SENIOR MEMORIES

"When we were playing in the parking lot after school with the ball we took from Windham and Coach caught us. Then they made me lie about it-the worst liar on the team!" - Danielle Lee (Middle Hitter)

"The night we were practicing for the pep rally in the Varsity locker room, and we were trying to get the dance together, but we couldn't get it right so many times, and we ended up just laughing." - Linda Ped (Outside Hitter)

"My favorite memories are our humorous stories on the bus rides to and from games and when me and Jessica shattered the light in the wrestling room playing volleyball, after being told not to be in there." - Mossy Long (Setter)

"Something that I will always remember from volleyball, besides the people, was practicing our dance for the pep rally in the locker room and everyone laughing. We tore it up at the pep rally. Football should of lost." - Sarah Sedes (Defensive Specialist)

"So many memories to choose from! How about the many touches to the walls (Nicole Bokai), the Homecoming pep rally, or the time I missed the ball and sat on it!" - Jessica Owen (Opposite Hitter)

Junior Nicole Orcutt prepares to set the ball as her other teammates pay close attention.

Awarded with a victory, Liz Laurel, Kara Sonner, Hannah Thomas, Abbey Abramowicz, Katie Verner, Nicole Orcutt, and Lythande McCune gather happily together to celebrate.

WHAT WAS YOUR BEST MEMORY?

"My greatest memory of volleyball was the whole season being a freshman and playing with the more experienced players was fun! I can't wait till next year."

- Mossy Long
(Defensive Specialist)

"Craving the green blonde at Senior Night. The prize winners were Jess Owen and Mossy Long. And an everyday adventure with the seniors at practice, especially when 'Bobby' chipped her tooth."

- LeAnne Davis (Outside Hitter)

BOYS' TRACK

SHS

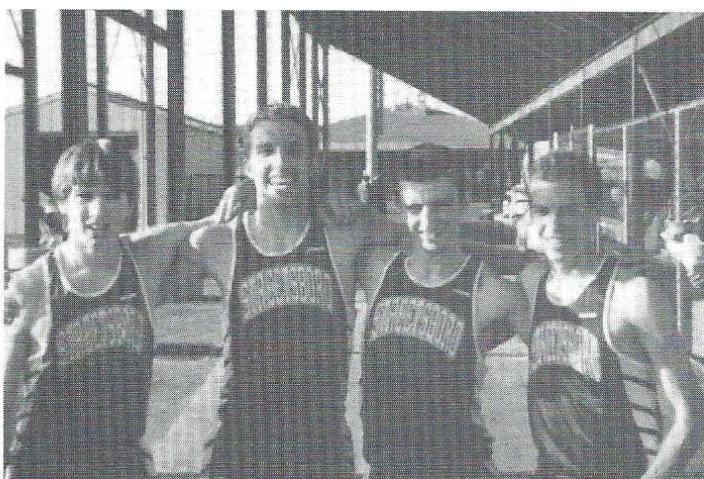

STARTING A GOLDEN TRADITION

The boys track team members are: Coach Huth, Tom Teague, Delorean Davis, Nick Owens, Gary Baab, Aaron Allooh, Rick Owens, Kenny Carpenter, Georard Gray, Rod Parks, Alex Koporc, Joey Creque, Matt McAlpine, Alex Graham, James Carr, Chris Cigany, Chris Strayhan, David Gardner, Blake Darrow, Brad Mauser, Adam Nunns, James Knisley, Clayton Watson, Anthony Yanulaitis, Ryan Parks and Mike Smith.

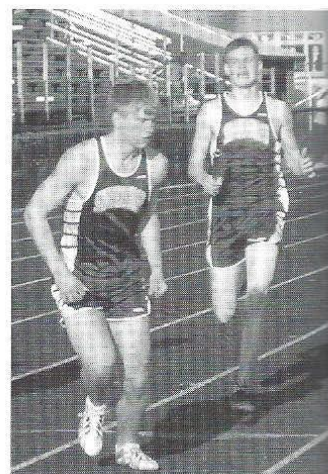

Running the open 800, and taking third place, at the PCL track meet is junior Adam Nunns.

