Spirit Week

Festivities arouse student pride

This year's spirit week started off with a blast as students participated by dressing up each day. On Monday September 27 students wore their favorite sports team apparel. Tuesday was tourist day and Wednesday was wear a towel on your head day. Thursday sparked the class rivalry day with seniors wearing togas, juniors wearing bathrobes, sophomores wearing gloves and freshmen wearing weird socks. Blue and gold day ended the spirit filled week along with a pep rally.

During the week students competed in the spirit link competition but once again the Class of 94 pulled away for the win for the fourth time. The week ended with the traditional homecoming dance with a Hollywood Nights theme.

Homecoming Hollywood Nights

Hollywood Nights was the theme to the 1993 annual homecoming dance. The dance was organized by the student council committee. The dance was held on October 2, 1993. For one night the gymnasium was turned into a "Night in Hollywood." Entering the gym, guests walked across the long stretch of red carpet, while cameras at the sides were flashing. The court danced to the theme song "Can't Help Falling in Love" by Elvis Presley.

The queen's court consisted of freshman Jill Taylor, sophomore Jamie Schuman, juniors Christine Scheffel and

Mary Wagner, and senior attendants Jessica Schuman, Jenny Hall, Christina Slane, and winning the crown was Queen Heather Scheffel. The king's court consisted of Mike Benci, Brian Kerr and Brandon Danner. Danner was named king.

Cheerleaders

Kick up spirit!

The 1993-94 season proved to be a winning one for the Steetsboro Rocket Cheerleaders. The cheerleaders attended cheerleading camp in August and came home with many awards. The major awards they received were Best Home Dance, Best Jr. Varsity Home Cheer, Best Home Dance, Best Varsity Squad and Best Freshmen Squad. The squad was also invited to compete at Nationals.

Along with winning awards at camp the Rocket Cheerleaders attended a competition in Windham and took first place in the small varsity competition.

Many of the cheerleaders also were nominated for Best All Around Cheerleader at camp. They were Kristi Brandlehner, Jenny Luke, Shannon Gahagan and Angela Scheffel. The Best All Around Cheerleader Award went to Rocket Varsity Cheerleader Christina Slane. Christina was also invited to cheer at the Hula Bowl in Hawaii.

For most of the cheerleaders the 1993-94 season was a success, but for the seniors it was a sad, but memorable season. "I was happy it was ending. I wanted to start getting my life in order. Hopefully I will cheer for Ohio State, that would be awesome!" said senior Christina Slane.

"I've really enjoyed cheerleading and I was sad to see it end. I'll never forget all the good memories," said senior Jessica Tolcin.

Gridders take second

After an 0-2 start it would have been easy for many Rocket football fans to give up on their team. It would have been equally easy for the players themselves to fold up the tents and call it a season. That neither happened is a testimony to the team and its senior leaders.

"I would be lying if I said it didn't cross my mind after losing those first two to Aurora and Cortland that we could be in for a long season," said second year Rocket coach Dave Hostetler. "I think we all started to question some things. We just had to remember we were champions, that's when the season came alive."

