Without Us, It's Just The Building

After our building was severely damaged in the June 2 fire, the overall attitude of the student body changed. Students and staff worked together to adjust to the changes, and before they knew it, the construction workers had new hallways opened, one after another, and then finally, second semester, the gym.

Autumn

"Be positive and flexible" was the motto of new principal, Eric Rauskolb, as SHS students and staff had to adjust to changes resulting from the June 1 fire: The wing surrounding the gym was completely closed off when school opened August 24 and in some instances, students had to walk all the way around the building, or outside, to get from class to class. Temporary modulars housed the cafeteria, three electives and physical education classes. Other changes included the homecoming pep rally held outside, the volleyball team playing home games at the middle school, and the football locker rooms housed in a modular. As winter approached, construction workers diligently worked on getting the gym and cafeteria ready for the second semester...

When the leaves start falling, the spirit starts rising

Swinging away to sectionals

After reviewing his scorecard with a Mogadore opponent on hole nine, junior Tyler Sanders wins the match by three strokes. The team ended its season with a 173-174 win over the Wildcats.

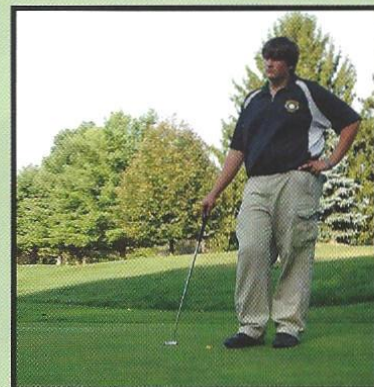

Finishing strong with a smooth swing on the ninth hole is junior Jerid Sogor.

Senior David Tackett puts extra strength into his club as he begins to tee off on hole four at the Kent State University golf course.

Without JV golf, the Rockets were left with a Varsity team consisting of eight returning golfers and one new freshman. The team ended its season with an overall record of 8-13, and a 5-11 record in PTC. Seniors David Tackett and Frank Cant shared MVP status while CJ Diehl and Joe Kubicki received honorable mention.

Waiting patiently for Mogadore golfers to finish putting on the sixth hole is junior CJ Diehl.

How to: Putt accurately into the hole

1. Before putting onto the green, analyze a strategy to get into the hole in one or two putts.

TIP from senior David Tackett: Make sure your ball is in alignment with the hole.

2. Analyze how far back the putter should be before striking the ball into the hole. Always keep it short, and let it flow.

TIP from freshman Joe Kubicki: Watch the elevation.

3. Take your putter back and follow through in a smooth motion. Don't pick your head up and punch it through.

TIP from junior Tyler Sanders: You just need to concentrate and take your time.

What is your most memorable season highlight?

Senior Cindy Deng

"Being able to finally participate in the girls' golf tournament..."

Senior David Tackett

"Getting my first eagle ever...with a pink ball!"

Senior Frank Gant

"Making my first First Team PTC."

1.

1. The team huddles together as they listen to junior captain Allana Miura give advice before the Waterloo game.

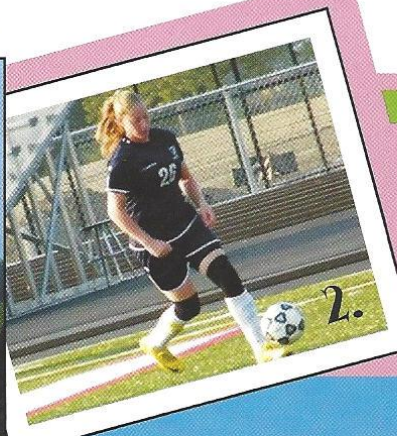

2. Driving the ball down the field is junior Carly Kreierhoff.

3. Having a laugh with some of her fellow teammates is freshman Tasha Gill.

4. Lining up to set up their defense against Waterloo's free kick are seniors Kristen Belcher and Katie Robinette.

1. Members of the girls' soccer team listen to coach Kayla Nola review what the team needs to work on after the Mogadore loss.

