THOSE CRAZY, CRAZY SENIORS

Susan Watson is practicing to become a magician for a living.

Dave Varga was caught in a bonnet getting his hair frosted by Mrs. Kowalski.

Greg Roman and Sean Barringer have got to be the most exotic dressers around.

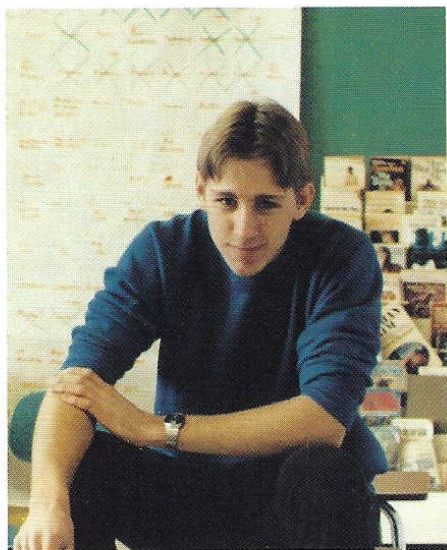

Seniors flocked to Quinn's for the traditional Homecoming dinner.

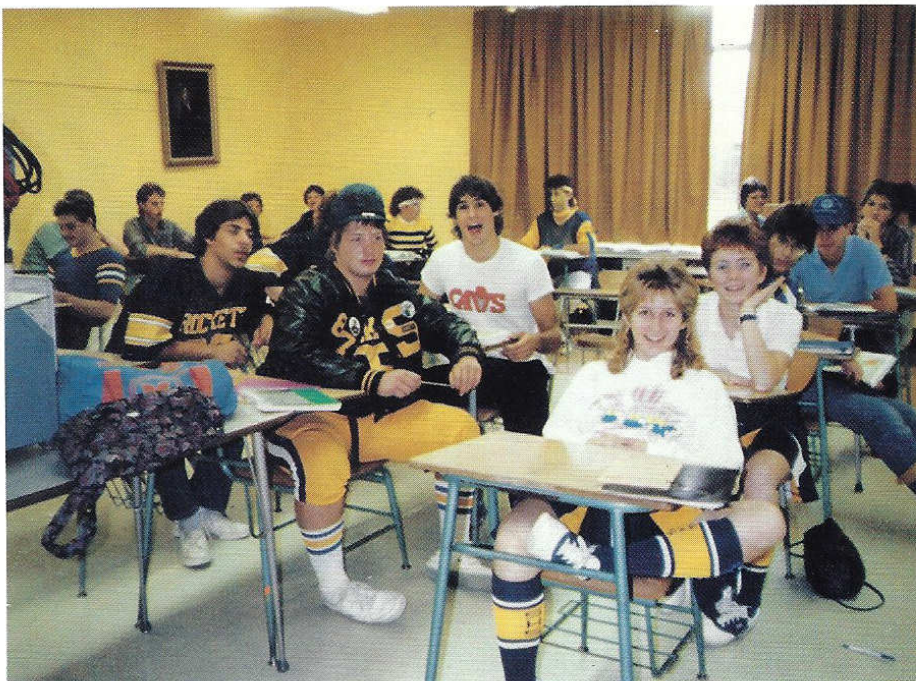

Barb Givens was taken by surprise during yearbook class.

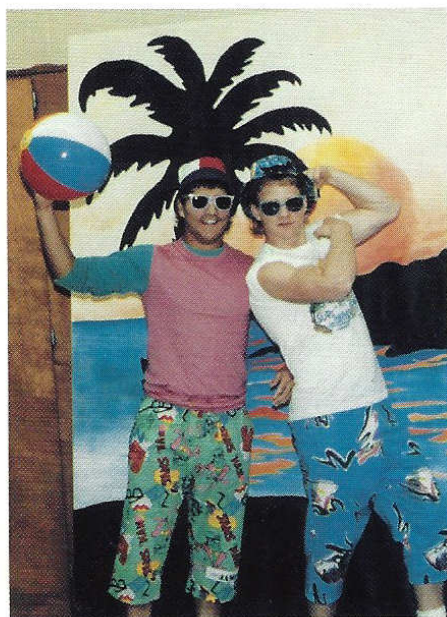

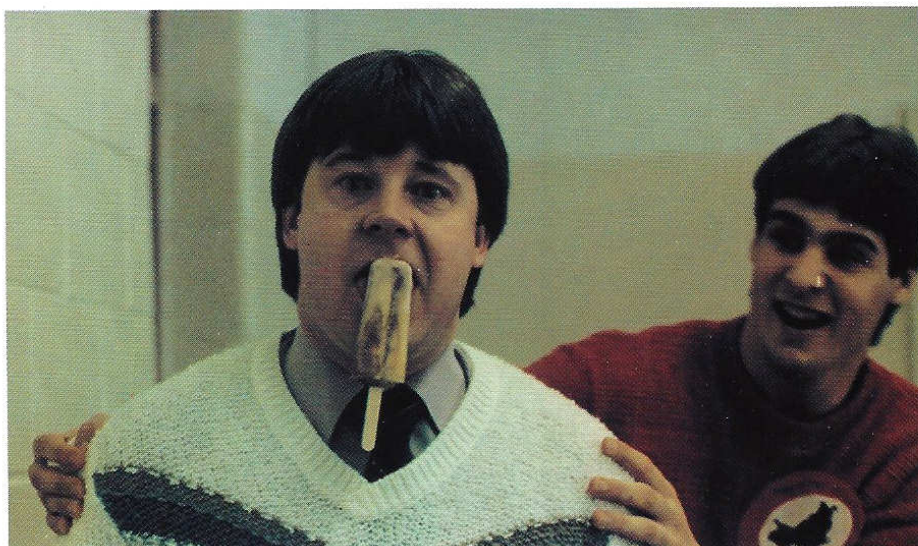

Todd Hornby smiles glumly in Yearbook.

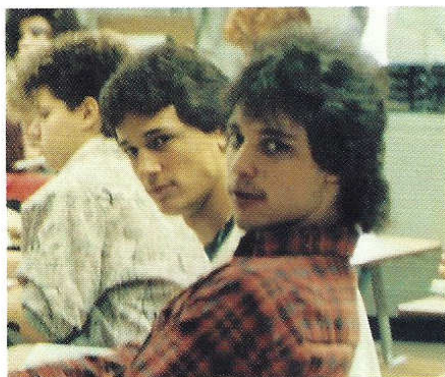

On Blue and Gold Day, during Spirit Week, football players and cheerleaders are psyching up for the game.

Flexing by the sunset, Rod Kiser and Jerry Benci.

Calculus teacher, Ken Stoner, shows his most impressive talent as Kevin Kovach looks on.

Nate Marcini and Greg Roman give a casual glance.

Boo Bennett and Chris Swank smile happily.

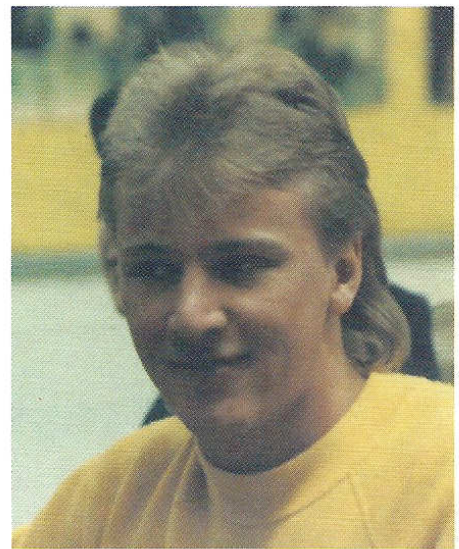

Beachbums Sue Watson, Donna Kiger, Gina Damicone, Sam Sullivan and Laura Sorrick hang out in Eng. Lit.

Taken by surprise is Sherri Young.

Marc Gillespie and Sheri Phillips, two accomplished drum players in our band are "The Dynamic Duo".

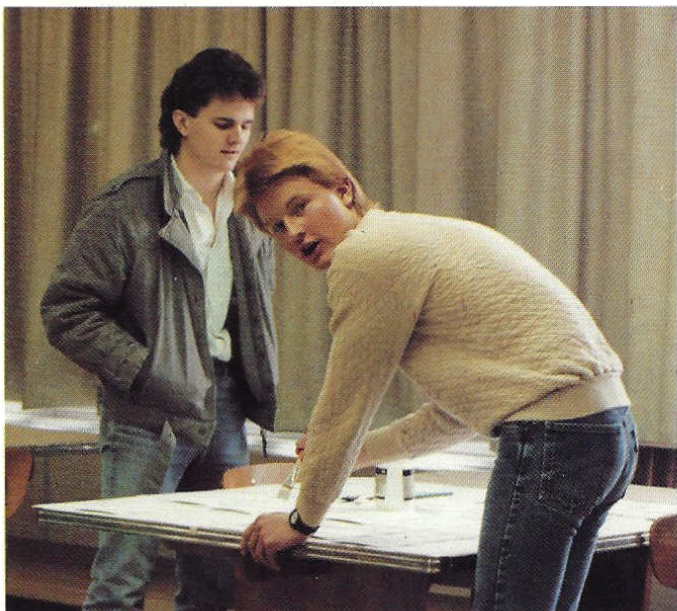

Steve Faust caught by the camera in class.

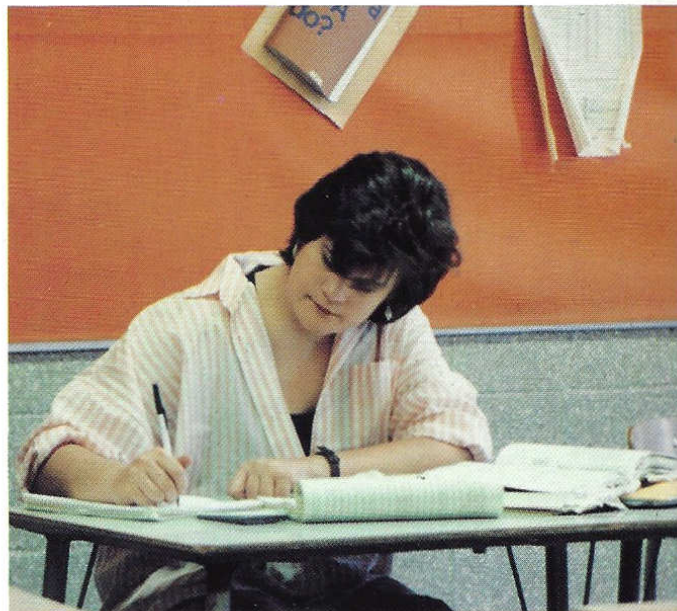

Lisa Manning, a yearbooker, is found in the cafe.

Artists Brandon Humphrey and Troy Paff create yet another masterpiece. Both of these talented young men plan to study art in college.

Becky Blostic works diligently to finish her accounting homework in Mr. Huber's room.

Gazing at unfinished work John Loske and David Krin sit quietly in the art room.

Showing a delightful smile is yearbook editor, Amy Hicks.

True friends, Michelle Arwood, Teresa Spadaro, Ellen Ashbaugh and Stephanie Brittan enjoy a pleasant get together in study hall.

Queen Tina Giunto and King Nathan Marcini reign over a "Tropical Paradise Homecoming."

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

DURING PRE-GAME FESTIVITIES . . .

Homecoming Court: Mike Ondash, Shannon Manning, Rich Skladoni, Toni Olson, Jack Blasiolo, Jamie Plybon, Tina Giunto, Nathan Marcini, Shenlee Johnson, Kevin Kovach, Lisa Cianchetti, Bob Danner, Pam Sladky, David Mohr.

Shenlee Johnson displays her pageant style.

Tina Giunto takes her ride around the track.

Jamie Plybon riding with roses from her parents.

HOMECOMING HOPEFULS TAKE A RIDE

Junior attendant, Toni Olson, grins and bears the chilly night air.

Lisa Cianchetti takes a break from playing her piccolo in the band to smile.

Shannon Manning is driven by her father.

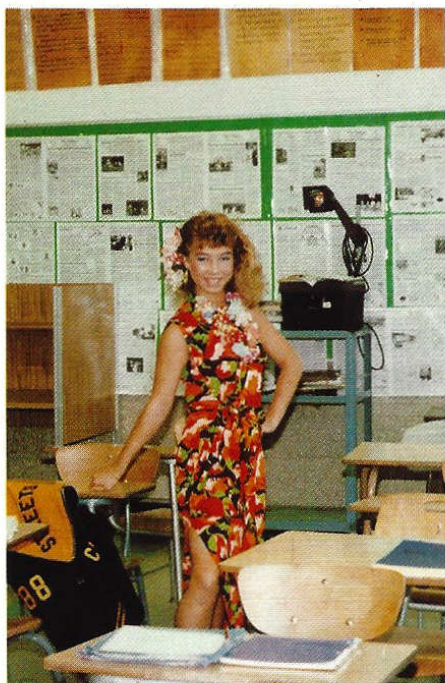

Pam Sladky follows in her sister's footsteps.

Past queen, Michelle Sladky, driven by Mr. Sammy.

Joyce Sossa took a break from journalism to show off her outfit for the luau.

A spirited senior, Matt Sorrick, has "beach fever" clad in jams and a lei on Hawaiian Day.

Jenny Prejna wants to head for the beaches to surf. She's all set and ready to go.

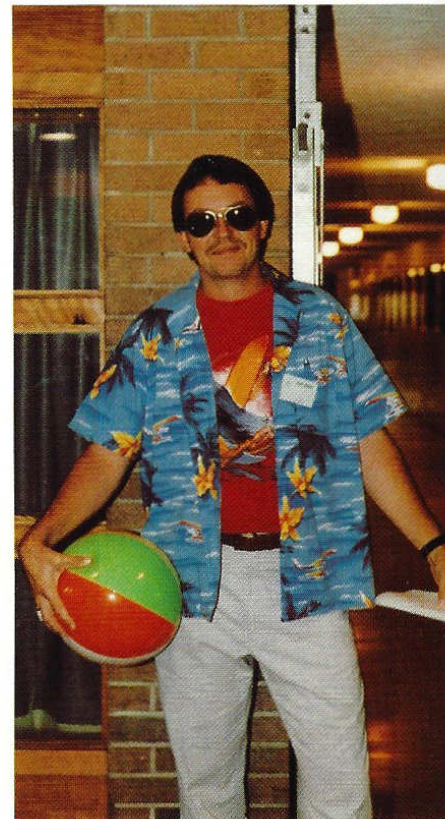

With her blue hat and gold shirt, Grace Breyley got decked out on Blue and Gold Day.