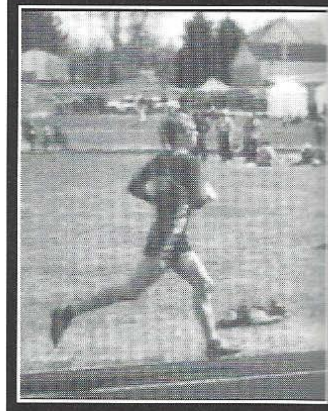

Congratulations to the 4x800 relay team, consisting of seniors Clayton Watson, Chris Cigany, James Carr and junior Adam Nunns, for setting the new school record. The old school record of 8:30, set back in 1985, was broken early on with a time of 8:21. Then, after placing ninth in a Division II regional meet, the team broke its own record, clocking in at 8:15.

Concentrating hard on his jump the East Canton invitation is freshman Ryan Parks.

Sophomore Kenny Carpenter hands off the baton to junior Alex Koporc.

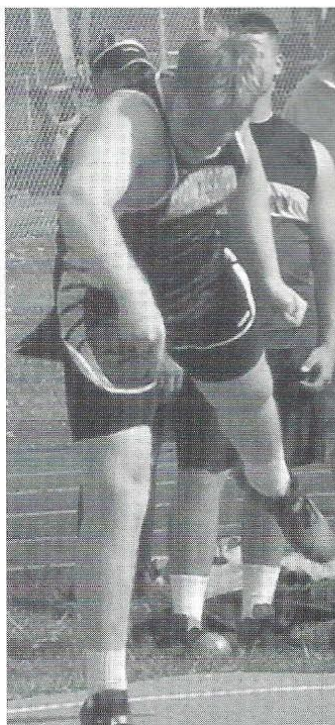

Running in the open mile at the Mineral Ridge Invitational is senior Chris Cigany.

Jumping over the hurdles at the East Canton Relays is junior Anthony Yanulaitis.

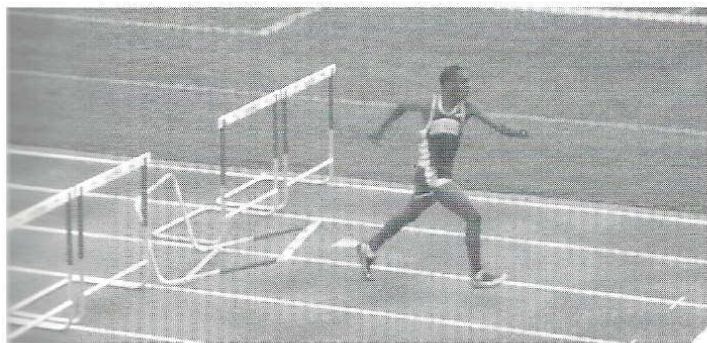

Trying hard not to fall while throwing the shot is senior Alex Graham.

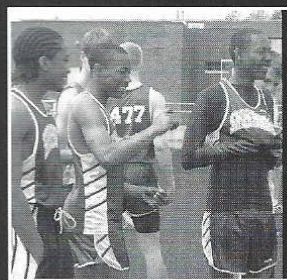

Running the final lap of the distance medley at East Canton is senior Clayton Watson.

Trying hard to keep off his opponent in the two mile relay is senior James Carr.

Running in the mile relay at East Canton is sophomore Blake Darrow.

Freshman Chris Strayhan struggles to get back up to speed after tripping over a hurdle in the 300-meter open hurdles at Ravenna.

Easily making it over the bar, freshman Ryan Parks participates in the high jump at East Canton.

A little disoriented as they run the 100-meter dash down the Waterloo track (the opposite way from normal because of the strong wind), are freshman Mike Smith and junior Rod Parks.

GIRLS' TRACK & FIELD

Painting the track blue and gold

An unforgettable season

Sophomore Ashley Rimmel

"Track was so much fun. I can't wait to do it again next year!"

Junior Lisa Dascenzo

"The shot and disc chickas were real close. We were like sisters."

Junior Stacie Stockard

"My biggest accomplishment was breaking my school record and making All-PCL champ in the two-mile."