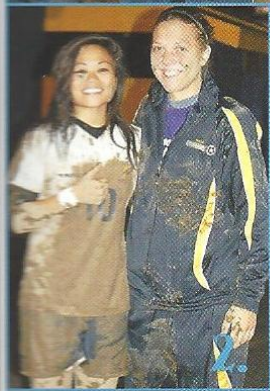

2. As junior Andi Landgraf gets possession, she starts to drive the ball downfield.

A night to remember...

The girls soccer team decided to go mudsliding on the field after a home game. After getting all muddy, they gave Coach Kayla Nola a big hug.

1. Showing off how muddy they got on Senior Night are juniors Carly Kreierhoff, Andi Landgraf and Allana Miura.

2. Giving a thumbs up after getting coach Kayla Nola all muddy is junior Allana Miura.

"There were so many changes this season, which include a new coach, playing against new teams and meeting the new people on the team. Overall we all stayed positive and it was still a good season despite our record."

~Katie Robinette

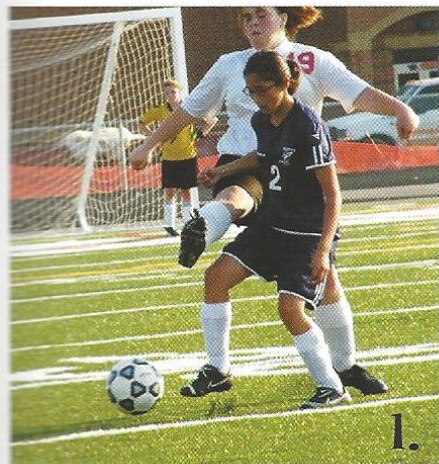

"My favorite thing about this season was being goalie so I was able to get away with tackling people."

~Marissa Goodman

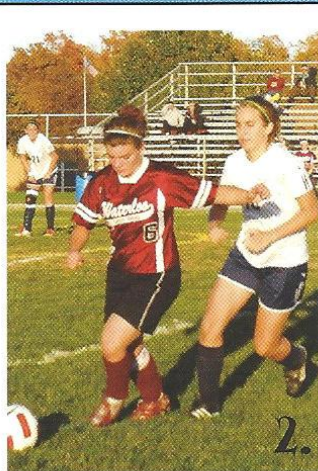

"This season was tough for me but it was fun at the same time. I really enjoyed meeting all the new girls on the team."

-Senior
Kenny Bish

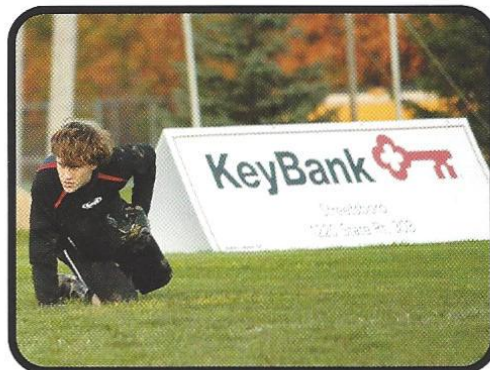

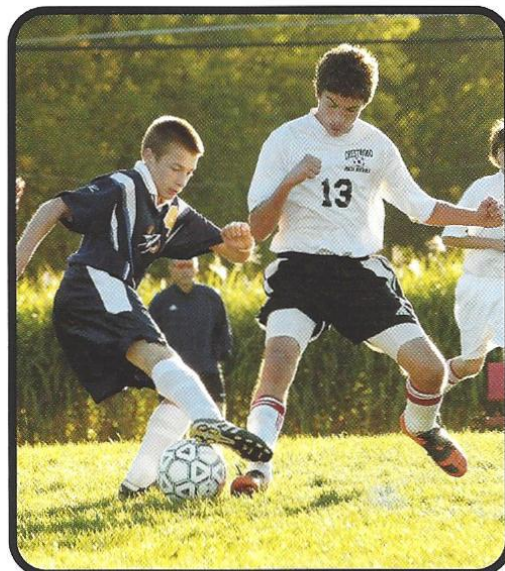

"Kenny and I broke people out of their shells. They're not shy any more, not even in school. It just shows you it's not all about sports."