Rowdy senior football players pile on the excitement for the night's victory.

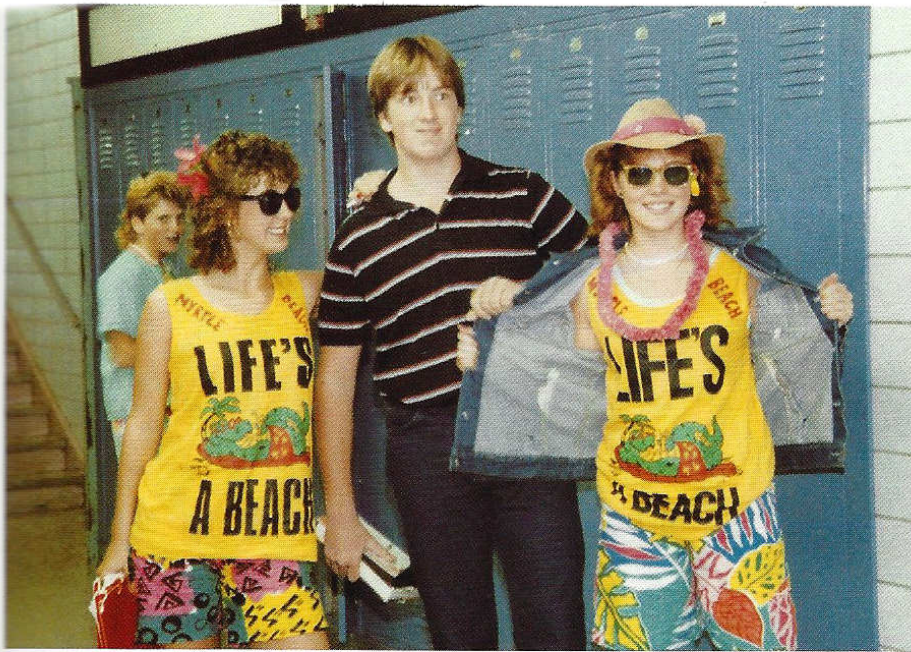

Teachers have spirit, too. Mr. Hogan is ready to play some beach ball!

SPIRIT WEEK SPARKS ENTHUSIASM

"Life is a beach" for Karyn Kravetz and Stacy Krolik. Rick Diehl, however, is not so sure.

Missy Workman and Janet Theiss added to their blue and gold apparel with hallway decorations.

Even Ohioans have beachwear. On Hawaiian Day, these "beachbums" beared the cold to have fun!

Go bananas! That's what students did the week of November 13th through the 17th.

The homecoming festivities started rolling with Spirit Week. Students first got to show their school spirit by getting dressed-up with Rock-Star Day. Students got to dress up as their favorite rock stars or wore their concert shirts.

Dresses, suits, skirts and ties were worn on the following day, Dress-Up Day. Following Dress-Up Day, students gave a warm welcome; "Aloha!" to Hawaiian Day. Thursday was mixed up, Class Clash Day. Concluding the week was the traditional Blue and Gold Day.

The classes also showed their spirit Homecoming Week by buying spirit links and hall decorating. Both of these were won by the seniors.

Jenny Pastiva

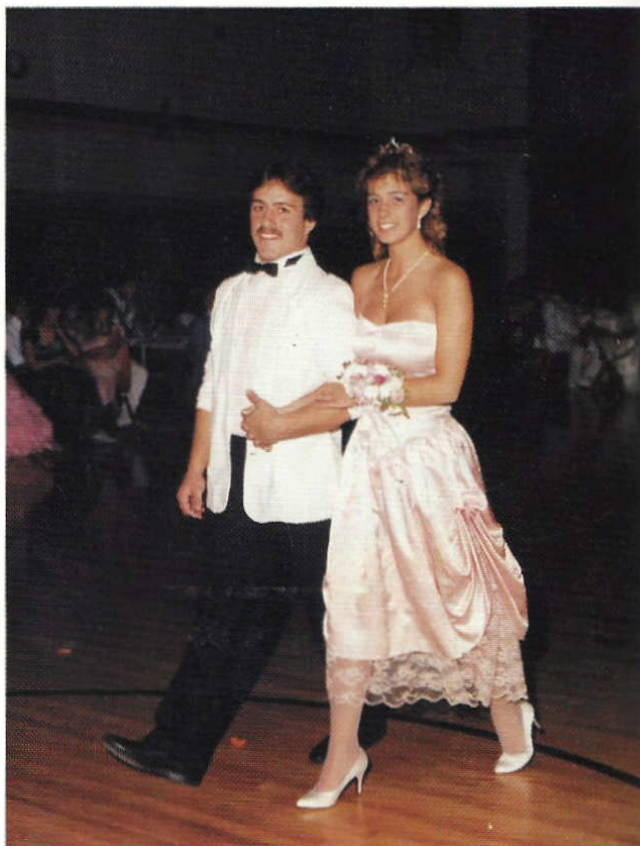

The senior players had a unique court of their own. Their moms escorted the "lovely" attendants.

Marisa Patawaran and Billy Spaeth look very Sophisticated while they take a relaxing break.

Senior King Candidate, Jack Blasiole, escorts the Homecoming Queen, Tina Giunto, across the floor to the stage where the King is to be crowned. Tina was crowned queen at the football game the night before.

Freshman, Heather Quetsch, was escorted to the dance by junior, Kreg Krebs.

Seniors, Donna Ward and James Hobson sit close and smile pretty.

Cascading from above, balloons covered the homecoming court.

Maplewood seniors, Connie Johnson and Mark Pitts, enjoy Hawaiian Homecoming.

Junior attendant, Toni Olson, dances with Rich Skladoni.

On October 17, 1986, our gym was turned into a Hawaiian beach. Starting at 8 am Student council members were decorating. Hanging sharks, building a hut, and putting mint cups together were just some of the feats performed. By 3 pm the gym was transformed for the luau that night.

At the door students were welcomed with brightly colored leis. A DJ played beach music and popular tunes so everyone could dance. And dance everyone did up till the highlight of the evening when Nathan Marcini was announced King. During the Court Dance, the rip cord on the bag of balloons was pulled and 144 balloons cascaded to the floor.

After the crowning, most of the seniors left and went to Quinn's, the Homecoming tradition, in Solon.

Senior Mark Stone gazes admiringly at senior Charlene Sygula displaying her lei and dress.

HOMECOMING COUPLES LOOK RADIANT

Sue Nixon, a freshman, and Mike Pitts, a junior, look like the perfect couple, as they show off their pearly whites.

Laura Chiller and Bart Nuber are one very happy Homecoming couple.

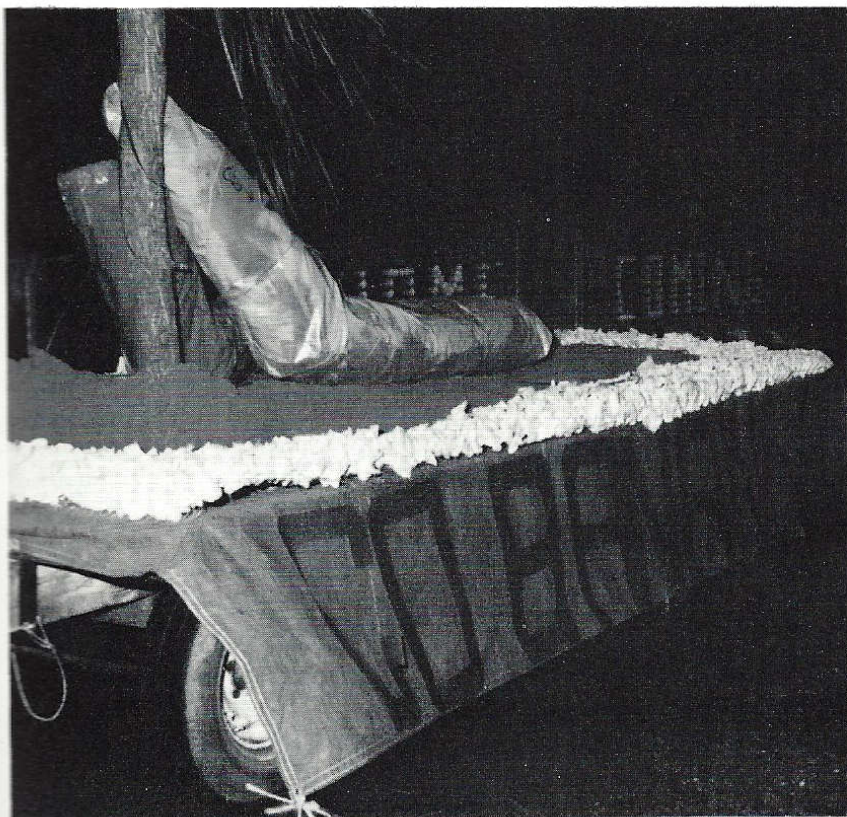

King candidate, Kevin Kovach, dances with queen candidate, Shenlee Johnson, to "Truly" by Lionel Richie during the court dance.

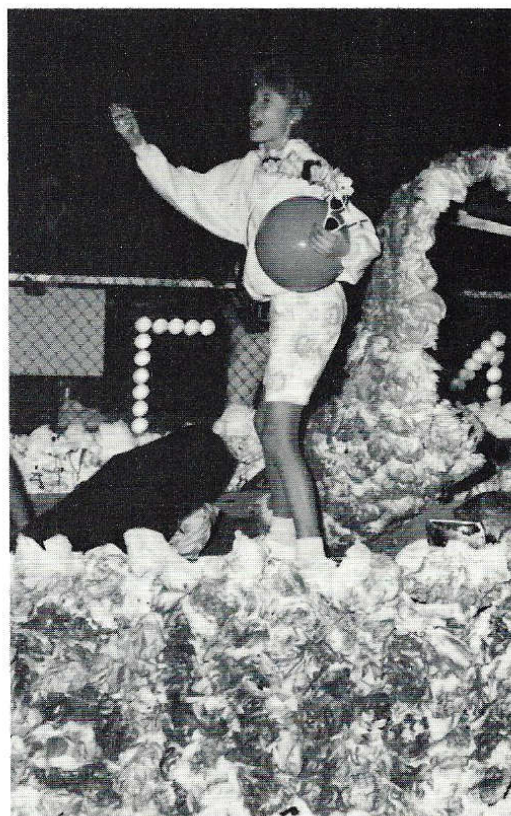

Jay Fellenstein, Jen Cross, Heidi Fischer, and Jason Conley double-date.

FLOATING TOWARD THE BEACH

This float is quite a "peeling". The band went bananas creating this tropical island. The members of the band worked on this at Janet Slovensky's house.

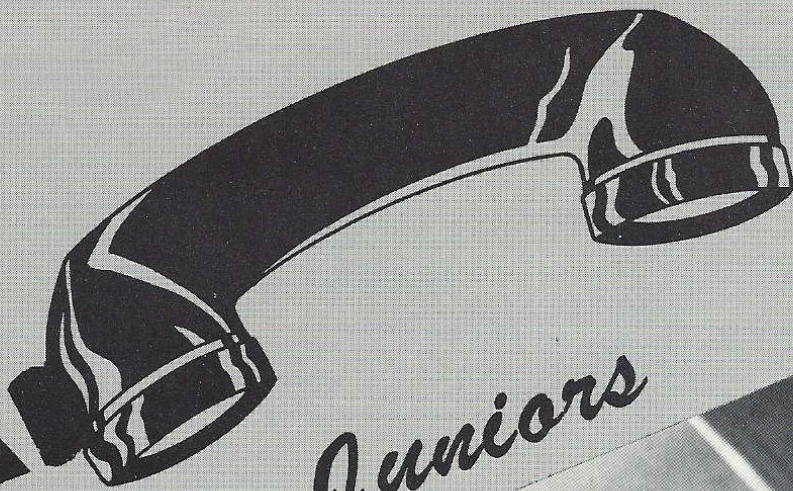

The freshman class not only captured a first place but they also tied up the bulldogs.