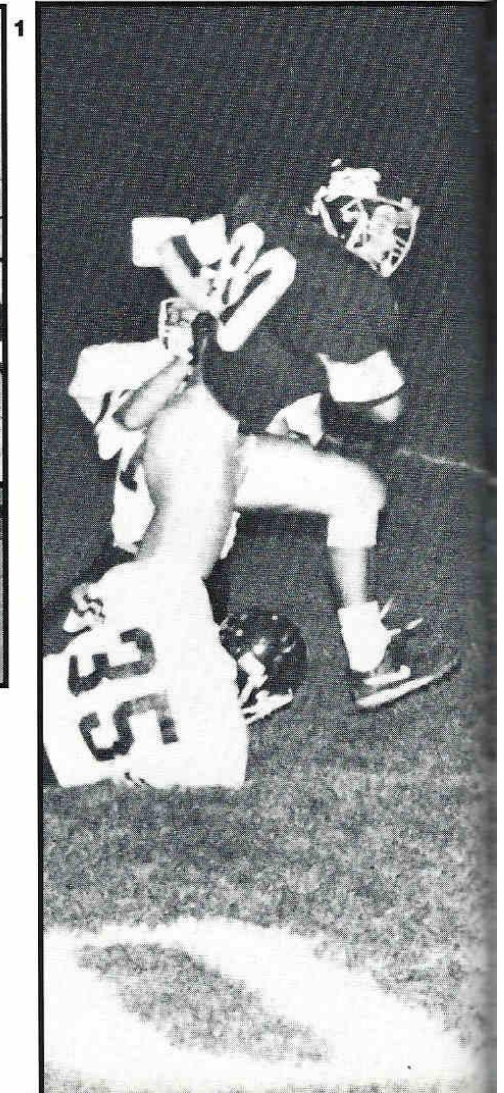

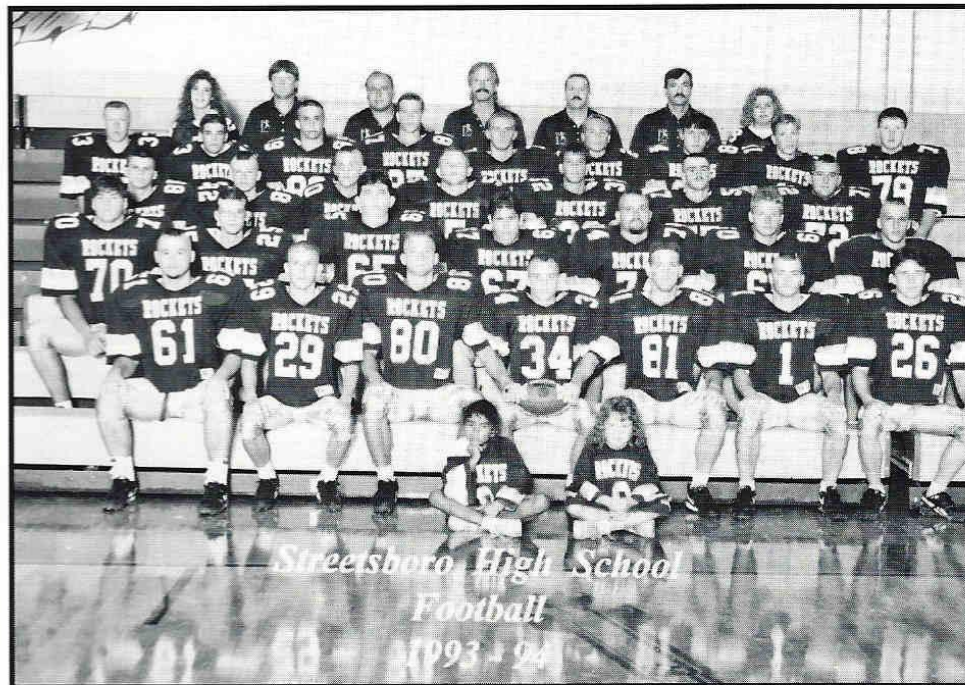

Pivotal was the third game against Hudson. "Nobody gave us a chance," said Coach Hostetler. "Even the local papers wondered why we thought we could compete with a Division I team." The result a solid 26-0 Rocket victory.

After two more victories against Southeast and Rootstown and a loss to eventual league champ Garrettsville, the Rockets reeled off victories against Field, Crestwood, Woodridge and Windham. "I think that is the thing I am proudest about for the season. After the bad start we won seven of eight games," Coach Hostetler said.

Despite finishing second to the 8-2 G-Men in the Northern Division, the Rocket 7-3 record was the second best in the entire league. In the old format the Rockets could be celebrating a third straight PCL title. "Garfield lost to Rootstown and we lost to Garfield, so we would have been tied for the championship under the old system," the coach explained.

The Rockets sported some impressive stats this season starting with the senior's varsity record. Over three years they were 24-7 with two PCL titles. Individually, on offense Dave Podwoski led the scoring threat with 12 touchdowns and 76 total points. On the ground Jason Klimak led all rushers in scoring with 7 touch downs and 42 total points. At the helm of the rocket attack was quarterback Jamey Long he amassed 1389 yards and 15 touchdowns.