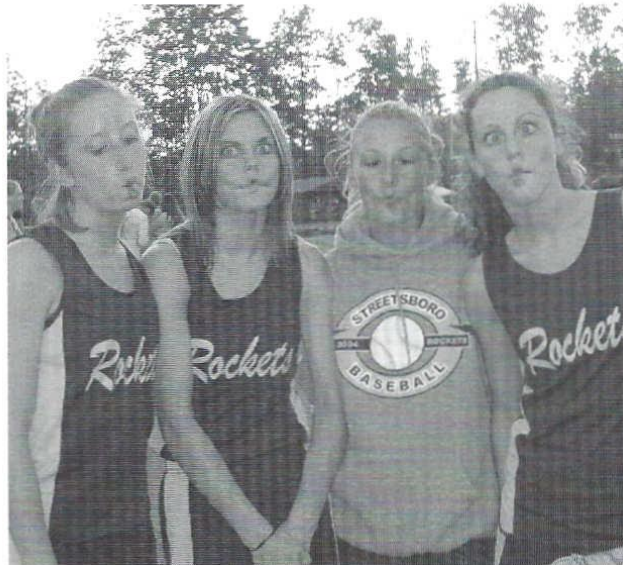

Junior Anna Powichrowski

"Once the starting gun is fired, all my worries disappear and I fly."

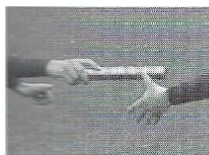

Earning their first Varsity letters are sophomores Nachele Walker and Aaron Putt.

Junior Stacie Stockard, freshman Jessica Scott and juniors Sarah Plaso and Caitlin Bourque goof off before running their 4 x 400 meter relay at the district track meet.

During the spring awards night, seniors Ja'Kia Buchanan and Gina Moraco awarded all of the girls on the team with the "Thrift Store Awards." As a thoughtful surprise, the girls presented Buchanan and Moraco with graduate stuffed animals signed by the team.

Sophomore record-breaker and state qualifier Kim Taylor lets out a powerful throw.

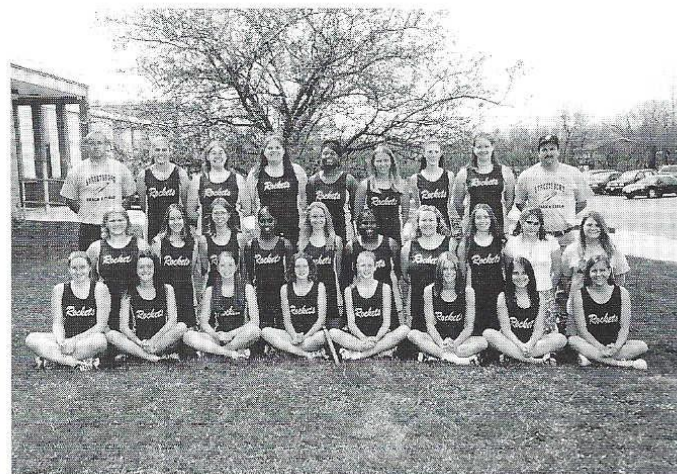

Keeping good stride to finish in second place with a career-best time at the PCL meet is sophomore Chelsea Fiediga.

Sophomore Aaron Putt takes on the 100M hurdles. "Coming back from a knee injury, I'm doing a lot better in hurdles than anyone expected," she said.

Winning in the rain

After over 30 years, the Lady Rockets dominate over Southeast and Woodridge on April 13 after a night of cold wind and rain.

