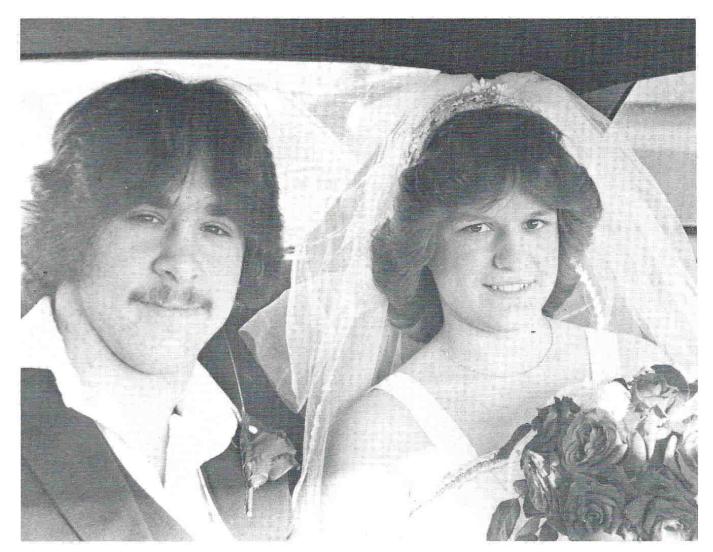

Applause for the hero, Sailor Bob alias Doug Barlett.

"Me scared Mommy!" Chris Wright prepares Ruthie Sheppard for her stage debut.

Senior Snapshots

Senior Snapshots

The SHS Wrestling team produced three state wrestlers this year. They are Mark Rice (126), Bob Walters (157), and Chuck Teece (175). To qualify for state competition, they had to place in the top four at the district level. Mark placed 4th, Bob 3rd, and Chuck won the District Championship.

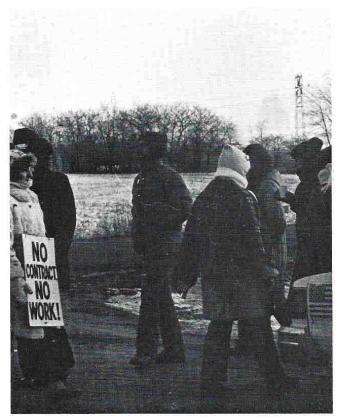

At the state level, all three won their first match, but Mark and Chuck each lost their second match by a close score. Bob won his second match, but was injured in the semi-finals and had to default to the eventual state champion. Bob wound up in 6th place in Ohio!

Going to McDonald's is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat.

And that's why, at McDonald's, we do it all for you.

Eaton Corporation congratulates the Streetsboro High School graduates of 1980.

We are an industrial family of 60,000 people serving over 165 manufacturing divisions on 6 continents.

Naturally, we are interested in the kinds of people who are emerging from our educational institutions to take their places in the work environment.

Who knows? Ultimately some of them might be joining our company.

1980 Golden Key Staff: From bottom left: Advisor: Bob Douglass, Business editor, Barry Hatfield; Activities editor, Bobbi Beale; Editor, Trish Rupp; Classes editor, Ann Rodriguez; Asst. editor, Karen Cross. Middle Row: Ed McCormack, Yvette Fouquet, Sharon Cross, Maureen Croyle, Mel Perry, Charis Draves. Top Row: Leesa Campbell, Judy Hilston, Jeannie Hatella, Debbie Glessner, Denise Vance, and Linda Stratton.

This year started out slow, but with the help of my staff we just flew into the work head first. We started doing fine until the teacher's strike. That really put a lot of pressures on my staff. I don't think we could have really pulled through if it wasn't for Bobbi Beale, Barry Hatfield, Ann Rodriguez, and Karen Cross. These people really pulled me through, and I would like to give them a special "Thanks", and would also like to thank my 1979-80 yearbook staff for a great year. My special Thanks also goes out to Mr. Douglass for putting up with us for the whole year.

Thanks so much.