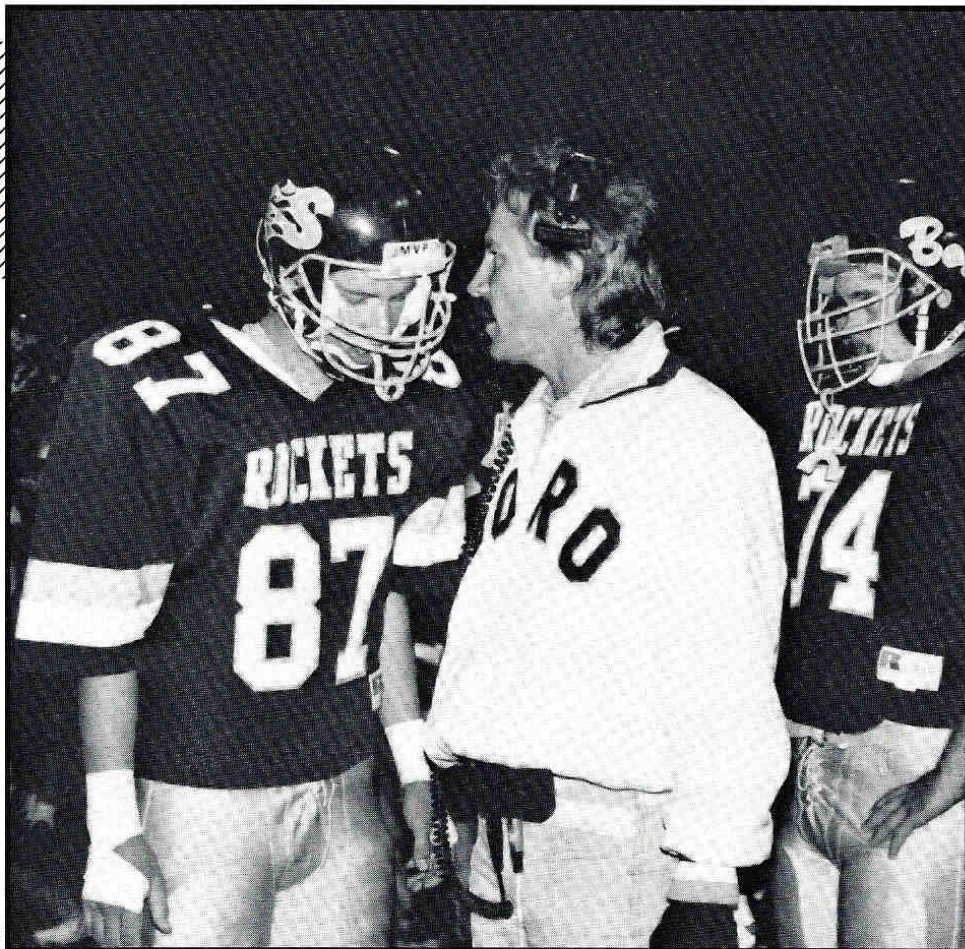

On the defensive side of the ball junior Craig Demagall led the team in tackles close behind was senior Josh Herman. Spearheading the "quarterback attack" was senior Gary Coughenour with five sacks.

Spikers finish 6-10

The Streetsboro High School volleyball team finished their season with a 6-10 record. The Lady Rockets lost to the Saint Vincent-Saint Mary Irish in the second round of the State Tournament. "I think after the first game we were just expecting to win again," said senior co-captain Heather Scheffel. The loss ended their season.

The spikers were represented in the All Portage-league team by three seniors. Julie Lawson and Jenny Dye made Honorable Mention and Heather Scheffel made 2nd team all PCL. The Lady Rockets had a very young varsity squad with only four seniors. The team hopes to improve next year with almost the same varsity squad as they had this year.

GOLF

Teeing it up!

Golfers tee up the season with a 6-7 PCL record. Two players from Streetsboro received second team all PCL honors, Kris Jankowski and Bryan Sell. One other Streetsboro native, Ryan Balis, received honorable mention for his golfing skills this year.

Golf coach Bill Buemi has faith in his golfers. "Everyone stayed at their average and had no dramatic improvement or decline in ability." Coach Buemi feels that practice is the key to a good golfer.

Practicing during the off-season is one good way to improve in skill. "To be the best, you have to eat, drink, and sleep golf. If you play on the weekends before and after work, after school, and during the season, you are going to get better," stated Coach Buemi.

Boys Basketball

The 1993-94 Streetsboro Rockets boys' basketball team came into the season with three goals and they were looking to fulfill their first goal by winning the PCL North Title. By mid season the light proved too bright and they darted their way back to the shade of another disappointing season. "We felt this was the year we might have the opportunity to win the division. We knew we didn't really have an outstanding team, but with the teams we were competing against, we had the best chance," said Head Coach Terry Peterson.

Girls Basketball

Get big victory

The Lady Rocket Basketball team ended their season by winning their first game in many years. Although the girls struggled through most of the season, a large albatross was removed from a program that had lost 50 games. Persevering and improving throughout the year the big win came against neighboring Aurora by a score of 41-37. First year head Coach Mr. Greg Cielec was relieved to get that first win. "The girls played so hard all year that it would have been a crime to not win at least one game," Cielec acknowledged. "We hope to build on this for next season."

Coach Cielec is trying to get the girls to take basketball seriously, so he and assistant coach Coni French took the girls to Columbus to watch the Lady Buckeyes against Michigan.

"I couldn't ask much more from the girls," admitted Cielec. "We just did not have a lot of height and that hurt us. The girls remained enthusiastic and we have a lot of younger girls returning next year. Things are going to continue to get better."

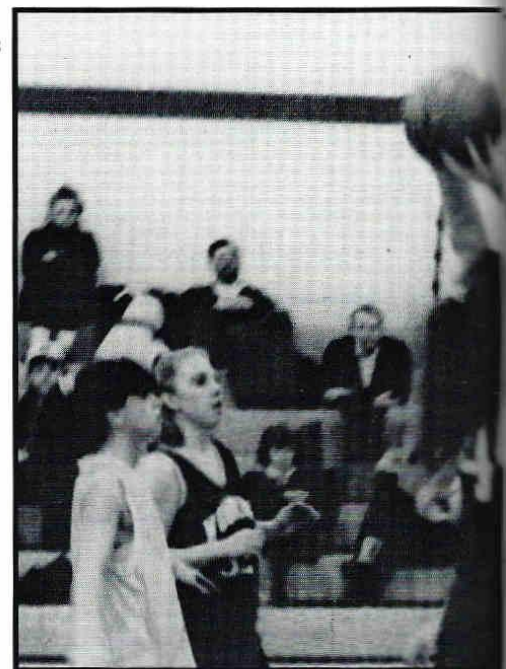

Graduating from the team this season are Laura Brown, Rachel Steffner and Melissa Bloomquist. "You have to give these girls credit," Cielec said. "They stayed on through the losing seasons because they love the game. That says a lot for their character."