-Senior
Brandon Violi

Junior Tyler Violi said even though soccer was not really the "cool" sport to play, the boys gained more than a learning experience. They gained new friendships and even a family. They were coached by Head Coach Paul Kryzeminski and Jeff Zalick.

About to fake Crestwood out with a sharp turn is junior Tyler Violi.

After slide-tackling the ball out of the goal box, junior goalie Mike Galloway gets ready to defend again.

What's your funny story?

1. "I rolled up with two pairs of shorts and Coach Paul asked why I was wearing two shorts and I said, 'Its the shorts before the shorts.' Ever since that day we [the team] wore two pairs of stuff to practice."

- Senior Brandon Violi

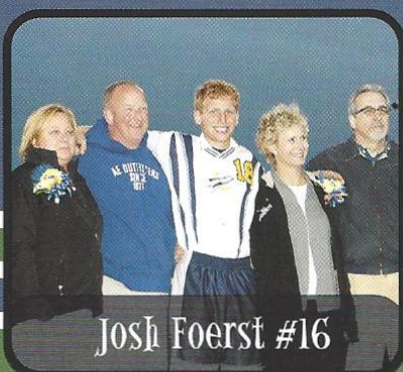

2. "Google doesn't lie. One of the guys on the soccer team told us a lie, so a group of us googled what he said and the truth came up."

- Sophomore Marshall White

"The shorts before the shorts."

3. "Maurer": Drake Lynde calls [Justin] Maurer it and the team just started saying it on the field. Now everyone says it, too."

Preparing to begin playing his tuba to "Shut up and Drive" at the Lake Erie Monsters game March 22 is senior Josh Foerst.

Supporting the Lake Erie Monsters after playing in the pre-game show is senior Marissa Goodman, freshmen Regan Carpenter and Kathryn Petty.

Gathering together at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame with Fox 8's morning feature reporter Kenny Crumpton are the marching band seniors.

1. Dropping a beat with a group of other drummers is sophomore Austin Clay, playing the snare drums, at the homecoming pep rally.

2. Senior Mike Michalski laughs at the tickly feeling as senior Josh Foerst rolls the purple paint on his hands before painting the senior wall.

3. Senior Dan Corlett pretends to whack junior Ty Marlin in the face during mid-conversation.

4. Conducting the last concert of the school year on May 11 is director Gretchen Weaver.

5. Senior Lauren Hawkins and sophomore Taylor Monroe enjoy time together at the Lake Erie Monsters game.

Q: What was your favorite memory in band?

"Throwing Ty Marlin with Josh [Foerst] about 20 feet into the lake just for fun [at band camp]."

Senior John Sulik

"It was my freshman year...we were playing a song and in the routine there was a [flag] toss...I threw it up too high and the lights broke."

Junior Minette Tomasci

"At band camp, they called us to attention out on the canoes. Someone stood up in the canoe and fell flat on their face into the water."

