ASHLEY SPADARO

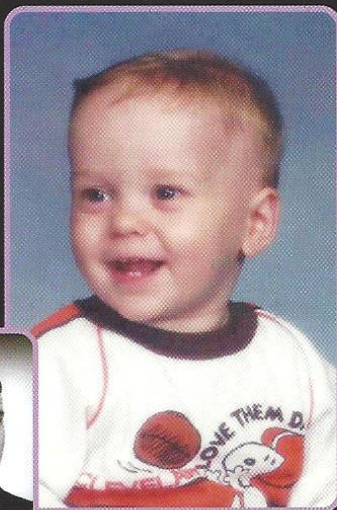

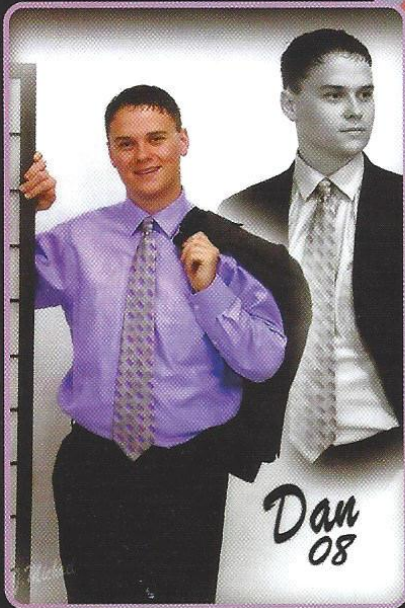

Ashley,

It's hard to believe how time flies. You're such a wonderful and amazing daughter. You have already accomplished so much. The decisions in life are in your hands and we have no doubt you will continue to make the right ones. You are the most caring, generous, loving, beautiful, fun daughter anyone could ask for. We are so very proud of you and everything you have done. "My wish" is that all of your hopes and dreams come true, because you deserve all the good things life has to offer. Keep your spirits high and remember we will always be here for you!

Love you, Mom, Joe & Brad

Dan Ashburn

Dan,
Our wish for you is that life becomes all that you want it to. We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments.
Love you,
Mom, Dad, Scott
and Chris

Adam C. Brindle

My hope for your life is that you wholeheartedly give of yourself in anything that means the world to you, your aspirations, your hopes, your dreams; that you never lose the drive to face anything you want to accomplish, even though the road ahead might be blocked or you may fall; that you never give up the fight. In life, there are many roller coasters of ups and downs. Sometimes, when all odds are against you, may you think of it as a test in life. How you handle it is by not letting it dampen your spirit. May you go into any situation with honorable intentions; truth is the path you always follow; and the ups: may you handle not so much with gloating but with the grace and humbleness that makes unknown heroes shine. May you always remember the lessons of others along the way, whether they be in the past or in your future. They are your teachers in life, whether they be friends, family, strangers or your school teachers. The good or bad influences from these encounters: may you retain the learning experience to guide you through life to either embrace or help to avoid similar situations from happening again. Stay true to yourself in any situation with a passion, whether it is expressing an opinion or merely talking to a friend. Put your heart into anything that you do by thinking not only of self but of others as well, always.

Troy Noel Wendell

Congratulations, Son! I am so proud of you for all the positive changes you've made in your life. I wish you health, wealth, and wisdom and I know that you'll always be surrounded by family and friends who love you. Be happy and enjoy your life.

Love,
Mom & Summer

Kaylene Amanda Way ☆

Through all the years, through all the adversity, you have matured into a talented, beautiful, intelligent young lady.

Watching you grow, seeing you achieve what most never do in a lifetime, has been a tremendous joy!

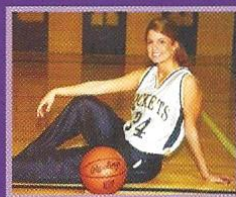

With roadblocks and barriers, you've overcome major obstacles and never gave up who you are for others' acceptance -- you've aimed high and captured the world!

With us behind you and your dreams in front of you, you will succeed -- believe it.

We are very proud of all your accomplishments, all your awards, and know the best is yet to come!

Love you forever and a day,

☆ Lindsay Ann Smeltz ☆

Dear Lindsay,
We are very proud of all that you have accomplished. You are the key to your future.