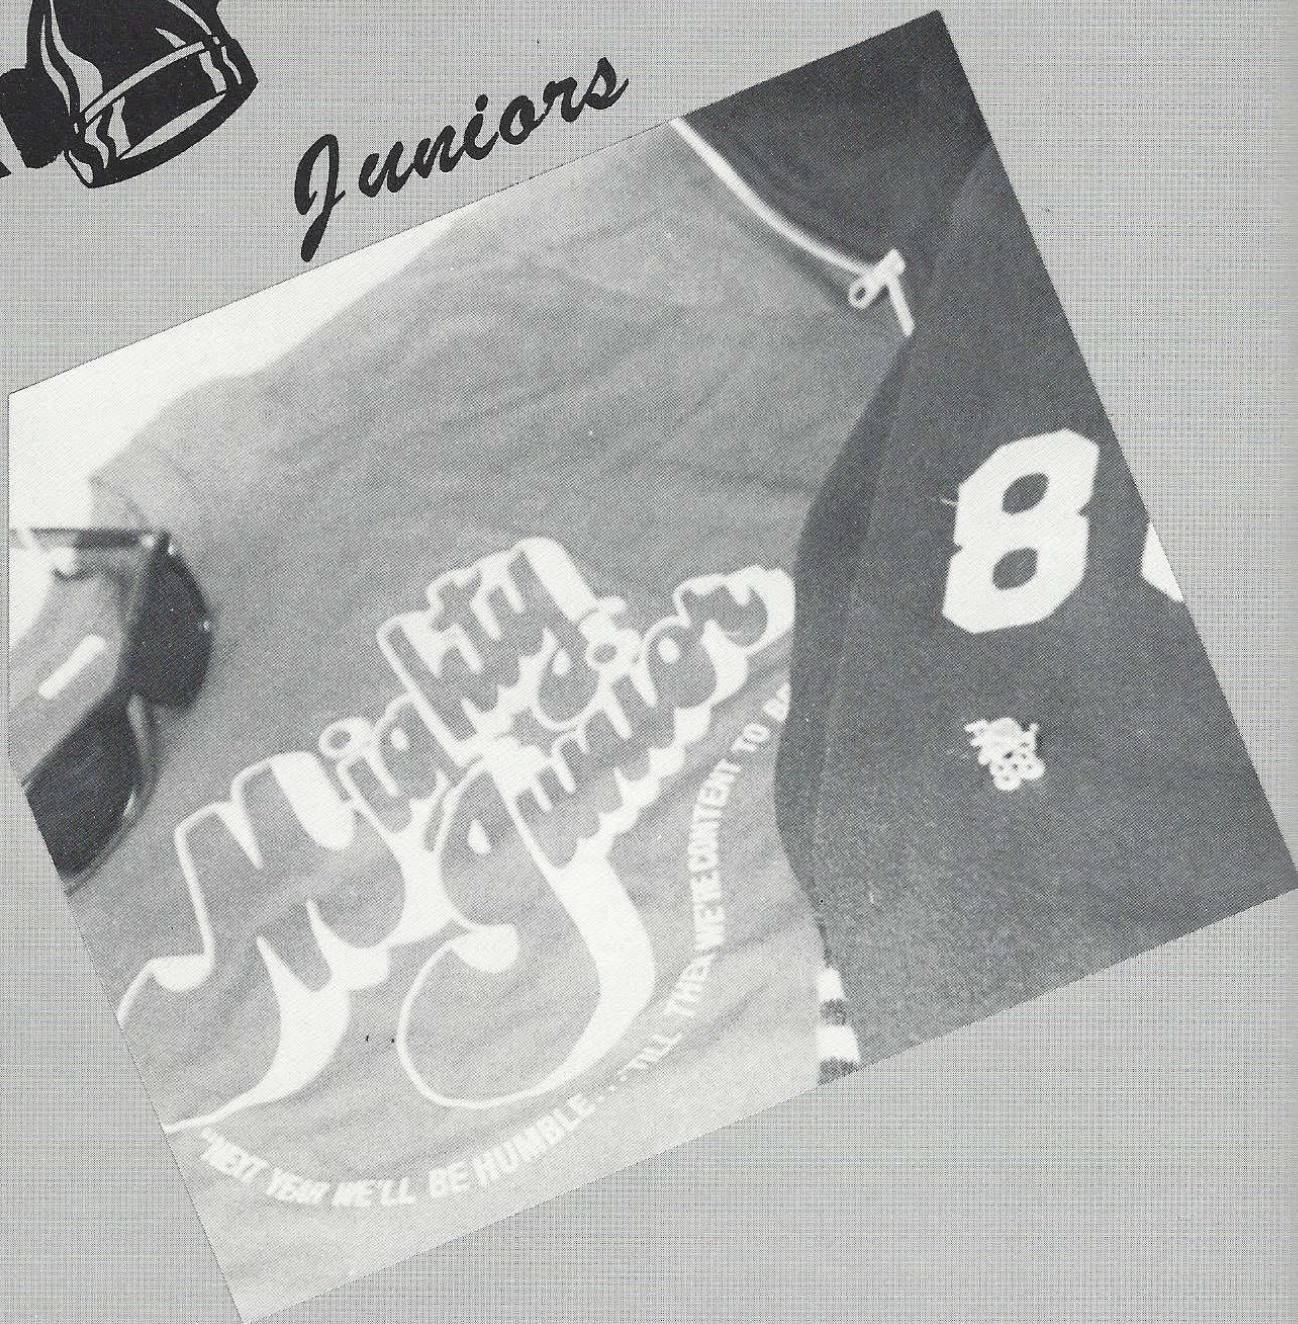

Shawn and Christine Gahagan seem to be having a fun night at the beach.

Matt Sorrick plays lifeguard on the senior float which placed third.

Lonnie Troyer manages to capture the tourist look.

Acting cool and relaxed, Robin Vasickanin sunbathes in jams and sunglasses, as she dreams of a warmer place to be.

Expressing her new stylish but contemporary outfit, junior Louanne Campbell sets a striking pose.

Bill Koleszar and Lisa Cianchetti show spirit in the march to save the levy.

Halftime during a Friday night football game is not the only time to find Kenny Kowalski playing the drums. He plays the drums in a band called "Maximum Overdrive." They haven't played anything major yet, but they're expecting to. "This is my first year to be in a real band (a good one at least).", said Kenny.

Kenny started taking lessons in the seventh grade, at Streetsboro Music. He got his first set of drums from his parents.

Kenny's dream is to make it "BIG". "Whenever I'm at a concert, I always say to myself — that's going to be us someday."

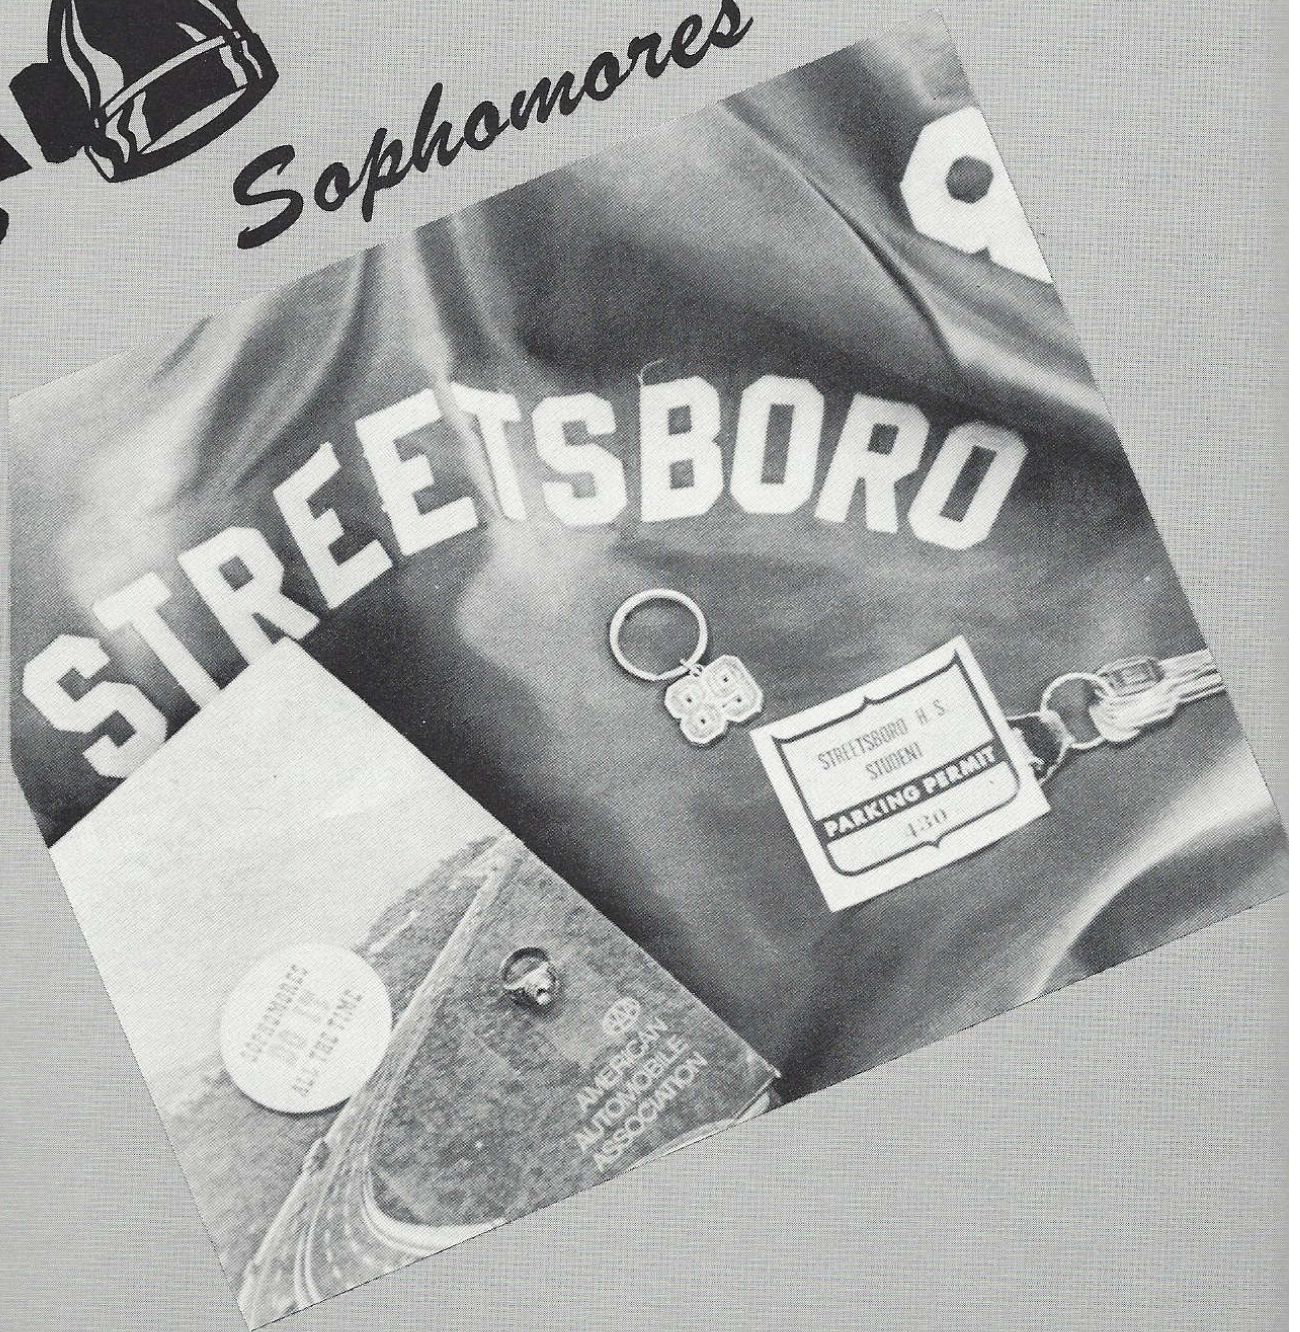

Kenny says if this band doesn't work out he'll just go to another one. "I'll keep going from band to band until I make it. Whenever Kenny jams with his band he says he feels like he's at Blossom or at the Coliseum in concert.

Administration

ADMINISTRATORS GUIDE THE SCHOOL

Front: Richard Demich, Mike Dunlap. Back: Robert Haas, Paul Quinn, Elwood Howitt.

Superintendent, John Carney, looks to the students for support of the levy.

Mr. Clapp, assistant superintendent, is responsible for curriculum.

OUR MAIN MEN ARE OKAY

Mr. Andrew Garrick has the most commonly seen face in the establishment. He has been responsible for a lot of changes in the school recently. He had the first floor girls' restroom renovated and all of the lockers were painted and given new locks. Mr. Garrick is very proud of his newly renovated gymnasium. He was also very proud of the boys' basketball team; so he invented the ever-popular "Hit List".

Mr. Vrabel takes time out to play some ball with Mr. Creamer.

Mr. Charles Vrabel is the assistant principal. He is responsible for all of the disciplinary problems, detentions and filling in for Mr. Garrick when he is absent. Mr. Vrabel started the "Student of the Month" program. In this program, one student from each class is honored for his/her outstanding accomplishments.

Understanding and compassion are Mr. Garrick's finer qualities.

A SECRETARY'S WORK IS NEVER DONE

Mrs. Marlene Speck; main office secretary

Mrs. Judy Smith; office secretary

Mrs. Janet Chronoski; guidance secretary

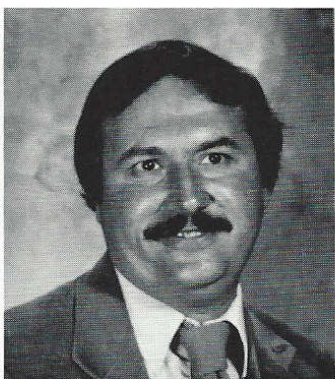

Mrs. Lois Dolman; attendance secretary

OPTIMISM OVERWHELMS EDUCATORS

Brenda Alderson

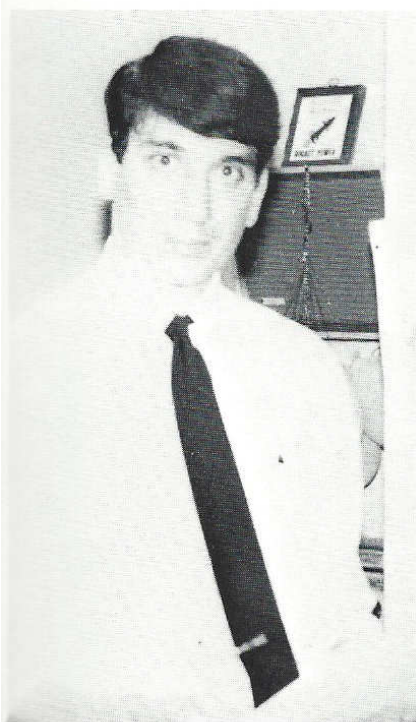

William Cinadr

Eugene Easter

Connie Evans

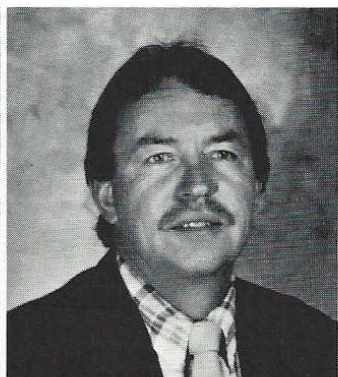

Carl Schwab displays a positive attitude.

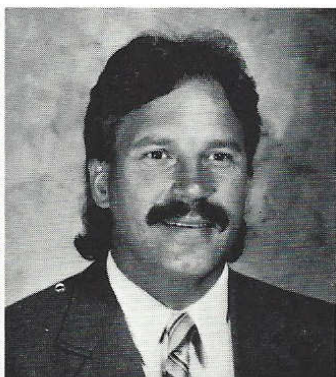

No pessimist here as Gary Hogan, Tom Pollock, and Scott Pollock all smile.