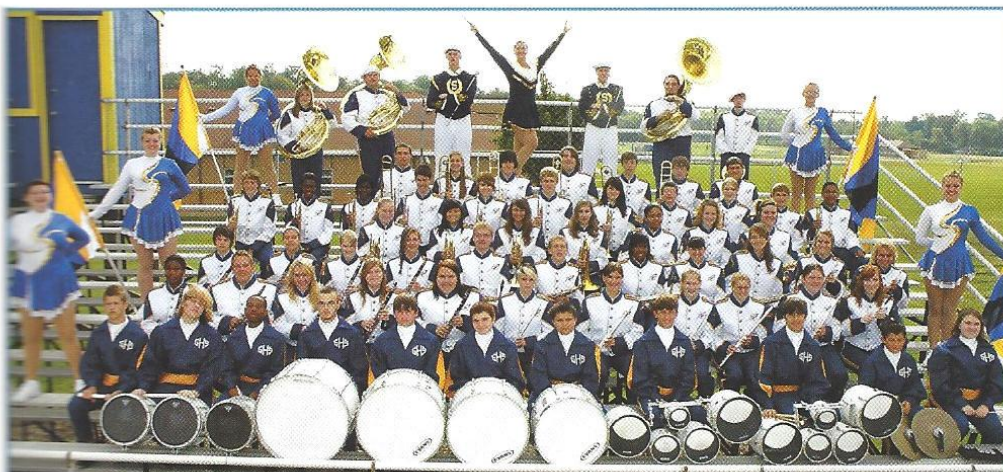

Sophomore Jonathan Bloch

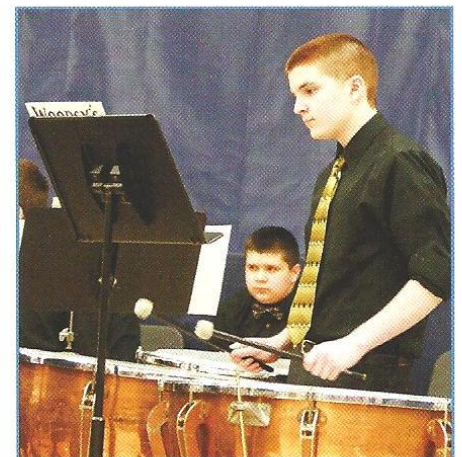

"At band camp on skit night, John Sulik was using his hand puppet as his wife. He sat down on his chair and fell off the stage."

Freshman Jess McCormack

Although the band was able to get inside their room the first day of school, they had overcome obstacles around the reconstruction. On July 31, band director Gretchen Weaver broke her arm and leg at band camp, but came back as soon as she was released to continue the year strong.