Boro sends two to state!

The wrestling squad compiled a solid record this year and finished second in PCL play. The Rockets also placed second in the sectional tournament and ended their season with a record of 7-2. "The team had a really successful season and I have real high expectations for the next season," Coach Larry Marek said.

Senior Steve Hunt and sophomore Kris Geibel both had fabulous seasons and qualified for the state wrestling tournament. "Steve and Kris did a great job this year and a qualification in States in any sport means you are one of the best, and these two are," Mr. Marek said. "They should be proud that they made it to State even though they didn't place. Kris still has two years left and should build on his experience."

Another high point for the Rockets was junior Kenny Kasarda who finished his season with a great record. "Kenny had a good season and will be great next year," Mr. Marek said. "Kenny was in the toughest bracket in the state and just had a bad draw at Sectionals."

BATTER UP!!!

Baseball team struggles

This year the Streetsboro Rockets baseball team has been plagued with mediocre batting and pitching plus poor fielding. The team as a whole only batted .247 and the highest batting average on the team is .304. The Rockets have also committed 78 errors this season in 19 games. "At this level we can not afford to make 4 errors a game and expect to win many games," Coach Terry Peterson said. The team has compiled a 6-13 record overall, a 2-5 North Division record and a 2-3 South Division record.

Leading the Rockets on the base pads Bryan Sell with 56 at bats, 20 runs, 17 hits, 3 homeruns, 13 walks and a .304 batting average. Also senior Bobby Adams led the team with 3 doubles and 3 homeruns. Leading in RBI's is junior Jim Wirth with 13, he has 3 sacrifices and an impressive 12 of 12 stealing, while Kris Jankowski was at bat 56 times, was hit by a pitch 3 times and had two sacrifice flies. Junior Ryan Balis and Kenny Waggoner led the team with 13 errors.

Although the Rockets did not fair too well this year they have built a foundation for next year. The team will be losing only 3 seniors next year which were all team leaders. They are Bobby Adams, Bryan Sell, and Shawn Hackbart. Along with these team leaders was Kris Jankowski. If the Rockets want to succeed next year they have to fill the roles of the seniors leaving.

Lady Rocket Softball team

The Rocket softball team made up for a heart breaking 2-1 loss to the defending state champ Tallmadge Blue Devils by winning the first PCL title in school history.

"I am extremely proud of the way the girls have played all year," Coach Bill Buemi said. "They worked hard and improved all year which is what every coach looks for." For his efforts Buemi was named Coach of the Year by his peers.

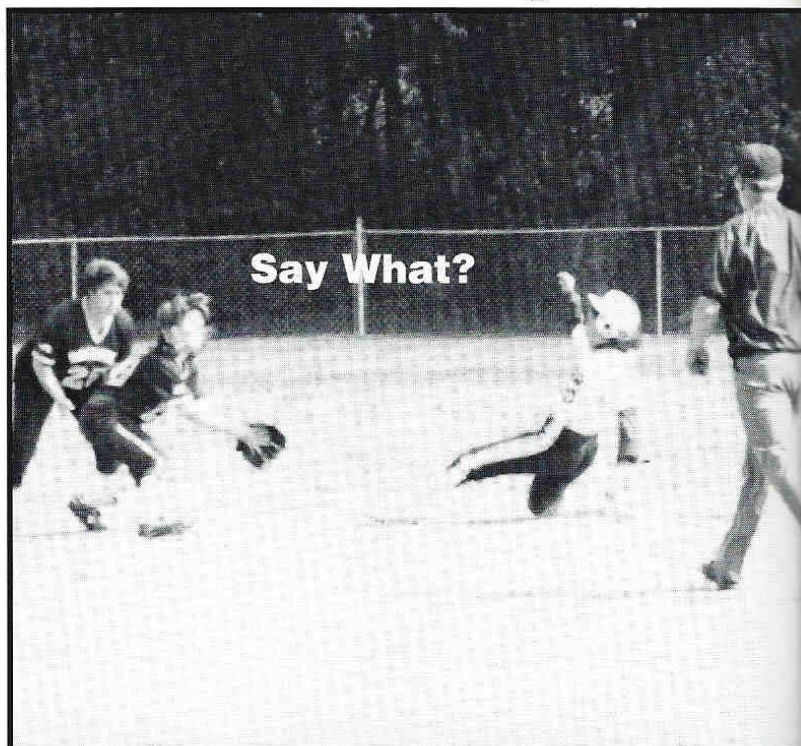

It was a banner year all the way around as the girls won 16 games behind the All PCL pitching of senior Rachel Steffner.

"The real difference this year was that we finally came together as a team," Steffner said. "We have had the talent for the last couple of years, but it took until this year for everything to gel."