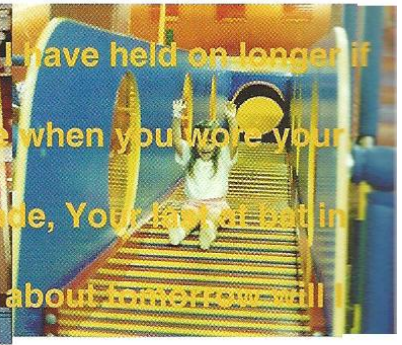

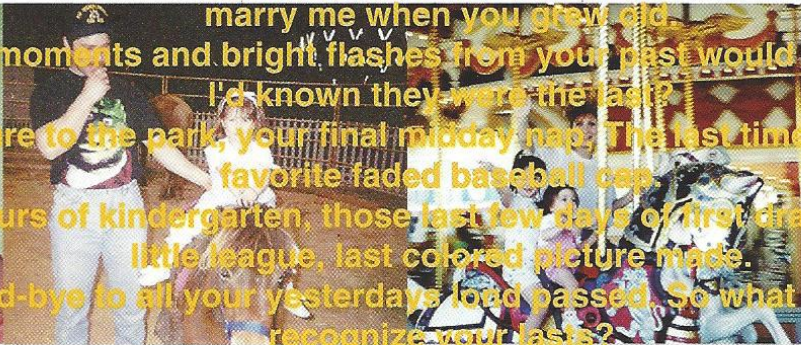

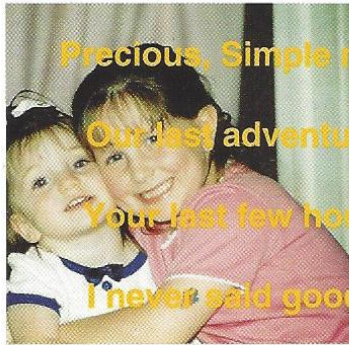

Love,
Dad, Grandma
and Grandpa

Long ago you came to me, a miracle of firsts, First smiles and teeth and baby steps, a sunbeam on the burst.
 But one day you will move away and leave to me your past and I will be left thinking of a lifetime of your lasts...
 The last time I held a bottle to your baby lips The last time that I lifted you and held you on my hip.

The last night when you woke up crying, needing to be walked, When last you crawled up with your blanket, wanting to be rocked.

The last time when you ran to me, still small enough to hold. The last time you said you'd marry me when you grew old.

Precious, Simple moments and bright flashes from your past would I have held on longer if I'd known they were the last?
 Our last adventure to the park, your final midday nap, The last time when you wore your favorite faded baseball cap.
 Your last few hours of kindergarten, those last few days of first grade, Your last at bat in little league, last colored picture made.
 I never said good-bye to all your yesterdays long passed. So what about tomorrow will I recognize your lasts?

The last time that you catch a frog in that old backyard pond. The last time that you run barefoot across our fresh-cut lawn.

Silly, scattered images will represent your past. I keep on taking pictures, never quite sure of your lasts...
 The last time that I comb your hair or stop a pillow fight. The last time that I pray with you and tuck you in at night.
 The last time when we cuddle with a book, just me and you the last time you jump in our bed and sleep between us two.
 The last dance recital, last vacation to the lake. Your last few weeks of middle school, last home run you hit.
 I look ahead and dream of days that haven't come to pass. But as I do, I sometimes miss today's sweet, precious lasts...

The last time that I help you with a math or spelling test. The last time when I shout that yes, your room is still a mess.

The last time that you need me for a ride from here to there. The last time that you spend the night with your old tattered bear.
 My life keeps moving faster, stealing precious days that pass. I want to hold on longer want to recognize your lasts...
 The last time that you need my help with details of a dance. The last time that you ask me for advice about romance.
 The last time that you talk to me about your hopes and dreams. The last time that you wear a jersey for your high school team.
 I've watched you grow and barely noticed seasons as they pass. If I could freeze the hands of time, I'd hold on to your lasts.

For come some bright fall morning, you'll be going far away. College life will beckon in a brilliant sort of way.

One last hug, one last goodbye, one quick and hurried kiss. One last time to understand just how much you'll be missed.

I'll watch you leave and think how fast our time together passed. Let me hold on longer, God, To every precious last.

On behalf of the Streetsboro Boys Basketball Team and Coaching Staff, I would like to say thank you for all of your hard work and dedication throughout your academic and athletic career here at Streetsboro High School. Your senior year will be a memorable year for me because of our success during the basketball season. A PTC and Sectional Championship is something that no one can take from you or our program. Good luck in all that you do beyond high school, and even though you will not be within the walls of SHS, you are still a member of the Streetsboro Basketball FAMILY.
Thank you for all of the memories and for all of the 6-4-6s you completed.

Coach Muck

Ryan Stainbrook

Ryan,

We want you to know how very proud of you we are. You have matured into a fine young man and have accomplished many things. May your future dreams come true. You have your whole life ahead of you and don't stop 'til you get what you want. We wish you much love, joy and happiness. Never forget we will always be here for you.