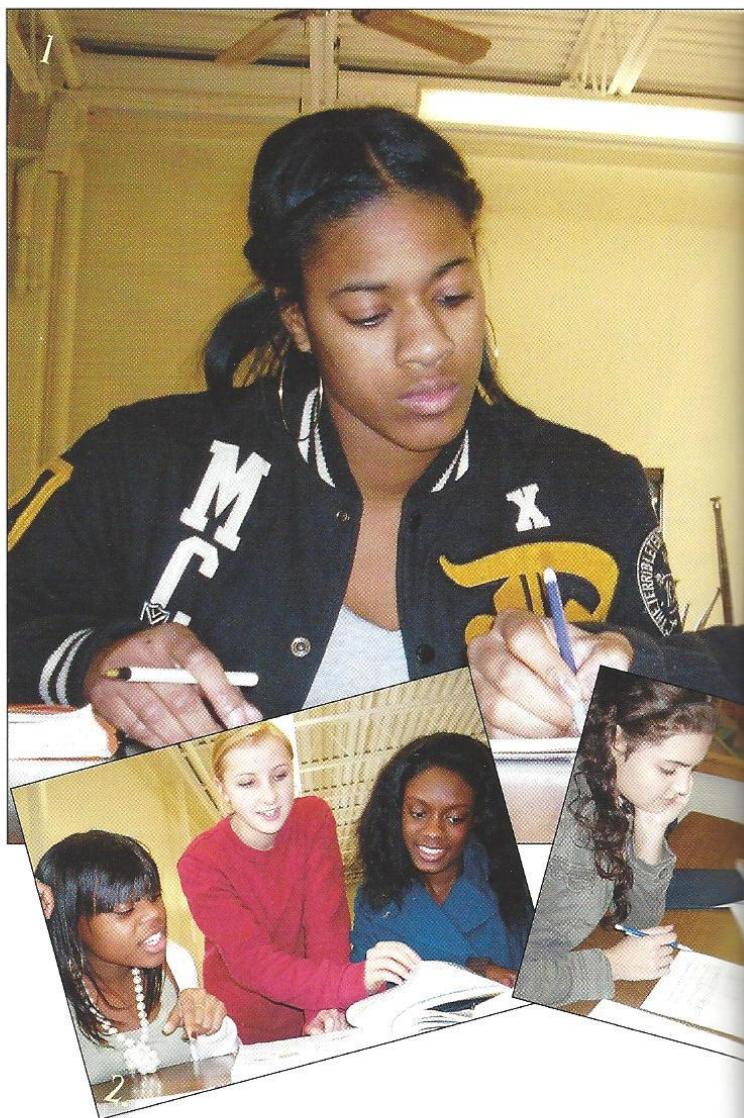

Playing the timpani in the May 11 concert is sophomore Abood Alkazaz.

Two new clubs emerge & past clubs persevere after cuts

1. Tutoring fellow senior Briana Borden in preparation for a government test is Lawrence Gray.
2. Seniors Unique Bell and Lucki Swoope listen attentively as classmate Taylor Dantimo explains math during Rocket tutoring.
3. Helping junior Amanda Maxwell with unit conversions for chemistry is senior tutor Courtney Sackett.

The board of directors includes juniors Amanda Barile, Hannah Benson, Jennifer Leverenz, Joey McCormack and Heather Whitney.

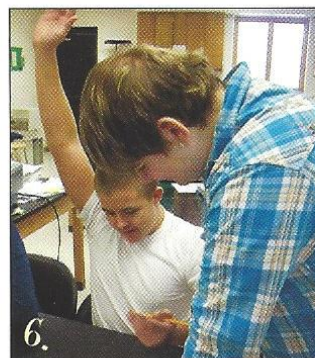

Quiz Bowl consists of 11 members and volunteer adviser Jason Braddock. This year, the group competed in five league meets and five out-of-district meets. The league meets were held after school; the out-of-district were held on Saturdays. At each meet, the team competes in a question round, alphabet round and lightning round.