Bloomquist, Steffner and Dye were joined on the All PCL team by junior B.J. Alexander. Named as a utility player B.J. batted .365 including three triples.

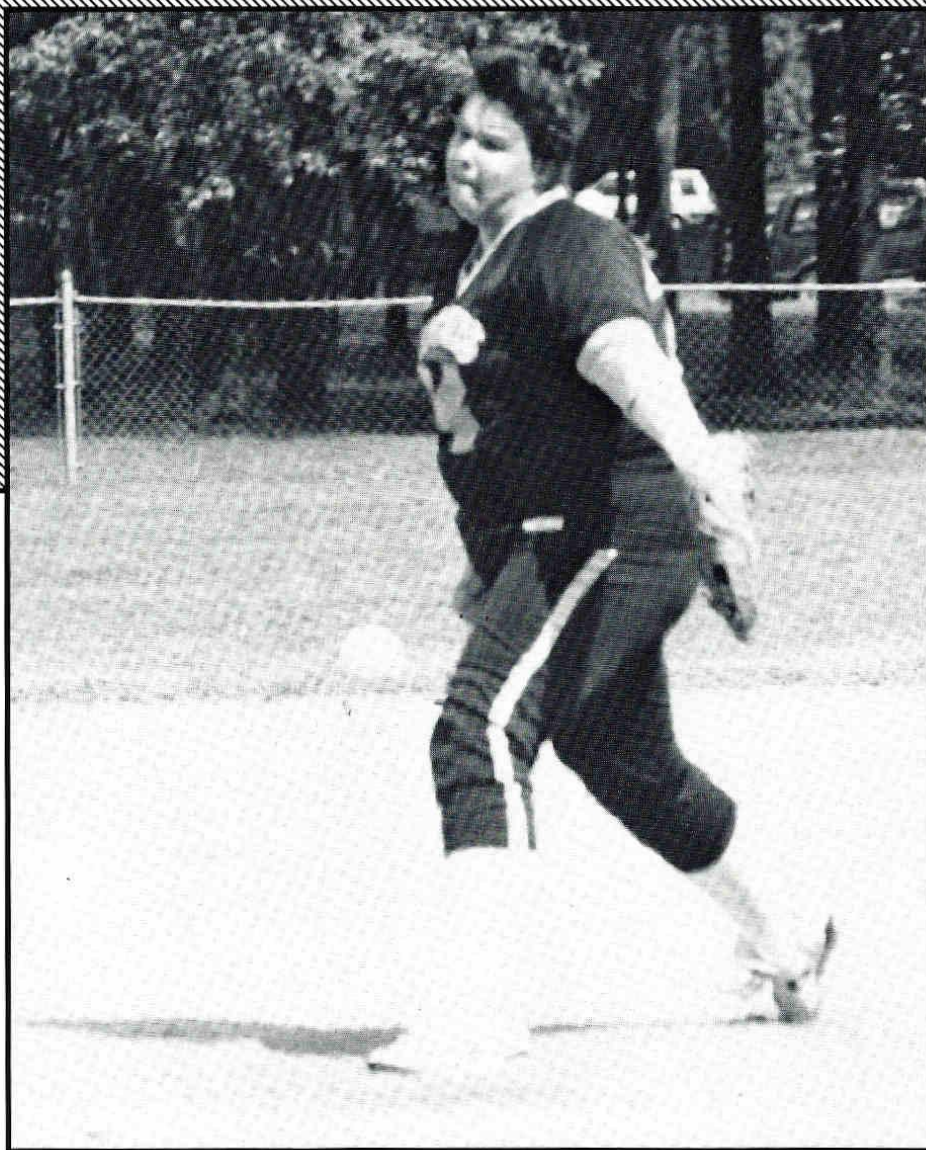

Highlights of the season were victories over big schools Stow, Kent Roosevelt, Ravenna and Norton. The Rockets avenged an early season loss to Akron's St. Vincent-St. Mary. "We lost to them in the Field tournament early in the season, but we came back and upset them in the state tournament. They were the second seeded team in the tournament," Steffner noted.

It's all about running to the fame

Streamboro High School's 1993-1994 boys' track and field team has gone through a lot this season to say the least.

Some of the many things that happened to them during the season to hold them down include injuries to key runners, absences from practices and school, and ineligibility due to poor academic performance.

When it came down to the last important meet of the season, the PCL meet, it looked like none of these things were going to make a difference.

Band shows musical talent

The 1993 Streetsboro High School Marching Band has had a very hectic year along with an exciting one. They started off the freshmen with practicing side by side with the upperclassmen. The whole band attended band camp at Camp Muskingum in Carrolton, Ohio for 4 days and three nights. During this time they worked very hard for the up coming season by playing some popular hits by Billy Ray Cyrus.

During the half time at the Rockets football games the band played their hearts out being directed by drum major Andy Murray and entertained the crowd by playing the horse, one of the audiences favorite tunes. The seniors had their time to be in the spotlight and to show off their musical talent on Senior Night by going back in time and playing old songs from their freshmen year.

add them to halftime

Strettsboro High Schools 1993-94 majorette and flag corps worked together as a squad at the football games, parades and band shows.