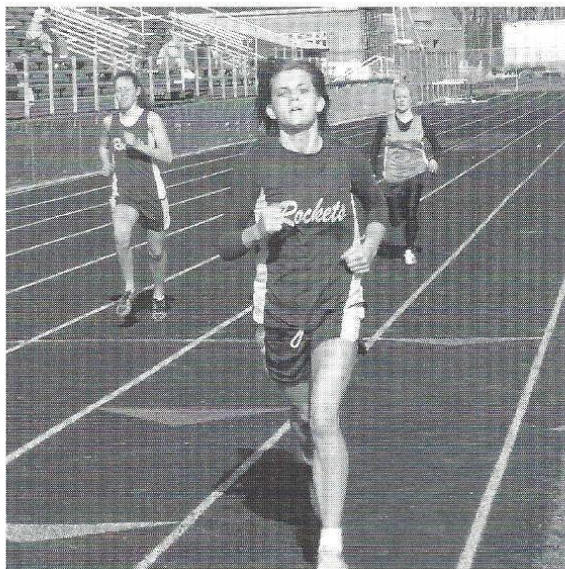

A victorious season was made possible this year thanks to the 24-member girls' track and field team. The team is made up of Coach Robb Kidd, Ashley Rimmel, Rachel Stutzman, Kim Taylor, Jacquella Gray, Danielle Potkay, Jillian Faitz, Colleen O'Saben, Coach Tom Fesemyer, Lisa Dascenzo, Gina Moraco, Anna Powichrowski, Nachele Walker, Sarah Plaso, Ja'Kia Buchanan, Carly Smith, Stacie Naylor, assistants Tiffany Brenner and Kelly Vest, Christine Taylor, Caitlin Bourque, Stacie Stockard, Courtney Hershberger, Chelsea Fiediga, Jessica Scott, Farren Rowland and Aaron Putt. Not pictured is Chelsea Benson.

Senior Gina Moraco flies into the long jump pit at Ravenna Stadium and secures a 14-feet-two-and-a-half inch mark to place in PCLs.

A star in the making, freshman Jessica Scott leads the 400 meter run with junior Caitlin Bourque close behind.

ROCKETS LAUNCH COLORFUL PUBLICATIONS

Orbiter Editors: Senior Craig Rosenthal; juniors Megan Bender, Kalie Adams, Amanda Boyle, Ingrid Kolpeja and Lane Davis; seniors Lindsey Srp, Aurora Twigger and Gina Moraco; juniors Erica Bachtel and Lauren Yusko; and seniors Amy Abramowicz and Stephanie Gotschall. Absent are photo editors Kelsie Liviach and Rachal Weitzel.

The Orbiter newspaper was awarded First Place honors from two separate journalism organizations, The Northeast Scholastic Association and the American Scholastic Press Association. The NOSPA award tied into a conference which 25 SHS journalism students and publications advisor Mrs. Polly Dierkens attended, along with approximately 60 other Ohio schools, at Kent State University.

The First Place award from the ASPA was actually accompanied by "Special Merit" honors as well. Such distinction is only given to schools that earn over 900 points on the 1,000-point rating scale. The Orbiter earned 975 points and this judge's comment: "You have an excellent school newspaper, which shows the talent of your editors, reporters, writers, photographers, layout designers, and advisor."

The Orbiter operates under the leadership of senior editors Gina Moraco and Amy Abramowicz, and junior editors Lane Davis and Lauren Yusko.

Senior Stephanie Gotschall holds up the Superior award she won in an on-site writing competition at the NOSPA press day at Kent State University in April.

The 2003-2004 Orbiter staff: Juniors Megan Bender, Ingrid Kolpeja and Kalie Adams; senior Pat Davison; sophomore Amy Dhanoa; juniors Lindsay Sovchik, Lauren Yusko and Lane Davis; seniors Frank Corlett, Mike Rebman, Don Swekoski, Bobby Makar, Steve O'Saben, D.J. Golden Performances

Sights set on victory, freshman Sonya Rentschler, captivates the audience with her performance of "Hero."