4. Tutoring freshman Dayton Schindler in Spanish after school is senior Alyse Golak.

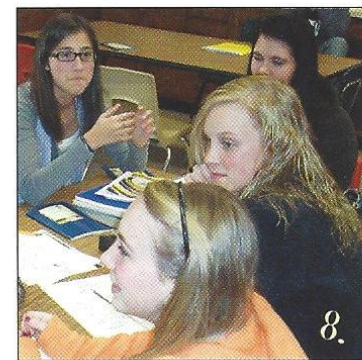

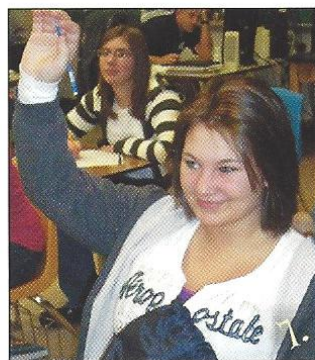

5. Getting help with her worksheet during mentoring is freshman Gaby Reznick-Duffer.

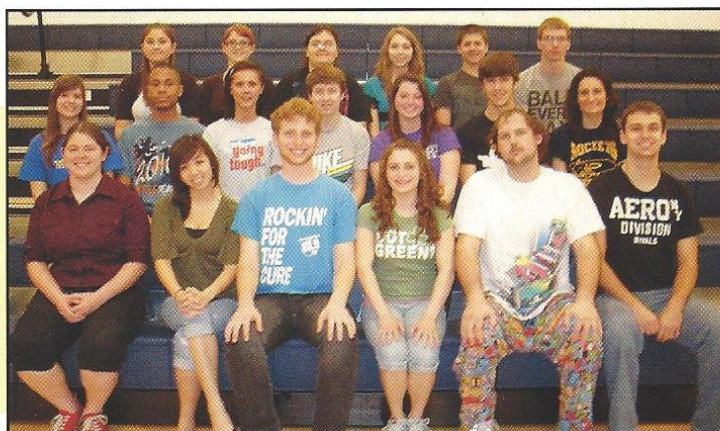

6. Freshman Cage Simpkins raises his hand to get help from senior Chris Bennett during freshman mentoring.

7. Raising her hand to ask a question during mentoring is Taylor Mudery, while Kathryn Petty pays attention behind her.

8. Sitting together during freshman mentoring are Wynter Cortina, Jessica Dillon, Mandy Galland and Mackenzie Garlitz.

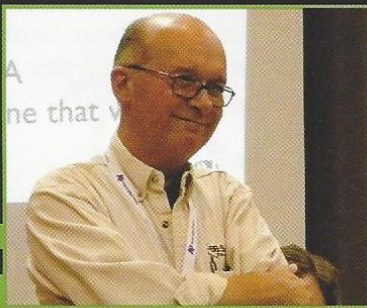

Senior Lawrence Gray initiated Rocket Tutoring in the fall to "create a program that benefits students and teachers alike," he said. The group grew to 11 full-time tutors, consisting of seniors and juniors. They met every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday after school to tutor any students who came in for help in all core subjects as well as electives.

Guidance counselor Kelly Simmons had received a $550 grant to create a freshman mentoring group. Every other Monday, juniors and seniors talked to and did activities with the freshman homebases. Juniors Gina Horst and Alexandria Gutierrez said their favorite activity was the survival activity, which challenged the freshmen to prioritize.

Treble girls meet early, have Pastry Fridays, sing at Zips game

Treble ensemble celebrates on a Pastry Friday, which they tried to do as often as possible.

Junior Amanda Barile and sophomores Lyndsey Bias and Samantha Palania warm up during their bright and early 1A class period.

Practicing "Winds of Winter Blow" are senior Alyse Golak and juniors Amber Tishma and Sara Dynsowski.