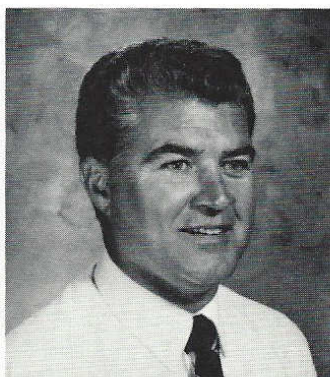

Ken Granville

Gary Hogan

Dave Hostetler

Gary Huber

Linda Jahn

Sharon Klecha

Barbara McKee

Marjorie Patch

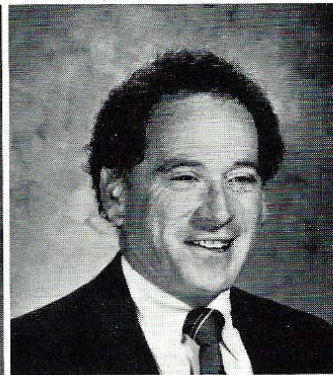

Diane Roberts

Barb Sapp

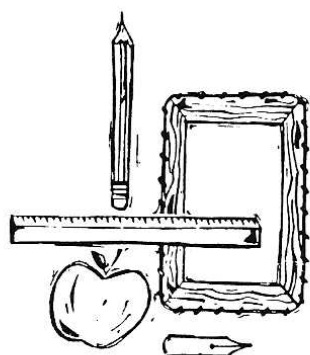

Phyllis Spangler

Rod Truman

Janet May

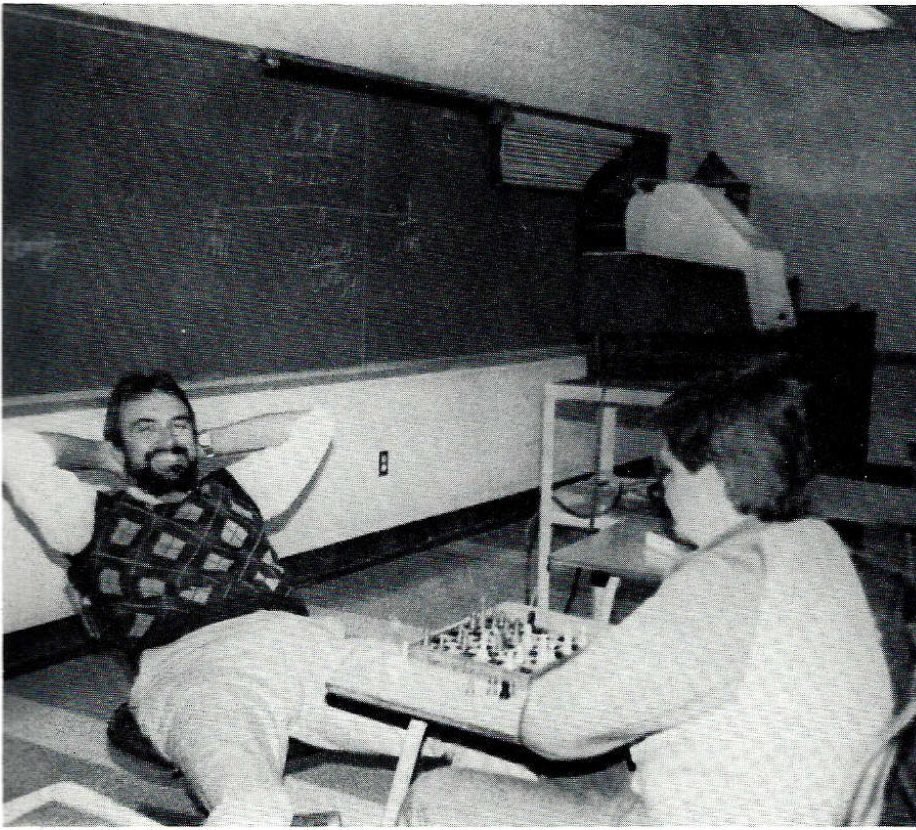

Brenda Alderson seems to be having a bad day.

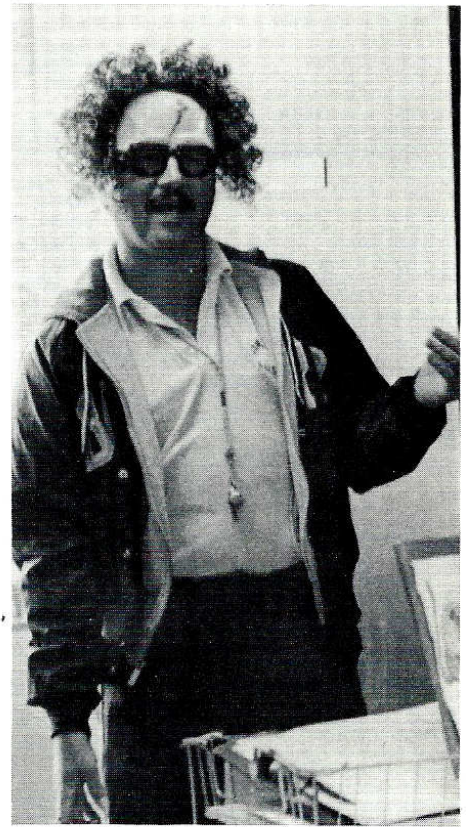

Mary Seloti enjoyed her teaching experience here.

When Larry Marek gets away from teaching history, he enjoys a game of chess with one of his pupils.

Bill Cinadr is really a funny guy.

French students received a change in pace with their student teacher, Miss Binder.

After a stay in the hospital, John Keegan was welcomed back by all the teachers and students.

WORK BEHIND THE SCENES

Front: Larry Defer, Sharon DeYoung, Linda Krebs, Verda Troyer. Back: Mary Spence, Mary Ann Croyle, Dale Brittan, Ray Krebs, Francis Hatala, Bonnie Klanch.

Always handy, Mr. Andy Jandrokovic works on fixing a loose door knob.

A busy OWA student, Rob Oldcorn, helps the school by sweeping the floor.

RAISING A LITTLE BIT OF RUCKUS ...

Rick Harner, a NHS member, hazes and harasses John Huffman.

Laura Sorrick and Sheri Phillips think it's summer as they pose for the camera.

Mr. Easter performs yet another exciting experiment for his class.

TO SPEED THE END OF THE DAY ALONG

Ho, ho, ho, Merry Christmas Mr. Carney! Mr. Carney shows some Christmas spirit.

Sophomore, Dawn Mohr displays a cheerful interest in chemistry.

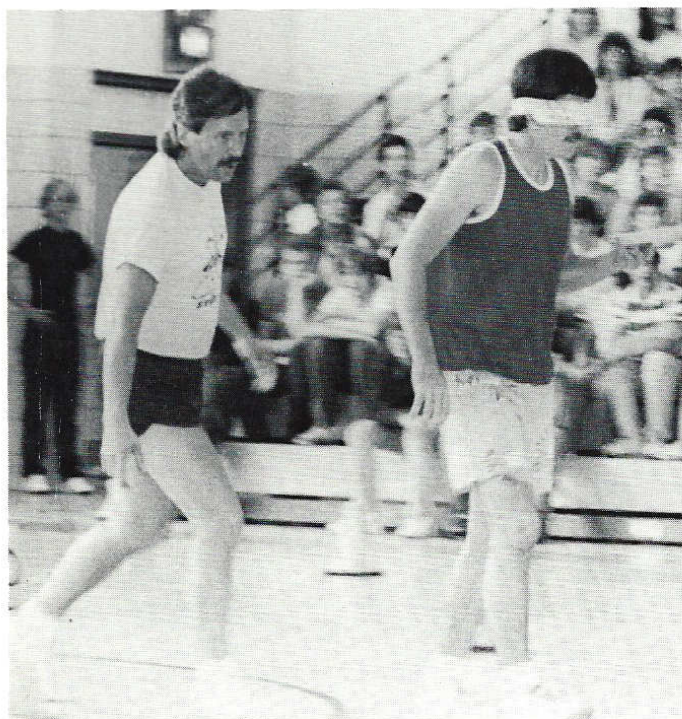

Sheila Biltz and Cheryl Crock give a big smile.

Running a couple of laps is John Keegan.

GOING FOR THE GOLD IN OUR GYM

Guiding the blindfolded Tom Pollock through an obstacle course is Dave Hostetler, for the staff team.

Mr. Peterson, dressed as Mrs. Peterson, guides Mr. Fox through the terrible obstacle course. Both are members of the losing staff team.

From the junior team, Willie Harris chows down in the pizza eating contest.

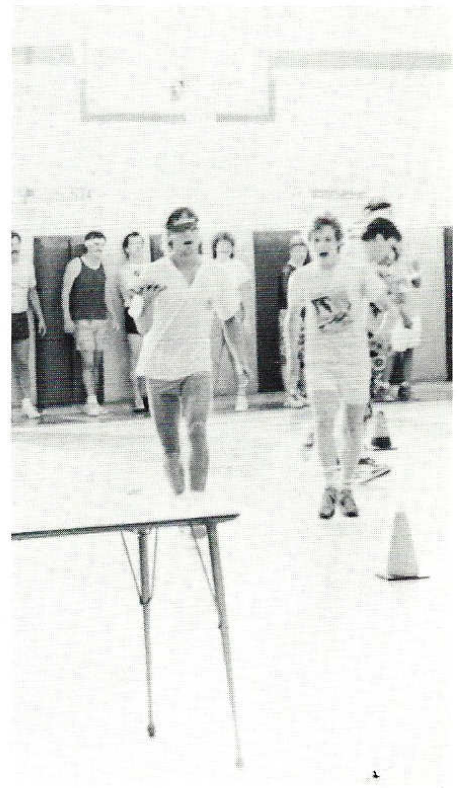

Peg Babson rolls across the floor during one of the fun games in Junior Olympics. Although they tried very hard, the staff team lost.

The senior team gives the thumbs up sign. Even though they lost, the seniors still had the most spirit.

From the junior team, Bob Danner and Lance Patton attempt the obstacle course.

Enthusiastic students cheer the teams on as they compete by the basketball hoop.

LEARNING A CAREER IN HIGH SCHOOL

Ann Ewell practices styling techniques on a willing subject. She's studying cosmetology.

Sharon Linderman is caught studying in the lunchroom.

Jimmy Komara and Fred Cox work on a bike. They are both taking small engine repair.

Diane Szumski smiles at her computer.

Tricia Harrigan takes a moment away from her studies at Maplewood to be startled by the camera.

Patti Matta and Colleen Riddles enjoy Maplewood. They are both in the first year of their vocation.

Rick Berg is working in the mechanics department and hopes to be an auto mechanic after graduating.

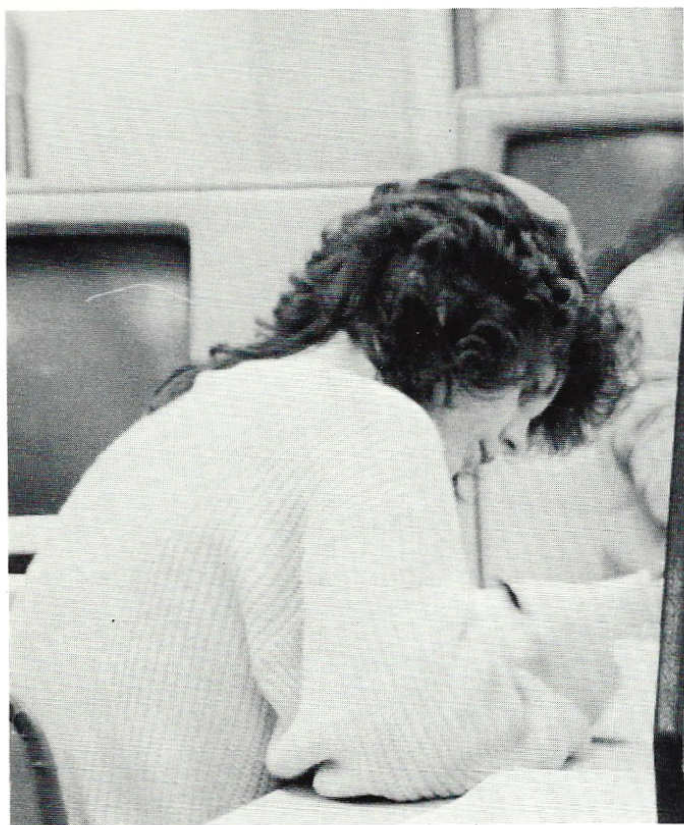

A senior in the executive secretary program, Michelle Mussara works studiously.

Jody Reggets works earnestly in front of the computer to get her homework done. Word Processing is her field of study.

Wearing his protective glasses, Ron Klink works on painting a car in the auto shop.

Carpentry student, Roger Holcomb, donned in his gloves and overalls, mixes up a batch of cement in a bucket.

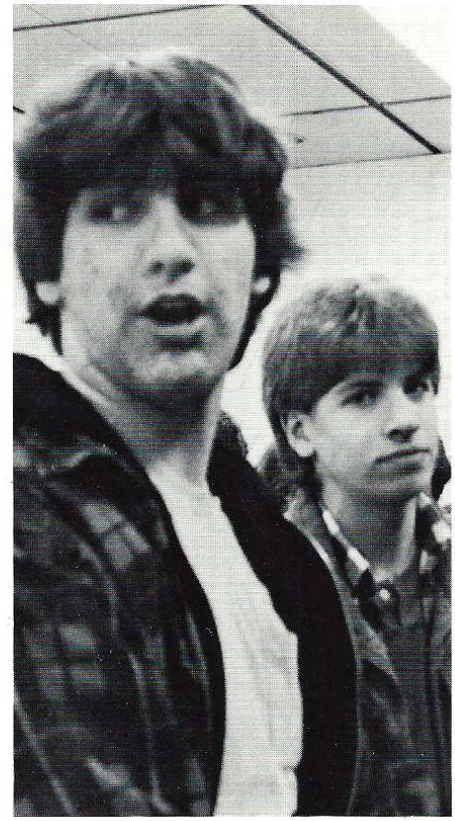

Tricia Snyderburn flips through file cards at her desk. She seems to have found the one she needs. Tricia is also in Word Processing.