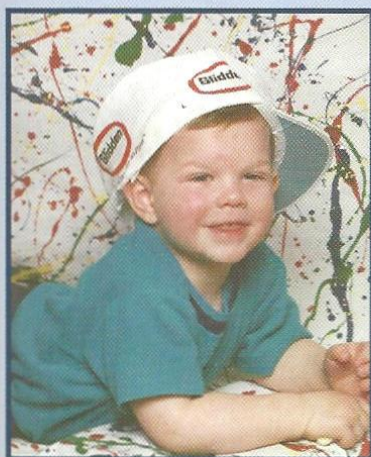

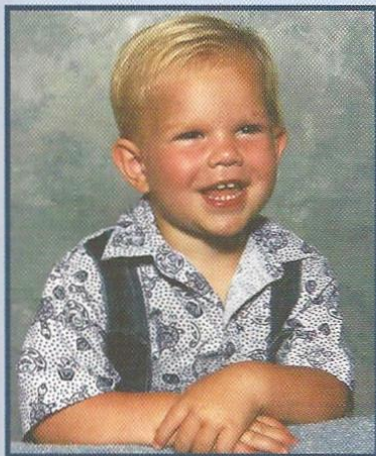

Love, Dad & Mom

Ryan,

I'm proud of all the things you have accomplished. I hope you go in the direction you've been going. You've always been there for me and I want to thank you for being such a great brother.

Love,
Cory

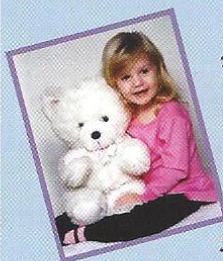

Brian Koporc

We can hardly believe that it is your turn, son, to venture out into the world. Our little boy has turned into a fine young man, full of promise and opportunity. You have an adventurous spirit and a sense of humor that is uniquely your own. Brian, you have challenged us as parents more times than we can count. It is your time to make your way in the world. You must focus on your goals and do what has to be done to reach them. We know you will challenge yourself now and become a man of honor and vision. You have it within you to create a good life for yourself. There is nothing beyond your reach. You have only to make it happen. We will always be here for you, Brian. We are proud of the road you have traveled and the journey that is yet to come. Make your dreams come true! Don't stop until you reach them.

We know you can do it!

It seems like just yesterday, you were running around being a tomboy and now you're a beautiful woman. I love you so much and I am so proud of the person you have become. Stay focused and follow your dreams!
Love, Aunt Patti

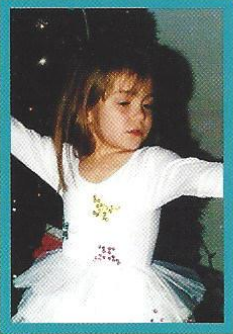

Britteny Nelson

I always knew you would grow up to be a great young lady and I know you will be a great person in life. Set your goals and dreams high and you can be anything you want.
Love, Dad

★ Andrea Nichole Medina ★

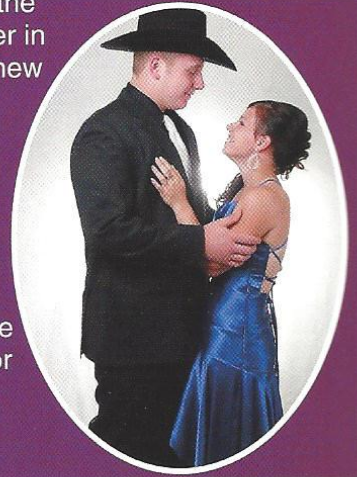

Andrea, YOU DID IT! Great job. We are so proud of you.

Good luck next year at Northwood. Stay focused and aim high. We love you.

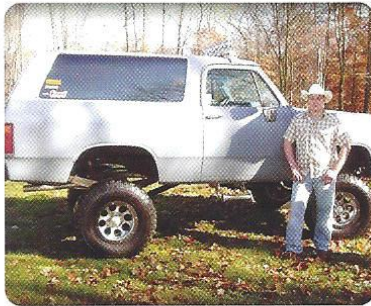

John- It's so hard to part with the memories that we had together in school, but now we can start new ones. I cherish every moment that we spend together and every moment I am with you and your family. I don't know what I would do without you or your family's comfort. You are my best friend, and my hero. I look to you as someone I can count on and be there for me.
I love you, John Cushman!
Love, Alaura