This year's flags and majorettes attended Fred J. Miller clinic held at Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. Senior Michelle Koleszar received an honorable mention at camp for her twirling ability. Also both groups received a superior rating during the competition that was held at camp. The girls also attended along with the band, the annual band camp that was held at Camp Muskingum in Carrolton, Ohio.

The majorettes and flags devote most of the year to prepare for the upcoming marching season. During this time the girls come together and work as a family.

Orbiter enjoys 15th year of publication

Getting the newspaper out on time is one of the few things the Orbiter Staff has to worry about. Everyone who writes for the Orbiter are students who go to school here at SHS.

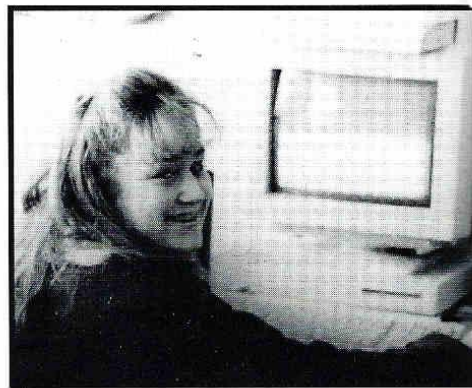

The Orbiter is laid out on the computers at school, but to be printed as a newspaper, the Orbiter is sent to a plant in Pennsylvania. There are 600 copies printed and the school hands them out to students free. There are seven newspapers sent out within one school year.

The paper not only covers what is going on around school, but also what is going on around the community.

There is a deadline day on those pages and when the deadline comes around everyone is in such a rush.

Even though people are in a rush, for 15 years the paper still meets its deadlines and has won the American Scholastic Press Award an unprecedented 14 years!

Yearbook

AND THE CROWD GOES.....

WILD

The Golden Key Yearbook Staff is made up of nine people. These people are senior and juniors who know how to work with the Macintosh Computers. These nine people have the responsibility of putting the yearbook together, and have the 144 page book completed by the end of the school year.

Each person in the yearbook class is assigned to a certain amount of pages.

Those pages are to be done at the deadline. In order to meet the deadline the first need is a little decision making. Pages must be set up. Each staff member designs his/her page, then the captions and copies must be written, pictures chosen, cropped and labeled. When all of this is completed, proofreading must be done, the pages shipped; and the result is the finished yearbook.

Teaches in a new way

Mrs. Evans is once again the advisor for the 93-94 Spanish Club. During the course of the year the students have learned many new things to help them better understand the Spanish culture. During the first couple months of the school year the Spanish Club visited the elementary school.

Once every two weeks the twelve club members, each assigned to one class went over and taught the students things such as, names, greetings, numbers, colors, family members, parts of the body while they played the game Simon Says. "The idea of going over to the elementary was completely the student members idea. I think the experience made them more responsible, and they really enjoyed it!" said Mrs. Evans.

The International Culture Club promotes cultural awareness and kindness towards all people. Also ICC has done many fundraisers, not only to raise money for the club, but also for the community. ICC started the Dear Santa program which raises money for children and families who are less fortunate others. The most popular sale done by ICC is the holiday flower sale. Most of the students at SHS purchase a message for a friend or that special someone so ICC makes a profit from the sale.

ICC is advised by French teacher Mlle. Debi Volk. Meetings for the club are directed by the club officers, President Michelle Koleszar, Vice-President Michael Robitaille, and Treasurer/Secretary Amy Miller.

Academics at its Best

This year the National Honor society of Streetsboro High School inducted 16 new members. The new inductees were seniors Bryan Sell, Jason Ogden and Chris Smith. The new junior members were Dee Ihasz, Amy Ash, Betsy Pennock, Kelly Christina, Andy Murry, Kalli Vimr, Melanie Cullen, BJ Alexander, Christine Scheffel, Keri Bahney, Kris Jankowski, Jan Dempsey and Becky Gorbe.

The old members of NHS include president Laura Brown, vice-president Kim McNamee, Treasurer Jake Snyder, Secretary Rachel Steffner, Jessica Tolcin, Serena Broska, Matt Gillespie, Shannon Gahagan, Melissa Bloomquist, Becky Reid and Micheal Robitaille.

Students must hold a certain criteria to even be nominated for NHS. First they must have an accumulated grade point average of 3.5 or higher. One must also be involved within the school or community and also show good character and leadership. After they reach these qualifications, the nominees must fill out an application. Then they are selected through a committee made up of five SHS teachers. This year's committee was made up of Mr. Terry Peterson, Mrs. Nanette Peterson, Mrs. Janet Peare, Mrs. Paula Stoner and Mr. JJ Huber.

Besides having to keep a high GPA the NHS member must have a service project beyond the ones they participate in through the club, such as going to retirement homes on Christmas and making Easter baskets for the occupants of the retirement homes. "NHS is a good club because we help people, and we try to make people feel that they are special," said senior member Serena Broska.