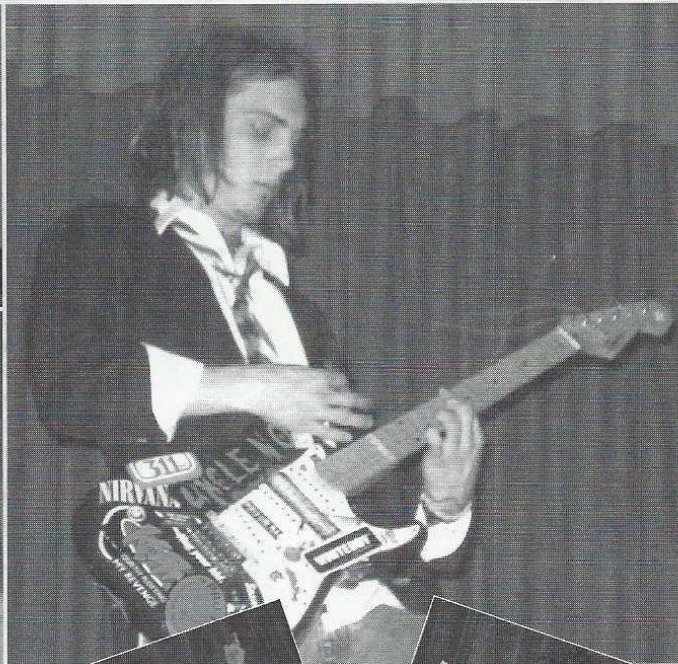

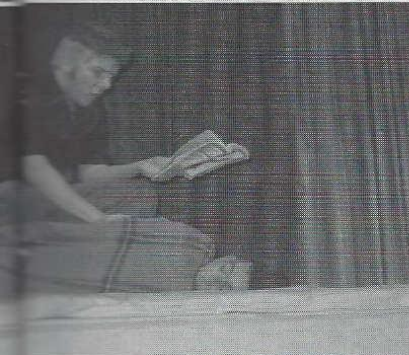

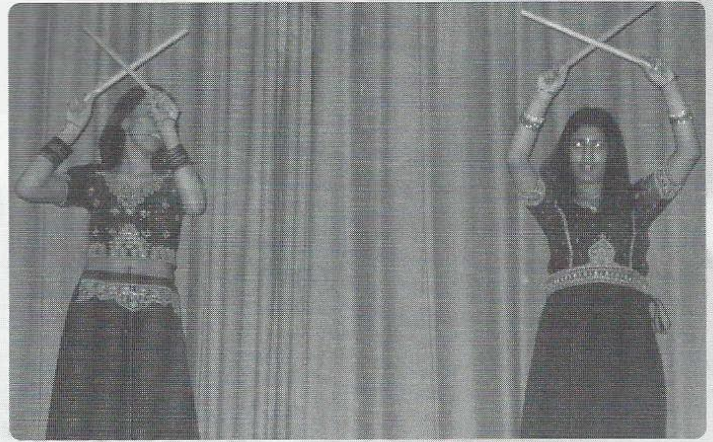

Singing "I Will Always Love You," junior Caitlin Bourque gives it everything she has.

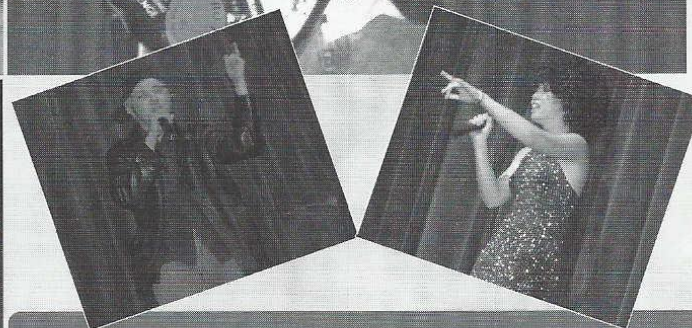

Moved by Caitlin Bourque's performance are seniors Damian Beauchamp, Tony Smith, Steve Felger, Chris Potkay, Bobby Lee, Scott DeCavitch and Adam Leech.

The Details

Streetsboro High School held its annual talent show on Friday, April 30, 2004. The energy could be felt rushing past you out of the gymnasium as each performance went by. Acts ranged from soloists, duets, bands and even some that didn't fall into a category, they just stood out all on their own.

Utilizing the music provided by seniors Danny Smith and Pat Davison, along with sophomore Jemuel Laurel, senior Jordan Laurel portrays a powerful performance of "The Reason."

As part of Dirty Circus, Don Swecoski tries to comfort Mike Rebman.

Pat Davison gets into the zone as he plays an original piece on guitar.

Capturing the attention of the audience, seniors Kyan Johnson and Kelly Vest perform a duet to "Into You."

Preparing to introduce the next act is senior Don Swecoski.

Sophomore Heidi Grubaugh gets into the groove as she sings "Dancing Queen."