Dearest Brittany,

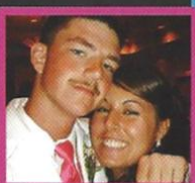

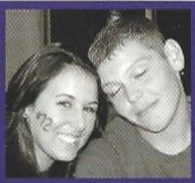

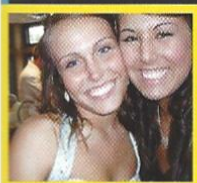

Where do I start? You have been my heart since the day you were born. I have watched you over the years grow from an energetic, outgoing, fun-loving little girl with the greatest sense of humor to a strong, independent, intelligent, exceptionally beautiful young lady. I admire you and the strength and determination you show every day. I am so proud of you for everything that you have achieved and will continue to achieve. Know that no matter where life takes you I will always be there to support you. I am so proud of you and so proud to be your mother. You are everything I ever wanted and so much more. You have the biggest heart; you are giving and caring. I know that whatever you choose to do in life you will be the best at it because that is who you are. Stay strong, know that I love you and have always been and always will be your number one fan and biggest supporter. I know life is getting ready to take you on your journey into adulthood. Enjoy it, and never let anyone bring you down. Know I will always be there when you need someone to lean on, talk to, or just share a laugh. I look forward to getting to know the grown-up woman you are becoming, but will always remember the little girl you were and will always remain in a piece of my heart. Love always, Mom

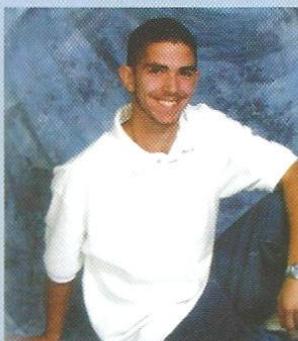

For all my friends, and my cousin Katelyn, who has been there for me throughout the years, I just want to say that I am going to miss you guys ALL so much. Its going to be hard without all of you around in the future, but it's time for us to go our separate ways. I know you all will do a lot of great things and make a great future for yourselves. Just stay focused and make the right choices! Even though I may be thousands and thousands of miles away, I will still be there if you need me. I love you all and will miss you guys terribly, but this isn't goodbye, and it's not the end..its just "see ya later." It's a new chapter and a start to the beginning of our future! Good luck!

Love, SAH =)

Congratulations!

We are so proud of you and all that you have become. You have overcome so many challenges and grown from your experiences. Continue to grow and take advantage of all the opportunities that are presented to you and fulfill your dreams.

Love,

Alison Nicole Chercourt

We are so proud of the beautiful person inside and out that you have grown up to be. Never change -- keep smiling and reaching for your dreams. We believe in you and the choices you make. We are behind you 100% and know you can achieve whatever you heart desires.

We love you, Nikki!!
Mom, Dad, Erika and Taylor

Congratulations, you've made it through Streetsboro High School. You're the last of the Baka girls to pass on through. All four years was a crazy time span. Especially with all women in the house & not a single man. We're proud you survived every PMS week. If you can make it through that, there isn't anything you can't seek. We now understand why you were "Most Likely To Be Absent," It's because Sarah & Nicole weren't around to keep track of where you went. In & out of the house with your childhood girlfriends you would go.

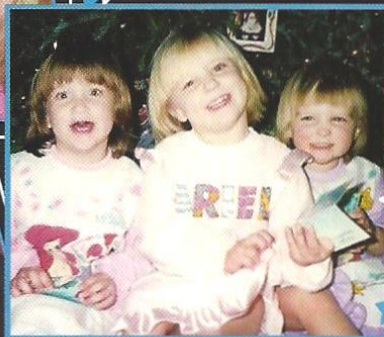

Soon you're off to college & the best friends you have yet to know.

But don't you ever forget little Miss Natalie.

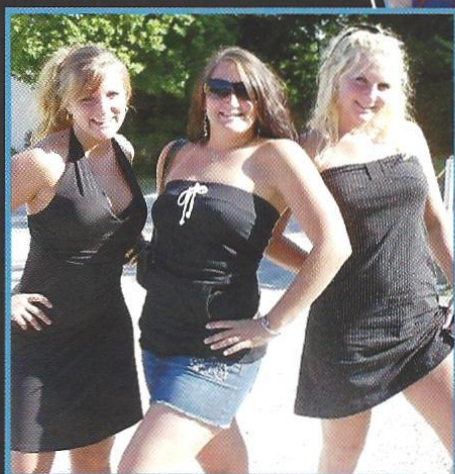

The best girlfriends you'll ever have, your family

With Love-

Mamasita, Sarah & Nicole

*This is the true story... of 690 students... picked to learn in a school...
work together...
and have their lives changed...
to find out what happens... when people stop being polite...