The induction ceremony took place in the SHS gymnasium on Friday, October 29. After the induction all of the new and old members of NHS and their families were invited to the library where cake and punch was being served.

V-Rock advances to Saturday broadcasts

First it was summer, then it was Christmas and New Years break, now it's Saturday. Beginning on February 19, V-ROCK began its first-ever regular Saturday broadcasting schedule with sign on at 9am and sign off at midnight. The staff are all 18 years and older and composed of broadcast interns from the Connecticut School of Broadcasting. These are the same people who covered most of our summer shifts this past year. They have shown themselves to be very responsible and reliable broadcasters. We look forward to welcoming them to our improved V-ROCK staff.

V-Rock's new staff members attended a four hour orientation session which incorporated station policy and FCC rules, or radio broadcasting rules. They underwent a minimum of three hours of studio observation and practice and eventually took the FCC/Station Policy test.

The current SHS staff members have continued to uphold V-ROCK's substantial reputation. While at the same time experiencing a career in the field of broadcasting. With good support from V-ROCK's listeners, the new beginning that the radio station is trying to incorporate will definitely be a success.

The Seniors exchange vows in the lecture hall, as part of the mock wedding given by Mrs. Gaye Bricker's family living class. The mock wedding, which has become a tradition at SHS, are performed every year after the class discusses the time and preparation that is needed to perform a wedding. "The students really enjoy the mock weddings. The most common question that is asked on the first day of class is, 'who is going to be the bride and the groom?' The wedding teaches the students how to plan a wedding, but I mostly do it for fun," commented Mrs. Bricker.

After the time and preparation given by the students, they were able to eat pizza, cake and drink punch at the reception following the ceremony. "The reception was my favorite part of the project, but getting everything together was educational and I think the class learned a lot of the responsibilities that come along with a wedding," commented groom Josh Herman.

Voices

This years fall play was Voices from the High School by Peter Dee. Among the more than 40 students who auditioned, 16 actors were chosen along with four dancers. Most of the actors had two or three parts in the play. Voices from the High School was not a traditional play, but a contemporary play that depicted high school life. The play consisted of about a dozen different scenes. The scenes were short and usually only had a couple of actors on during it. Many different aspects of high school life were touched upon such as good and bad relationships, after school choices, suicide, and death.

I Do

The spring play for this year was Father of the Bride. The play was performed on two nights. The first night being the play only and the second night was a dinner theater. The play was a comedy about the trials and tribulations that a family goes through in preparing for a wedding. About 20 actors were chosen for a variety of roles from speaking to nonspeaking roles. "The acting was better than ever and thanks to the efforts of students like Mike Thomas and Jeremy Carney, so was the set," director Mrs. Peterson said.

Preparing for the big wedding reception are Becky Reid, Jaye Horvath and Mike Robitaille, (1).

Discussing the food matters with the father of the bride Chris Smith, are Mary Ortega and Mike Thomas, (2).

Preparing to walk down the aisle on her wedding day is bride-to-be, Heather Scheffel, (3).

PROM '94

One of the last big events for the graduating seniors is prom. Streetsboro High School's prom was on Saturday May 7 at Sun Valley Party Center in Aurora for the third year in a row. The night was cold, and gloomy outside, but bright and sunny inside. The night was full of dancing, romance, friends, and just letting loose and having a good time. The prom theme of 'Forever Young' will never be forgotten, nor will the memories.

The memories of crowning the royalty is also a very important event. Last year's king and queen, Joe Boardwine and Justina Beres, were present to pass down the crowns, a long awaited and very traditional event for all the students at SHS. The seniors who attended prom cast their votes when they first entered the prom. Angie Medina and Mike Benci took the titles for the new king and queen of SHS's junior and senior prom. The other candidates for the crowns were Christina Slane, Jessica Schuman, Dave Podwoski and Scott Schuman.