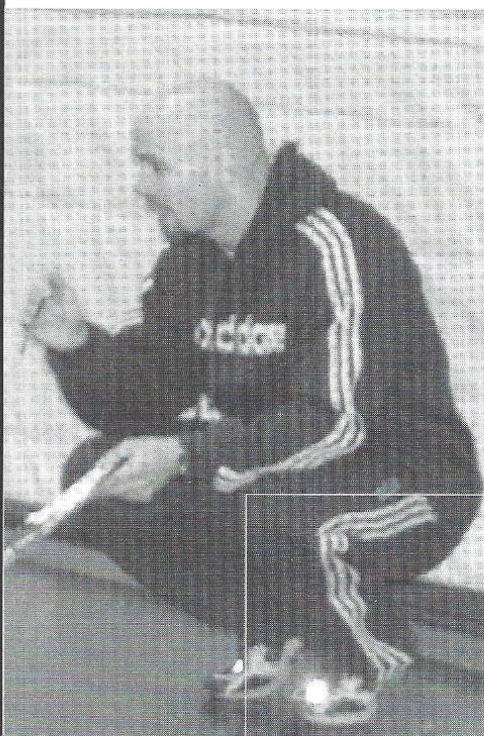

Going for a flawless performance, senior Diana Wilson sings her heart out to "I Hope You Dance."

FACULTY

Who doesn't appreciate the inviting "good mornings" that welcome students into SHS and the cheerful waves that remind them that their fabulous faculty will be right where they left them the next day? The heart and soul of SHS lies behind the desks at the front of each and every classroom. And don't forget the smiling faces behind the lunchroom counters and the patience of the custodians when your locker is jammed... again.

Amused by his inquisitive students is Mr. Greg Cielec. Always easygoing, Mrs. Karen Franz tutors freshman Bryant Hegyi in her cozy office. With a few minutes to spare, Mr. Greg Cielec types away on his laptop. Having a thousand things on her mind, including fixing her sweater, Mrs. Karen Franz always finds time to catch up with her senior students like Nathan Stopczynski. With a steady hand and creative mind, Mr. Connor Yeager shares his artistic recommendations with freshman Meghan Pavlick.

FLASHBACKS

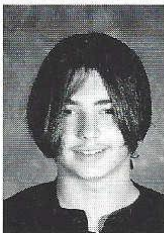

It will seem like forever ago when class of 2007 looks back at their freshmen year. Reminiscing sentences will begin with, "Remember when..." and end with laughter or a tear. Starting out the school year studiously, Ryan Harris takes his time on a test. Devious Meredith Crock heads out to toilet paper a house in the middle of the night. Matt Pitts, R.J. Konik and Ross Klima listen to what their teacher believes is "for the class." Brett Grant and Eddie Carlson fool around during lunch while Lythande McCune, Megan Morris, Amanda Brunnett, Katie Selby and Colleen Fitzgibbons remain ladylike in the cafeteria.

FOREVER ETCHED IN TIME....AND HISTORY TO US...

From the Fischer family

From the small boy who held my hand waiting for the bus to take you to kindergarten, to the young man who drives away in a Jeep...
From a 5-year-old playing Little League
to a varsity baseball pitcher...
From a child chasing a soccer ball around the field, to being part of the first winning team the school has ever had...
You've come such a long way. I have always enjoyed the child you were and
I'm proud of the man you've become.
No matter what you do, or where you go,
I wish for you every happiness life has to offer.

I love you, Jesse
~Mom~

Alex Graham

CONGRATULATIONS!

With pride and gratitude for what has been;
with hope and joy for what is to come;
and with love for always,
Mom

MY DAUGHTER

I look into your eyes I see your mind
I look into your heart I see you're kind
The things you say with only thoughts
Of people past forget-me-nots
And memories of a future soon to come

I look into your eyes I see past tears
I look into your heart I see your fears
The hopes and dreams you've always had
To live life happy, never sad
To have a rainbow for your very own

Like the views you've seen from mountaintops
That now seem far away
Or some future night on a moonlit beach
Of some enchanted bay

These things I say, you know are true
Thought yet to be realized
I've looked at you and listened to
The you behind your eyes.

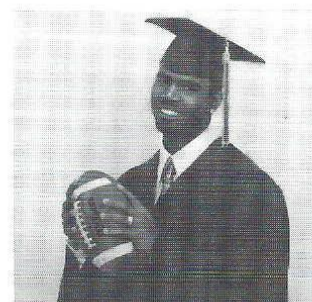

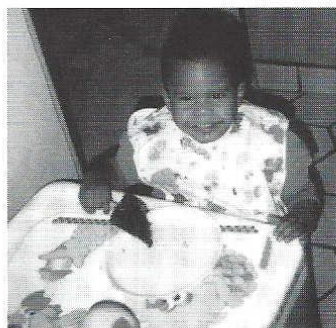

Love Mom

Congratulations, Kyan

This is the beginning of your young adult life.
We all know your future will be great,
because you are a good person.