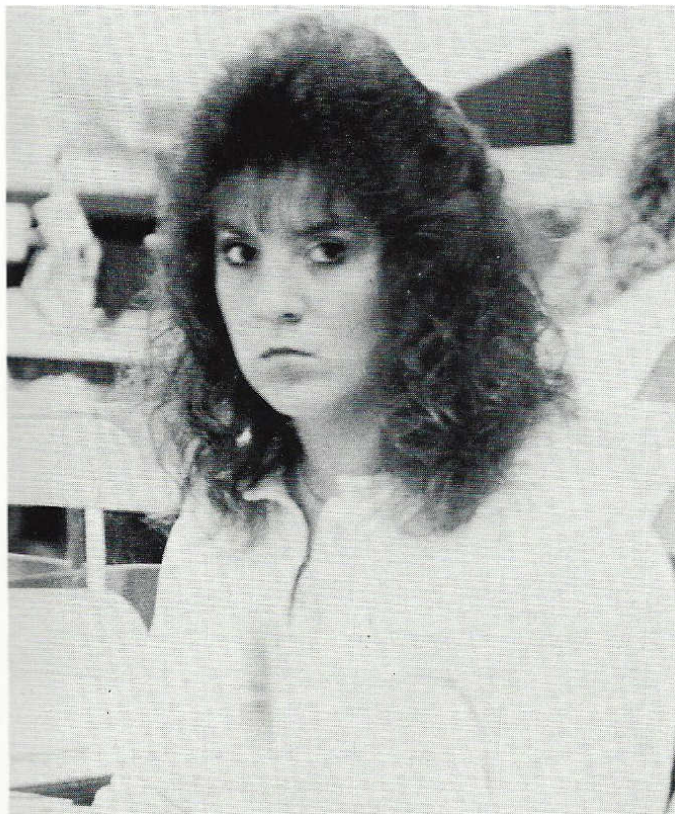

Seniors, Pamela Harvey and Lisa Mazer, are happy at Maplewood. Between classes Pam and Lisa have time together for a few minutes.

Our photographer caught Brian Reese and Mark Adams when they weren't expecting it.

Shelley Thompson looks blank after looking up from studying to be an executive secretary.

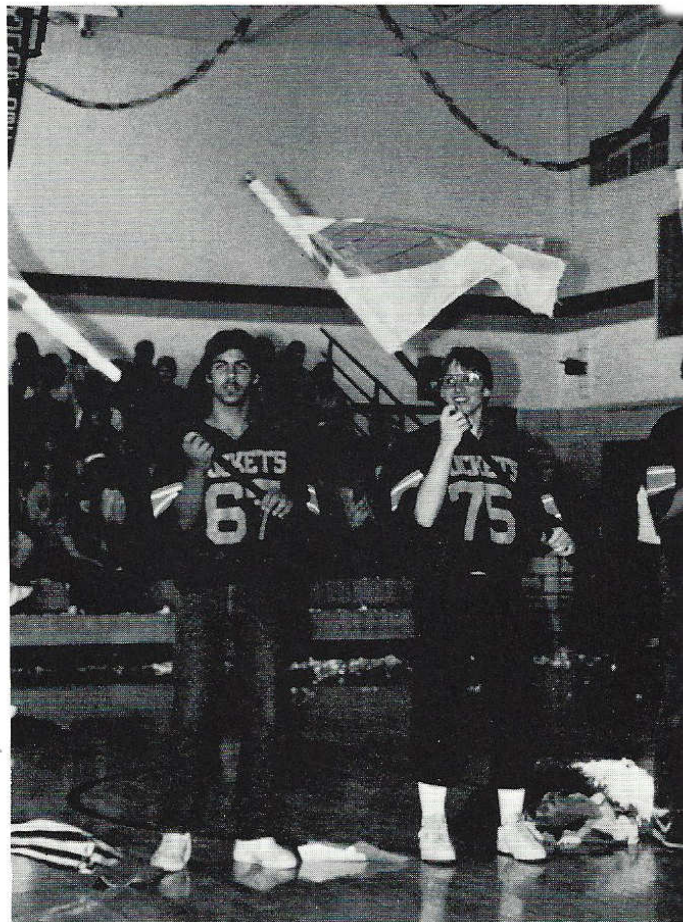

Rory Hager welds away during his lab time.

PEP RALLIES RAISE SPIRIT

Proud Mother, Mrs. Bennett, walks with her son, Boo, at the Parent's Day/ Homecoming pep assembly. Senior players dressed up as a mock court.

Senior football players, Larry Schumaker and Eric Nuber, wanted to show the flag girls how much they know about twirling a flag.

Mrs. Blasiola laughs at the sight of Jack being a girl with pink hair.

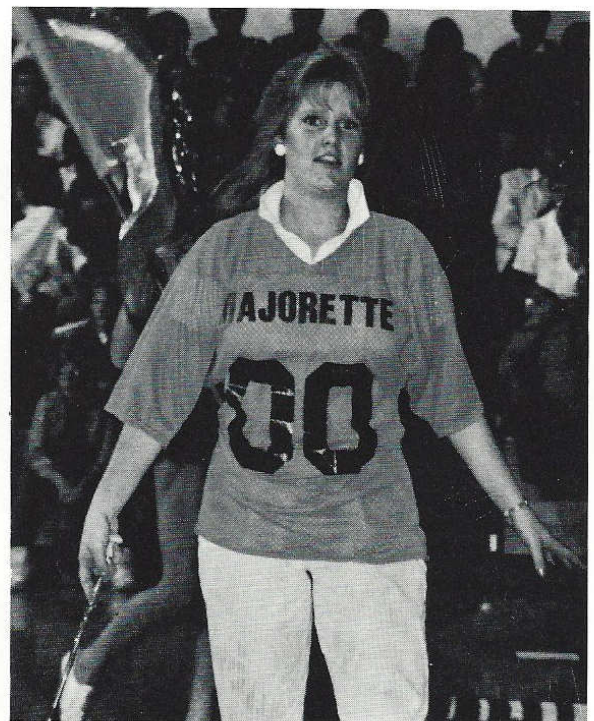

The cheerleaders line up to end the rally with the traditional fight song.

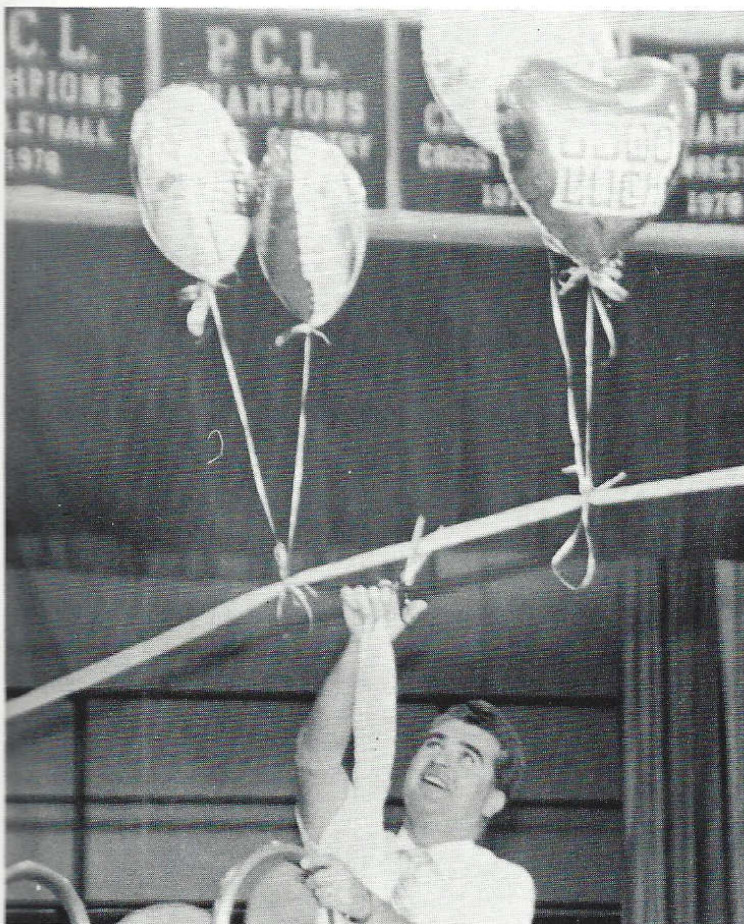

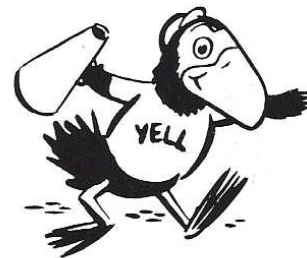

The senior section of the bleachers is alive with spirit. The seniors from Maplewood were also fortunate enough to join the fun at their home school.

Freshman majorette, Carolyn DeYoung, appears to be afraid of something in the stands as she twirls to the band.

Athletic director, Gary Huber smiles as he christens the new gym at the first pep rally of the season by cutting the golden ribbon.

There is more to being a varsity cheerleader than just cheering. Although this is when they are most visible, it is only a mere fraction of the work they do for the teams and school.

Scrapbooks are made for the senior basketball and football players and the wrestlers. The scrapbook consist of photos, newspaper articles, tags, and other things. A great deal of time and effort is put into these because they are very important to the athletes.

For the Homecoming game, the cheerleaders decorate the senior guys' houses with posters, crepe paper and toilet paper. Small posters were put on the lockers every week and tags were also distributed to all the players.

Even though this work is demanding, it is also very rewarding. Heidi Fischer reflects, "When the guys thanked us by decorating OUR houses it game me the greatest feeling."

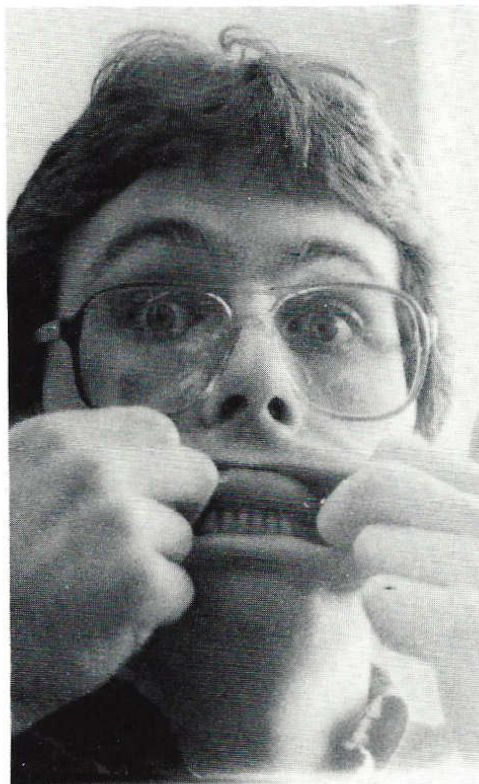

Gina Damicone

Peggy North yawns as the day drags by.

Char Sygula enjoys a good part in her book.

Matt Sorrick believes in grinning and bearing it.

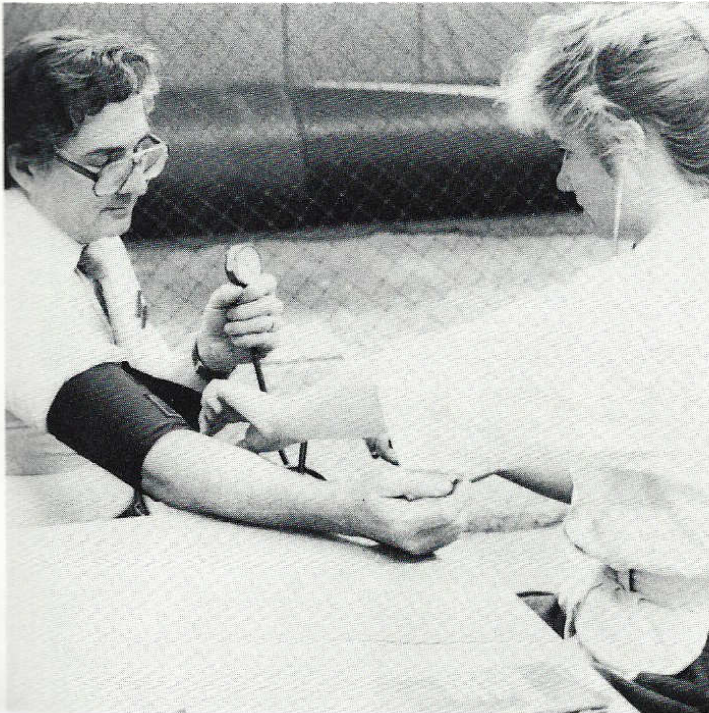

Ken Motz's class doesn't seem to be on his students' minds during class.

CAN YOU TAKE THE PRESSURE?

Cheryl Dular takes Matt Sorrick's blood pressure as Christine Gahagan looks on. All of the seniors were checked.

Gene Easter relaxes as Jeani Davenport checks his blood pressure.

Heather Quetsch takes Teresa Spadaro's pressure as Pam Sladky looks on.

TAKING PART IN CLUBS AND CLASSES ...

Keith Fischer, Jeff Sedola, and Carrie Wince examine TI materials.

Jenny Pastiva and Linda Lunghofer diligently work to finish a chemistry lab.

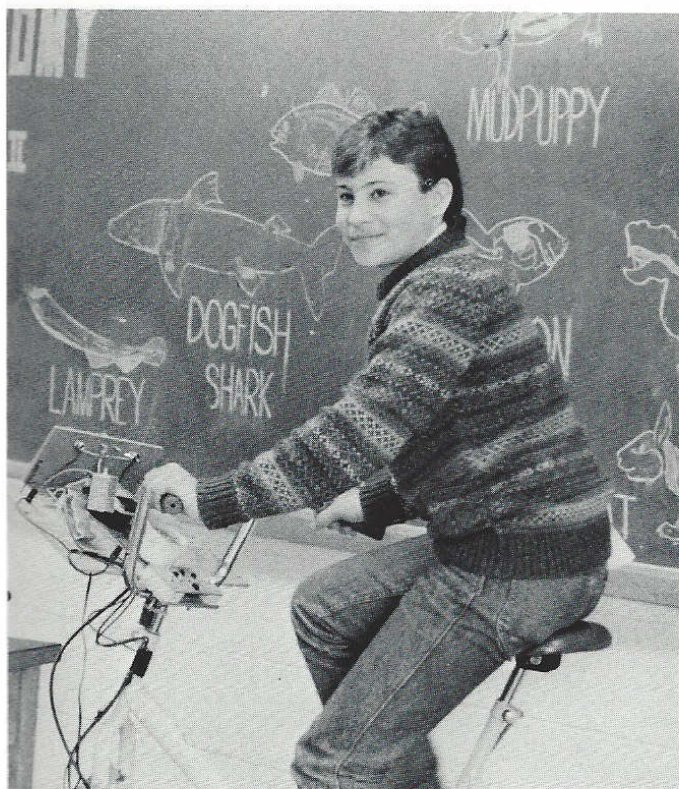

Pam Harvey is working in her childcare class.