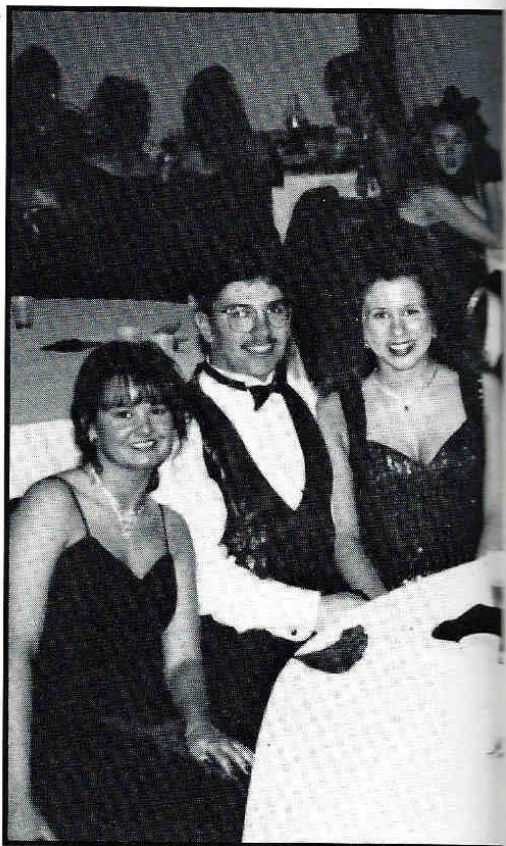

After the long awaited crowning for the prom king and queen Mr. Jesse finally gave relief to the candidates, and announced the winners. "It seemed like Mr. Jesse took forever to announce the king and queen; I was so nervous. When he called my name I was very surprised and very honored. Winning the crown was a feeling I will never forget," senior Mike Benci said. "I was shocked; it took me a while to realize that they called my name. I remember Christi and Dave saying 'She's shaking'," queen Angie Medina said.

Reid leads class of 1994

by Kalli Vimr

Proving that good grades are not all that counts are the top ten seniors. This year's top ten seniors are a mixture and variety of many different types of students and personalities.

The valedictorian is Becky Reid who has a 3.955 GPA. Becky's favorite class this year was Art 1. "It was the ultimate class because it didn't even seem like one," Becky said. She also fondly remembers her ninth grade concepts class and Ben Finley's daily detentions. In high school, Becky has learned that "character is absolutely vital." Becky has helped SHS by participating in such clubs as NHS, Beta Club, drama club, and FNA. She also received the Knights of Columbus Youth of the Year award. This summer she will be going to Scotland and England. "I can't wait to hear their nifty accents," she said. Becky will be attending the Kent State Honors College to major in interior design.

Melissa Bloomquist is the salutatorian with a 3.935 GPA. Melissa has many fond memories of SHS, like Mr. Cielic's driving abilities, Mr. Pollock's moo's, and the homecoming pep rally, but she claims that she "learned everything I need to know in life in kindergarten." Melissa participated in NHS, Beta Club, student council, varsity softball, and varsity basketball. Next year, Melissa will be attending Bowling Green and majoring in physical therapy.

The third senior this year is Jessica Tolcin with a 3.933 GPA. Jessica received two scholarships to attend the University of Miami in Coral Gables. Jessica belonged to NHS, Beta Club, and marching band. She also spent all four years of high school cheerleading, and may tryout for this activity for Miami in the fall. Jessica is majoring in accounting.

Jake Snyder is fourth with a 3.918 GPA. Jake's favorite class this year was radio. "Bob Long treated us like people, not 'just kids' and taught us to see everyone as somebody," Jake said of his favorite teacher. Jake's most memorable moment was the homecoming pep rally. Jake has been involved in countless clubs, including NHS and the business club. He also participated in track, cross country, marching band, and concert band. Jake will be attending the University of Akron Honors College and majoring in accounting.

Number five is Bryan Sell with a 3.917 GPA. Bryan will be attending Mount Union next year to study accounting, and he will also be playing baseball. Bryan has played baseball at SHS, too, as well as golf and basketball. He participated in NHS, business club, Bible study, and was student council president. Bryan will be able to apply a lot of what he has learned in high school, into real life, such as his accounting classes with his favorite teacher, Mr. Huber. He has also learned "survival is the key. It doesn't matter how you get it done just so it gets done," Bryan says.

Laura Brown is sixth with a 3.867 GPA. She has contributed her time and talent to SHS for the past four years. Laura is president of NHS and president of the senior class; she has also participated in student council and ICC. Laura has also been on the varsity basketball team for four years. "The most important thing I have learned at SHS would have to be trying to learn how to deal with people. Laura will be attending North Carolina State University and majoring in political science.

With a 3.778 GPA is the seventh senior, Rachel Steffner. Rachel has spent her time contributing to SHS in many ways. She has participated in NHS as secretary, Beta Club, student council, basketball and softball. Next year Rachel will be attending Tri-State University and playing softball there, also. She will be majoring in Computer Aided Design.

Kim McNamee has shown her leadership qualities not only through good grades, accumulating into a 3.756 GPA, but also through her leadership roles. She was president of Beta Club and vice-president of NHS. She also participated in ICC, FNA, volley ball, and track. Kim will be attending Cleveland State University and majoring in physical therapy.

Jason Ogden is number nine with a 3.750 GPA. Jason has participated in NHS, radio, golf, and basketball. Next year, he will be attending Ohio State but has not yet decided on a major. Jason's most memorable moment this year had nothing to do with his good grades or sports. The most exciting thing that happened to him was seeing the Janet Jackson concert.

Michael Robitaille has a 3.727 GPA and is number ten in his class. Michael's most memorable moment this year was being selected to be one of the 200 singers (out of 600 applicants) at the Ohio State Fair. Besides chorus, Michael has participated in ICC, ski club, track, and NHS at Streetsboro. Next year he will be attending Bowling Green to study psychology.

Challenging the class of '94 to make the most of their lives is SHS principal Mr. Thomas Jesse, (1).