Just walk in the light of GOD,
with him the world is yours.

We love you, Your Family: Mommie, Larry, Daddy,
Carina, Kenyon, TreVina, Karlon and LaBrea

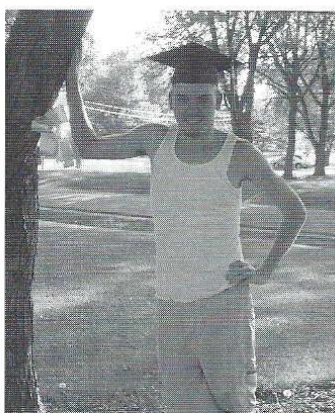

Christopher Potkay

Congratulations

It seems like yesterday that Dad and I were holding our sweet baby girl. Now you're graduating.
You have become an outstanding young adult. We couldn't be more proud.

Love, Mom & Dad

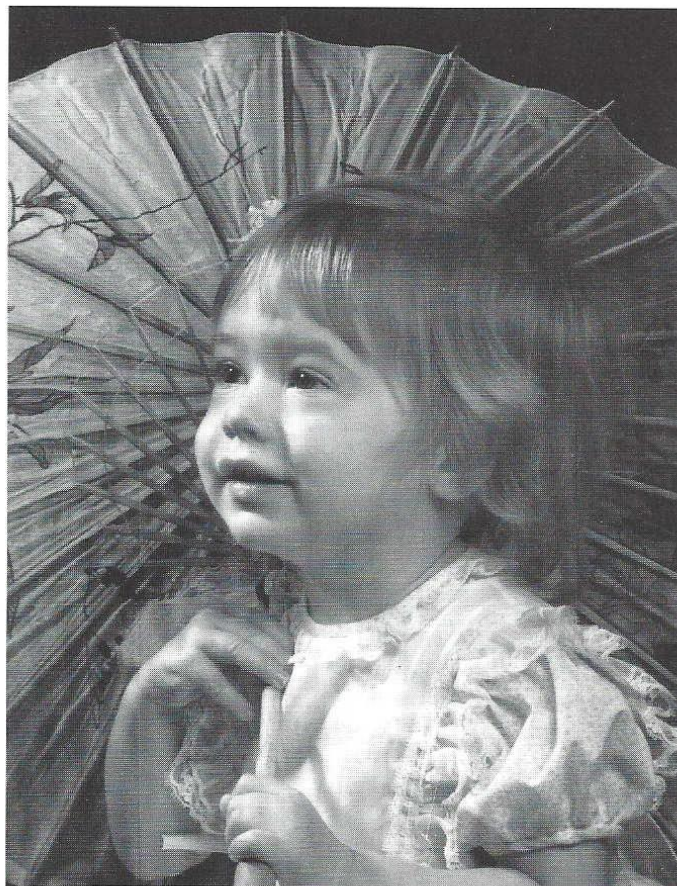

Gina Moraco

May you always follow your heart knowing that those who love you believe in you. Wishing you a future filled with joy and success.

Congratulations!

All our love,

When you came to us on that very early morn, we knew without a doubt, to us an Angel was born. You brightened our days with your warm, sweet smile, and we thank God every day that you were ours for a while. Your mom and I love you very much. And again, we thank God he sent you for our hearts...you have touched.

Remain who you are.

We love you,
Dad and Mom

★ A message from an angel... ★

'Thank You 4 being u, Just keeping it real. Listening to all my problems, And understanding how I feel. 4 being a great Mother, 4 caring 4 me. With all the many things going on, That I know you can see. 2 just have time to care how I feel, That lets me know all the more: Yes U R real. I just want to say Thank You 4 being there, 4 caring and loving me. I love u.'

Streetsboro Alma Mater

Here's to the blue, here's to the gold

Here's to the school we love,

We'll fight for the blue,

We'll fight for the gold,

We'll fight for our Streetsboro High

Ancient her colors, dear to each heart

Each tender memory from us will ne'er depart

Here's to the blue, here's to the gold,

Here's to the school we love.