Three nice editions to SHS, exchange students, Henry Torres, Anna Dantas, and Diego Parra.

IS WHAT SCHOOL LIFE'S ALL ABOUT!

Displaying his biology project is freshman Matt Deever.

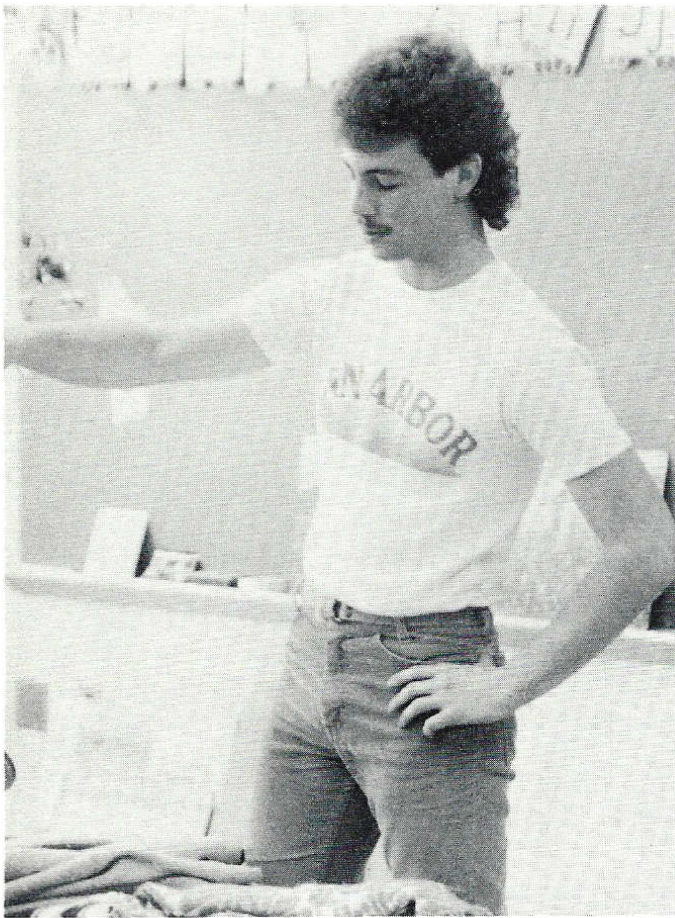

Michelle Musarra, Linda Teece, Tricia Snyderburn and Shelly Thompson have lunch at Maplewood.

Chris Chudzinski, Mike Ondash, Brian Maskol, Keith Fischer, Denise Welsh and Chris Hoventz munch on some lollipops they made in chemistry.

SPANISH 4 SHARES THEIR KNOWLEDGE

Alan Futo puts on a puppet show for the children at Campus Elementary School. Using a little Mexican puppet, he keeps them amused.

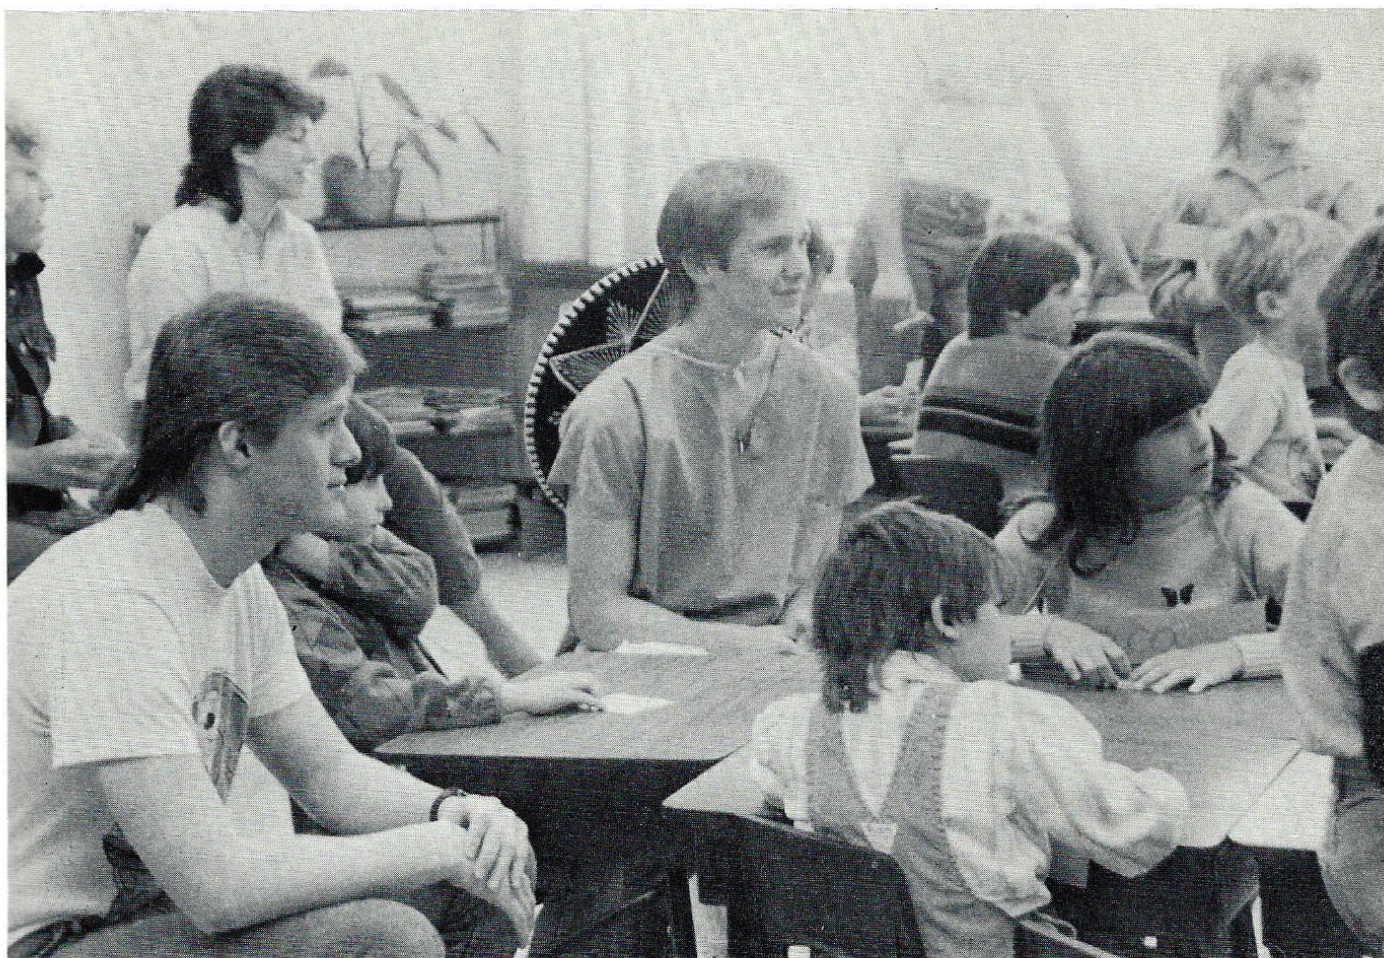

Ellen Ashbaugh, wearing a poncho, looks on as C.J. Valenti tries on a sombrero for the young Spanish students.

Mary Emerick, Scott Corrao, Jerel Stafinsky and Clark Baker watch as the Campus students try on hats.

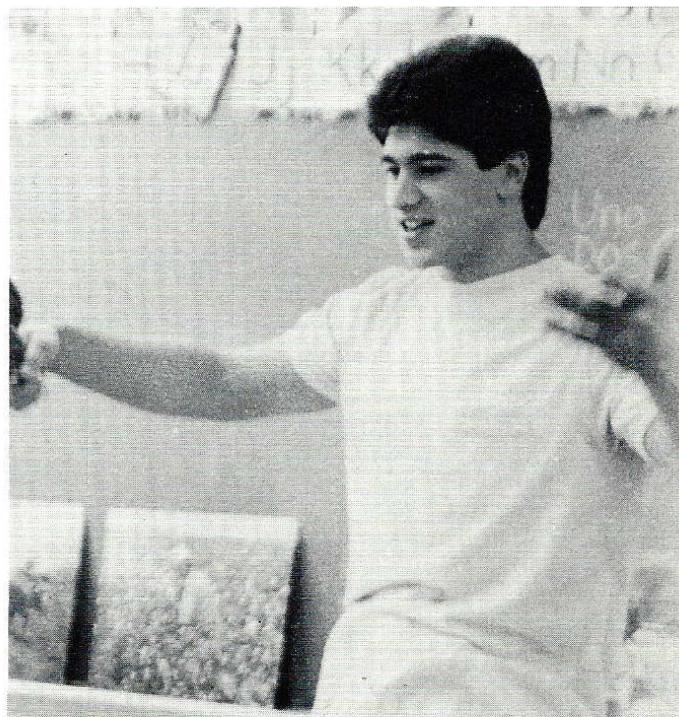

The Spanish four classes journeyed down to Campus Elementary School. They gave the future Spanish students a taste of the Mexican culture.

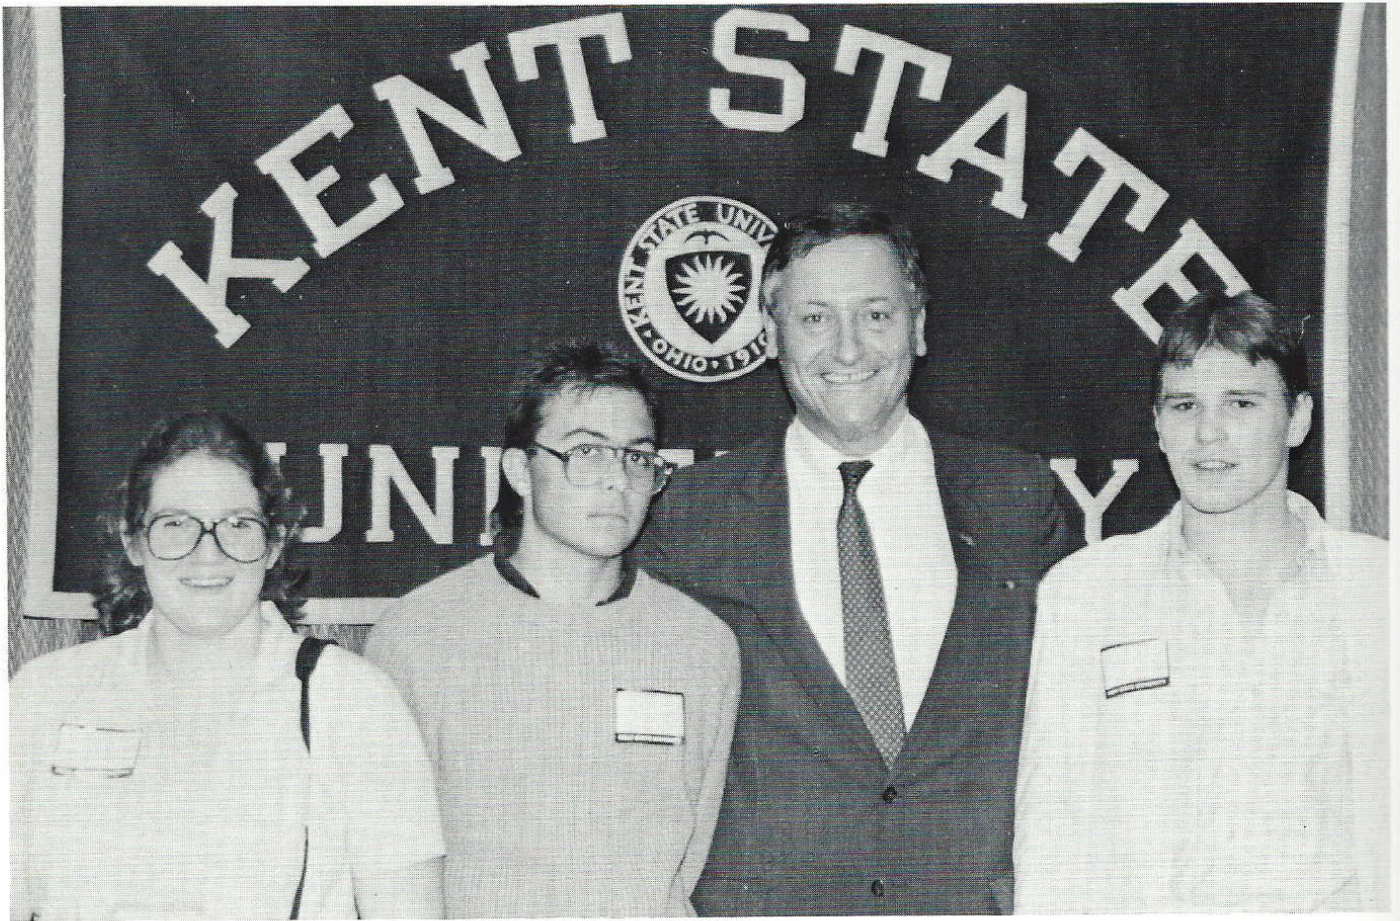

Jerel Stafinsky and Clark Baker are two dedicated students who had the courage to take Spanish 4.

Scott Corrao, a junior, leads the class in a Mexican musical number using authentic maracas to get the children excited.

CELESTE SEMINAR AT K.S.U.

Sheri Phillips, Scott Deevers, and Rick Harner went to Kent State to meet and interview Ohio Governor Celeste.

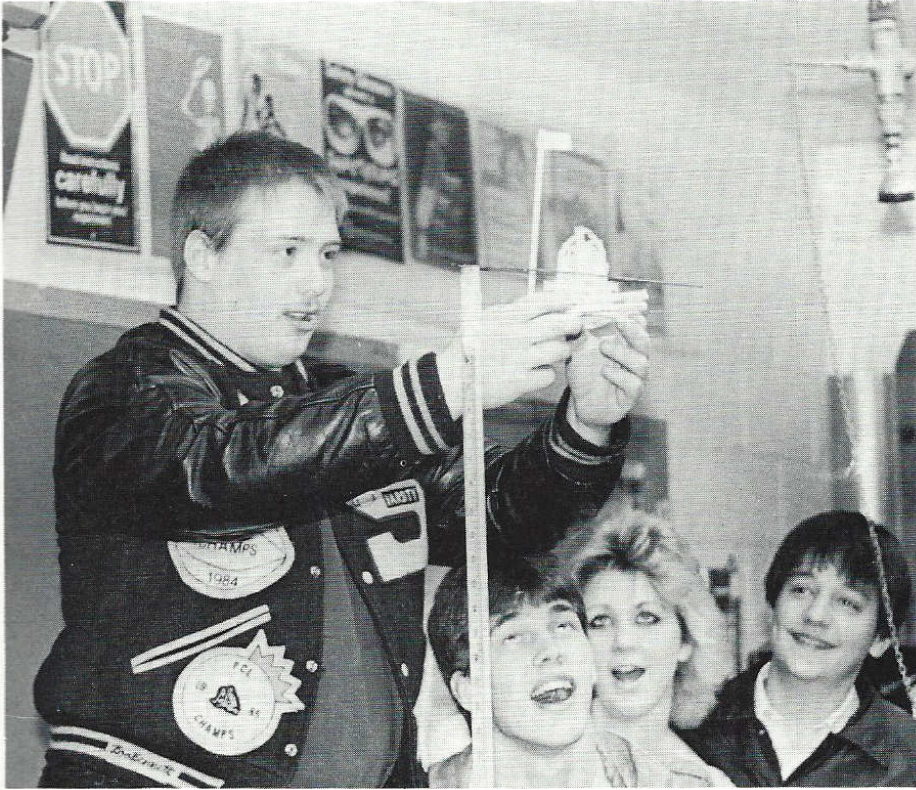

As Celeste ate his lunch, he talked with the students at his table.

Celeste stood at the podium and spoke to the crowd about Ohio government.

THE SUNNY SIDE OF SCHOOL

Boo Bennett tries his entry in the "Great American Easter Egg Drop." This is an annual event in physics.

Jamie Plybon, a Vanna White look alike, poses professionally.

Helping with the ribbons for the X-Mas Balloon sale is Gina Damicone.

In gov't. class, Sean Barringer, Donna Kiger and Larry Schumaker lean on John Lucas.

NHS HONORS ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF BOTH STUDENTS AND TEACHERS

NHS president Matt Sorrick shakes hands with the NHS teachers of the year, Ms. Debra Volk and Mr. Ken Stoner.

Senior, Tom Emerick hopes that when he closes his eyes the camera will go away.

Senior, Jamie Plybon, and junior, Dave Seitz, are members of NHS.

National Honor Society members were kept busy with many important events this year. In October, the inductions took place which brought many new members into the distinguished club. The chorus performed at this year's ceremony. At Christmas time the NHS members "adopted" a needy family. They brought in presents for the children and food for their Christmas dinner. At the end of the year a luncheon was held for the teachers and senior members. The junior members brought in desserts and a party tray was provided. At the luncheon the teachers of the year were announced. This year's winners were Miss Debbie Volk and Mr. Ken Stoner. Teachers of the year are voted on by the NHS seniors. Ken Stoner taught Calculus, Geometry and Pre-algebra. Debbie Volk taught French. Last year Miss Volk was voted Streetsboro Schools' Teacher of the year. Along with the numerous group projects and fundraisers, each member was required to do a service project. For service projects some members did volunteer work at a nursing home. Some helped teachers by grading papers, and some even taught Sunday school.

TRICK OR TREAT

Senior Brandon Humphreys idolizes Mad Max.

"Feed me some cheese!", Sandy Swboni as a mouse!

Christine Gahagan has an unidentifiable costume!

Mike Fronek poses as a photographer.

The image of a rock star, Louanne Campbell.

"BET YOU CAN, BET YOU CAN'T"

Kevin Valenti tries the momentum machine, while C.J. Valenti looks on.

Science Club President, Rick Harner, works on an experiment.

Freshman, Mickie Kaczynski tries to explain her exhibit.

STUDENTS SHOW THEIR SMARTS

Quiz Bowl — Jason Prof, Jeff Beuck, Chris Swank, Tom Emerick, Scott Deevers.

"Big J" and "Devious" Deevers are caught practicing for the upcoming events.

Scott Deevers, Frank Klanduch, Jason Prof, Jeff Beuck, Advisor: Ken Stoner.

SKI CLUB TEARS UP THE SLOPES

A group of ski club members take the journey out to Brandywine. The bus left at 5:30 and returned around 9:00. It took about 25 minutes to reach the snow and cold.

Gretchen Danner and Samantha Sullivan brave the heavy, falling snow to enjoy a night of skiing and excitement.

Gretchen Danner and Karen Deal are caught with a "Minute Maid" in the boot barn. The boot barn is where all the ski boots are kept.

Anna Dantas, our exchange student from Brazil, was a member of the ski club. Since it doesn't snow in Brazil, this was her first skiing experience.

STUDENTS ACCEPT VOWS

Mr. Cinadr, Kathy Krin and Amy Goss attend the reception.

Newlyweds, Donna Kiger and Sean Barringer cut the cake and offer Mrs. Bricker a piece.

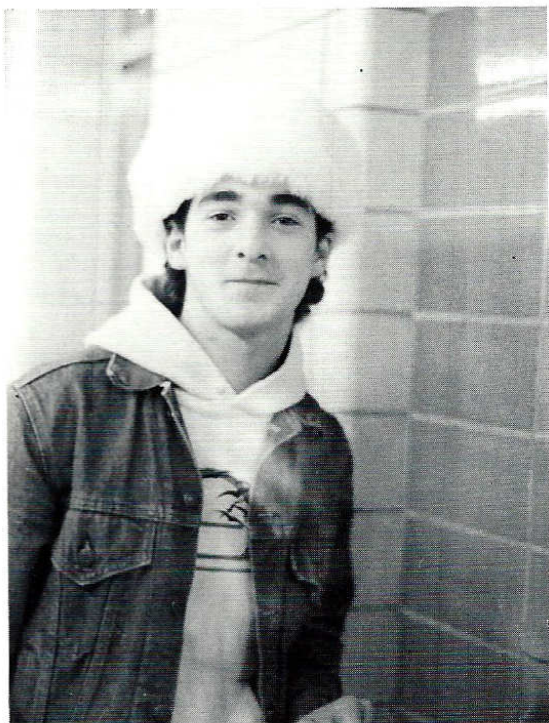

Dave Varga and Carol Keener listen as "Minister" Cinadr reads the marital vows.

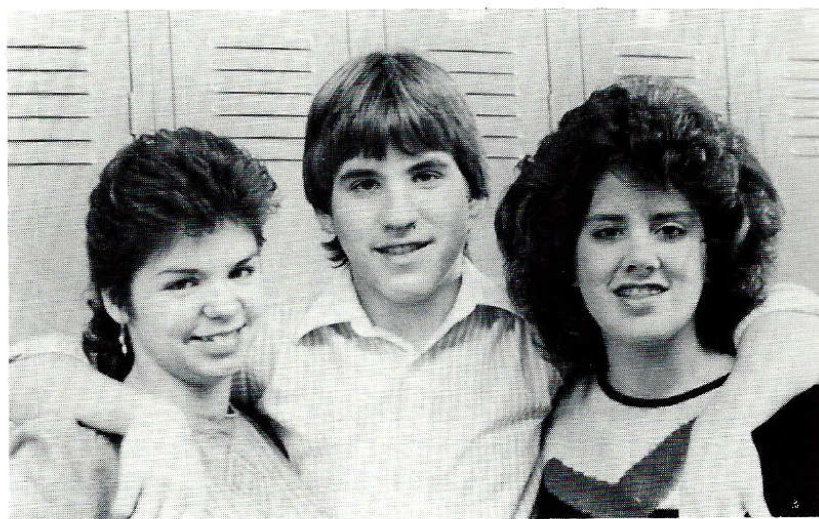

Mr. Marek performs a lovely outdoor wedding in the courtyard.

FRIENDS, FUN, AND FROLICKING ARE ...

Steve Michniak plays Santa Claus at Christmastime.

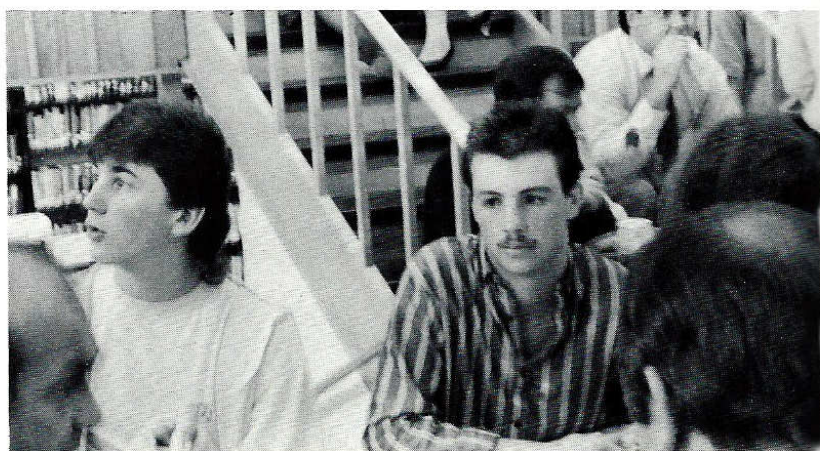

Robin Vasickanin, Randy Yoder and Lisa Cianchetti prove that friends make the days better.

Here is Tina Giunto, most popular girl in the senior class.

Resting her head on her hand, Lisa Manning tries to appear enthused.

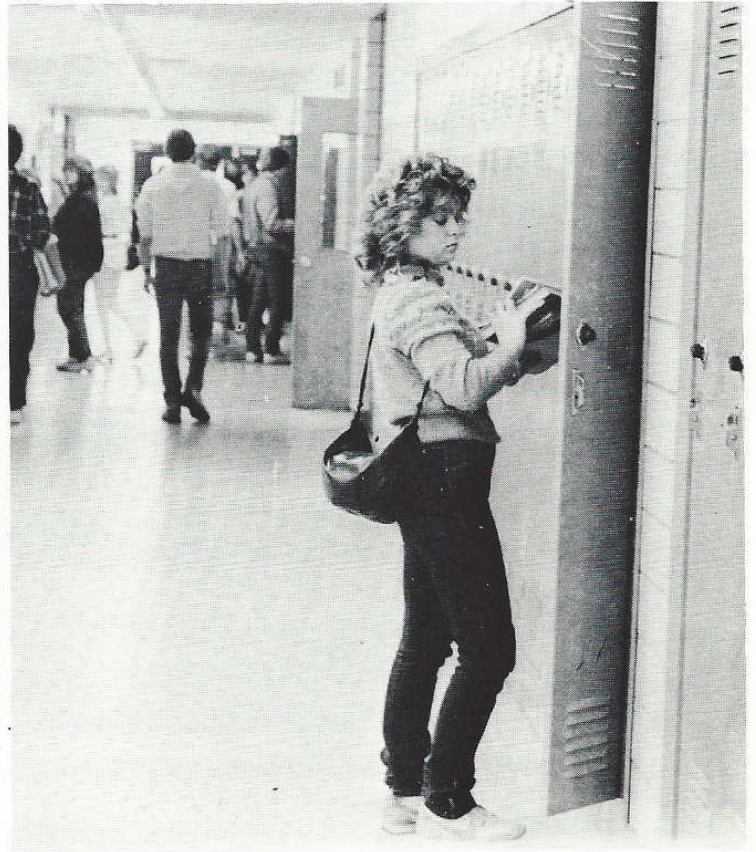

Newly inducted NHS members, Bill Taggart and Alan Futo enjoy the reception.

ALSO A PART OF HIGH SCHOOL

Shelly Zumock and Yvonne McFall enjoy the wintery weather.

Sherry Stout gets her books ready for the everyday hustle and bustle.

STUDENT COUNCIL TAKES ACTION

Kimberly Nielson, Mary Curran and president-elect, Lori Truman stand with their advisor, Mr. Joe Huber. The girls are active Council members.

Aside from the usual things that Student Council does, like Homecoming, a canned food drive and Junior Olympics, they were kept busy with another issue this year. The students actively participated in trying to help pass the levy.

When the levy was first on the ballot in November, a group of Council members went on a march, passing out pro-levy information. Even though the levy failed, this didn't stop them from trying. In April, the members made personal phone calls and mailed flyers to the voters. Although the levy failed again, they tried to pass it.

Student Council treasurer, Scott Deevers, waits with his buddies to rent a tuxedo. All members are encouraged to go to school functions, like prom.

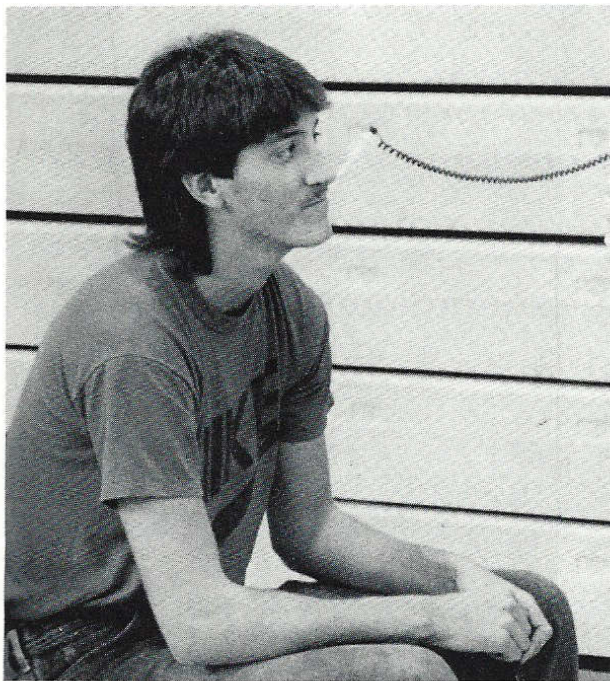

This year's food drive was a success. Mary Curran, Susie Kutya, Lori Pavlick, Lori Truman, Jeff Rhinehart, and Bill Taggart pose with the cans.

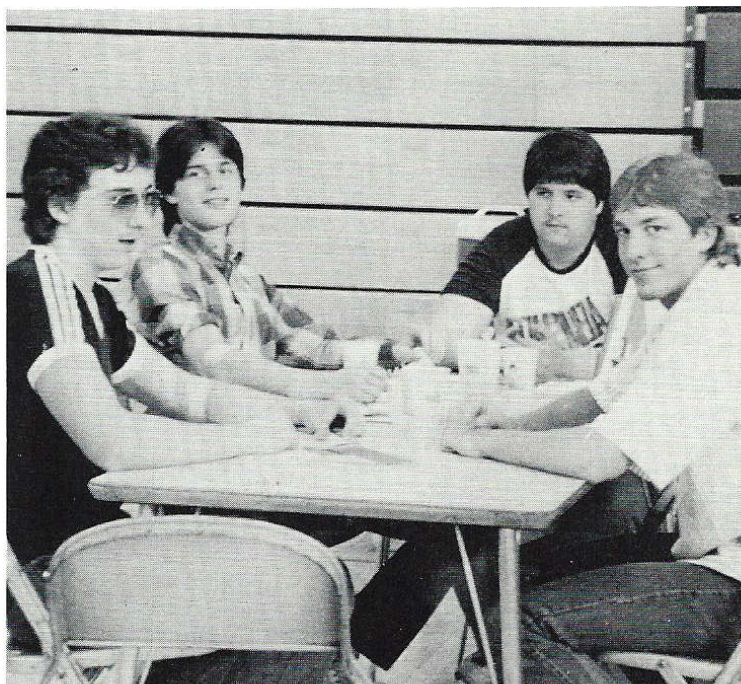

Charlene Sygula served as the acting vice president for the first part of the year while the president was away.

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE

Having his temperature taken, Dave Rogers hopes it's normal.

Bill Butts, Joel Fernandez, Mark Boyce and Bob Danner relax in the canteen.

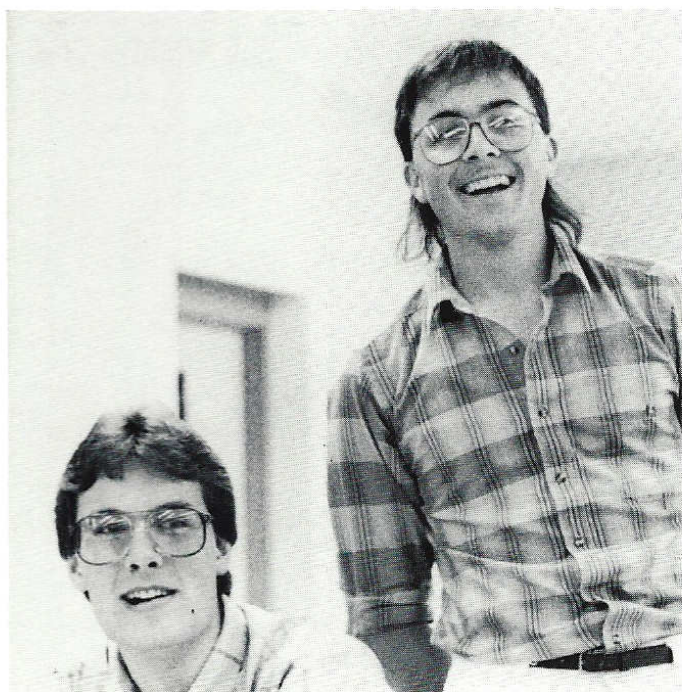

Lisa Brewster's blood pressure is taken before the needle is put in.

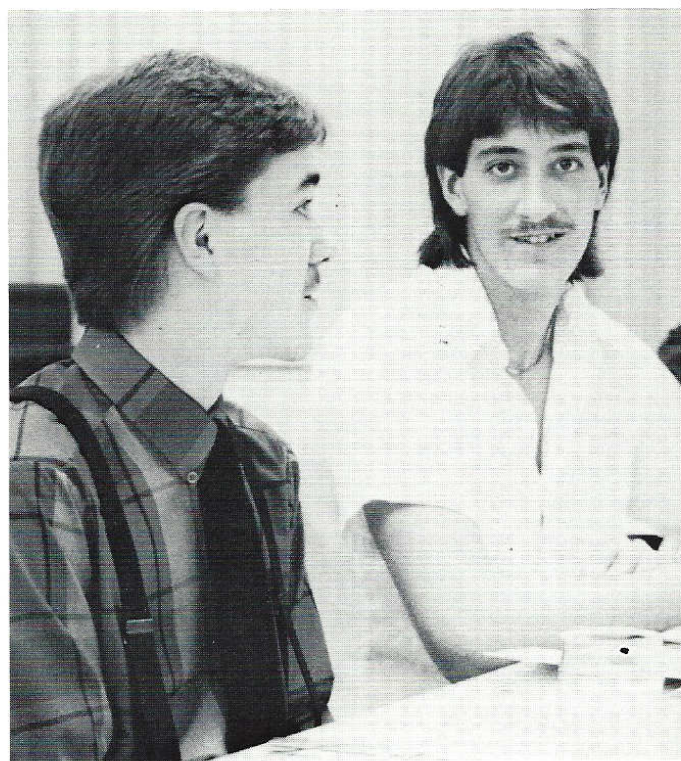

Chris Keller's blood is checked to make sure it has enough iron.

CHAMBER HONORS 3.2 AND HIGHER

After a lasagna dinner, Matt Sorrick sits and listens as Scott Deevers takes his "punishment" from Mr. Garrick.

Chris Sipko and David Rogers eagerly await some food at the luncheon. After lunch Mr. Garrick introduced each of the honored students.

The annual Chamber of Commerce luncheon was held at the United Methodist Church this year. The purpose of the luncheon is to introduce the top students to the business people in the community.

All students, including those from Maplewood, who maintained a 3.2 grade point average or higher throughout high school were invited. The students were served lasagna and for dessert, ice cream and brownies. The guest speaker was Mr. Gary Pierce, attorney-at-law. He's from the firm Christley, Minton, Herington, Pierce, and Silver.

43 students were invited to this year's luncheon.

Senior class president, Samantha Sullivan, suddenly becomes camera-shy as she stands with treasurer, Kim Kovach, and Mr. Carney, the superintendent.

One of the newest faces on the football field was Head Coach Jim Fox. He has been coaching since 1972 in Iowa, Illinois, and Ohio. Before coming here, he was a Kent State assistant coach.

Coach Fox, like every coach, has a philosophy. Having the team in good condition is one of his top priorities. He also feels that no individual is more important than the team. Football is a tough game that isn't for everyone. Hard practices determined which players had the stamina to persevere.

Not only did Coach Fox help the players learn football plays, he helped them learn lessons about life, such as not giving up when the situation is discouraging. Also, something of value takes much work to achieve.

He likes the players because they have good attitudes. Some of the players were disheartened about not having the previous coach. Mr. Fox understands that it was a difficult change for the boys. He's pleased because they showed a genuine effort.

Do you believe in superstitions? The senior football players did and some of them were very strange!

Jerry Benci wore the same socks to every game. Nobody asked him if they were ever washed!

Jack Blasiole and Kevin Kovach listened to "Born to Run" every Friday at 6:00 on WMMS. Kevin wore a Mickey Mouse shirt and Jack wore his "Italian Maniac" shirt. Jack has had this shirt since eighth grade.

Many of the guys said they listened to heavy metal music to get psyched up. One example is John Lucas who listened to AC/DC before every game.

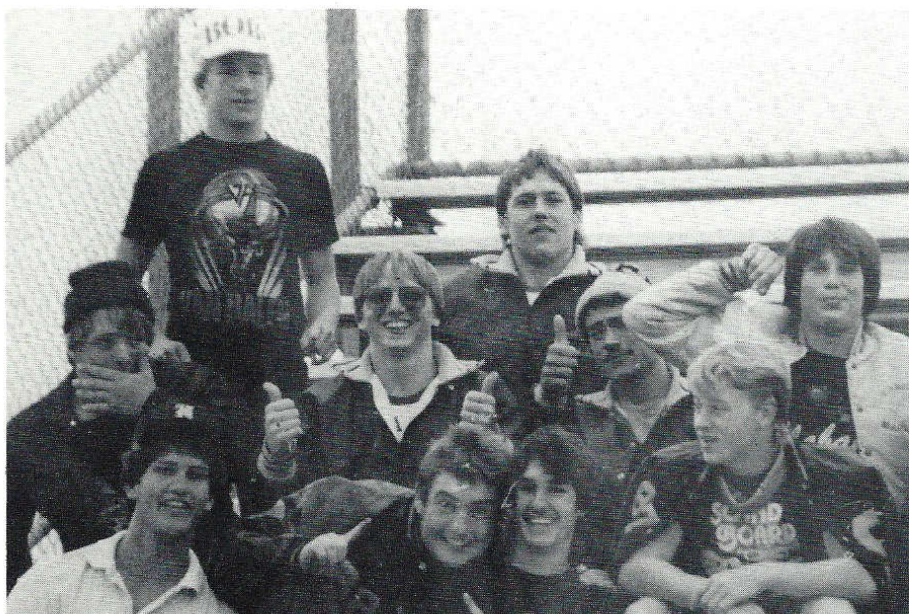

Larry Schumaker wore an Italian horn necklace all the time. He gave it to a different girl every Friday night to wear for luck. We wondered what lucky girl wore it for our Homecoming victory.

There were some players who took the serious approach. Chris Scopilliti and Boo Bennett "visualized" the game all day on Fridays.

The award winning "Orbiter" is a big success in the high school. The National Competition has chosen the Orbiter for seven years in a row. They have won 18 awards all together.

Every summer the advisor, Dave Hostetler, picks two or three editors to go to a four day journalism camp at Kent State where the students feel the campus life for a while. The camp shows how to lay out the pages, gives story ideas, and they even put a paper of their own together.

The class has four different classes. First is learning to write the different types of stories and making headlines. The rest of the classes usually work directly on the paper.

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, we say...

SPECIAL MOMENTS MAKE SCHOOL GREAT

Freshman, Angel Kachenko, is thrilled to be an office aide.

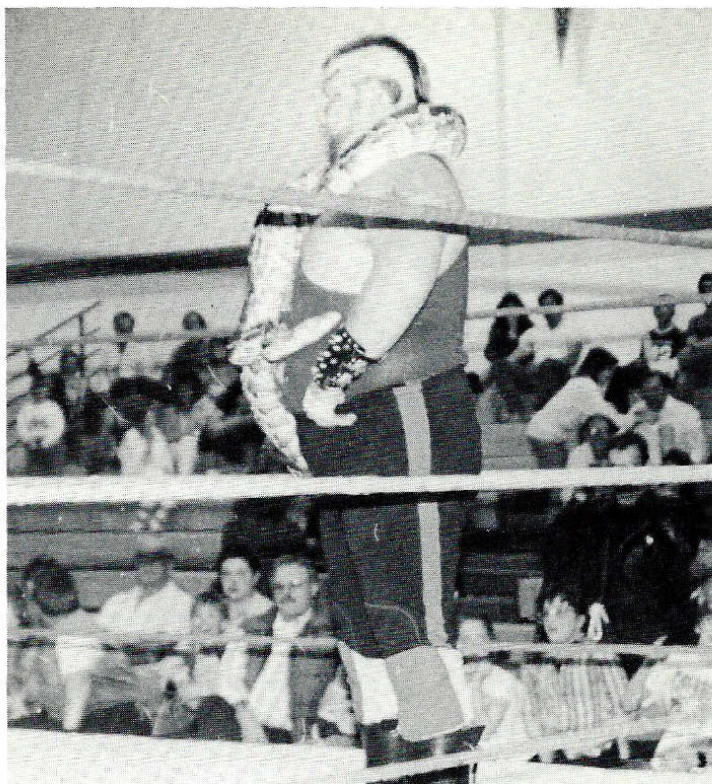

Senior, Kenny Abernathy, hands in his order to the man from Ohio Tux.

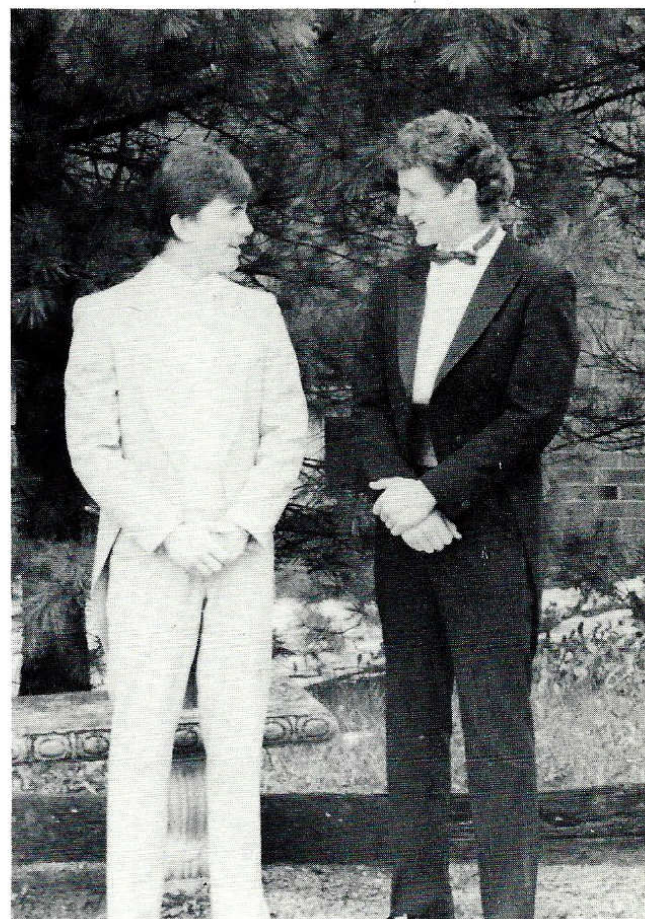

Over the Christmas break, our basketball team played Berkshire at the Coliseum. The Rockets played before the Cavs. Both teams were victorious.

"The Road Warrior" was one of the big-time wrestlers present at the match held at the high school.

Bill Taggart and Tom Africa modeled tuxes and therefore got to rent one free.

Teresa Jacobs mulls about in the hall.

Matt Sorrick also modeled tuxes for Ohio Tux. Was Mr. Creamer's car part of the deal?

THE DIVERSIFIED LIFE AT SHS

Junior Joel Fernandez shows us the look of a man dressed for success.

Junior Matt Boyer becomes fast friends with his fetal pig from biology.

Senior Gina Damicone prefers looking at a diagram than her dissected pig.

Mrs. McKee gets invaded during one of her few moments off.