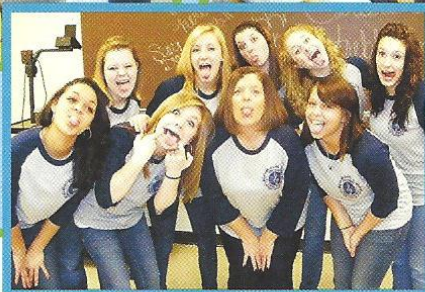

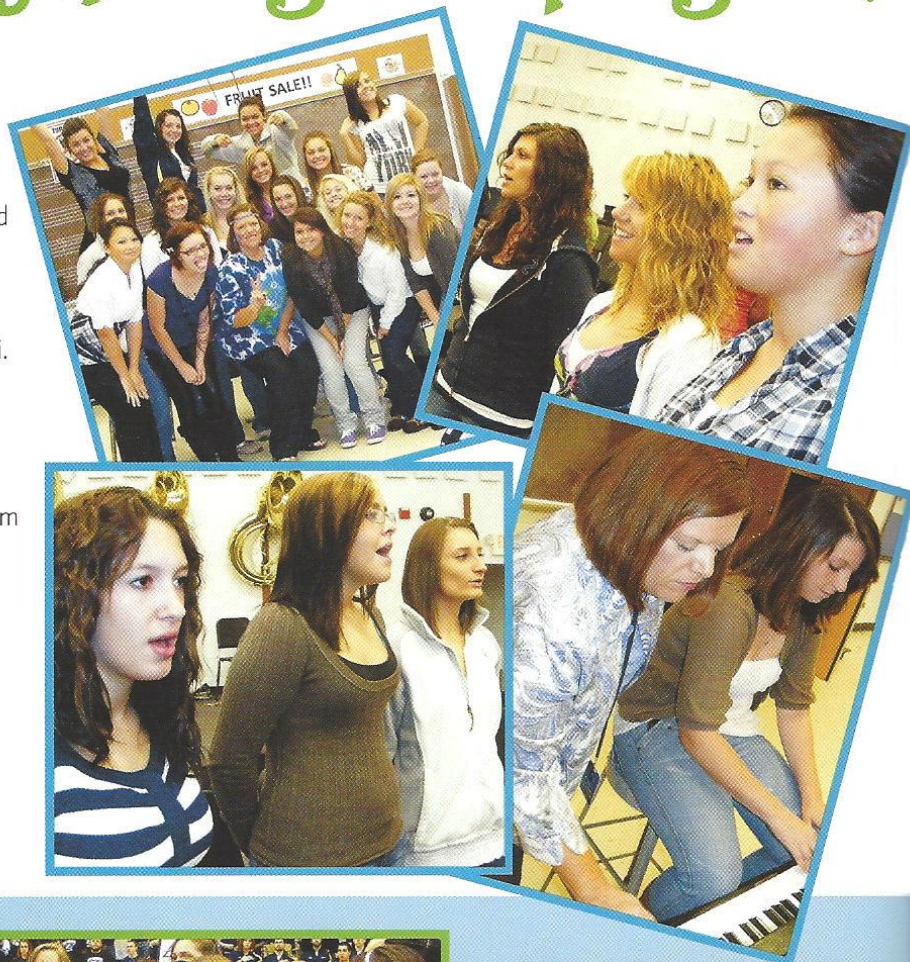

After a rehearsal Director Susan Spurlock and senior Katie Robinette play "Heart and Soul."

Spurlock directs the girls in singing the national anthem at an Akron University Zips basketball game.

During a break from singing, a few of the girls pile on top of junior Asia Wells.

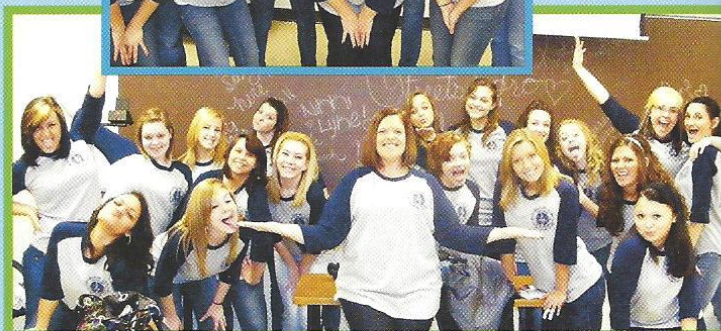

The senior members of treble goof around with their director.

Spurlock proudly shows off her treble girls in their matching baseball tees.

The 18 member treble ensemble went to the University of Akron February 23 to sing the national anthem at the Zips basketball game. When the bus first pulled in, there was a limo right outside the main doors. Director Susan Spurlock made the bus driver wait to see who was inside. A man with a camera waited, too. The treble girls were glued to the windows trying to sneak a peek of the "unknown famous person." Sophomore Lyndsey Bias was hoping it was singer Justin Bieber, while junior Jessica Oktavec was wishing for actor Taylor Lautner. After about 10 minutes of waiting, it turned out to be just a crew filming a limo commercial. The girls were severely disappointed.

Having a good laugh prior to the concert is sophomore Taylor Mountain.

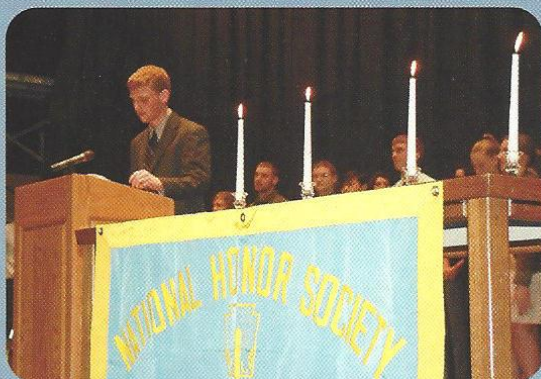

Warming up to "Music Sweet Music" are freshmen Rachel Squire and Heather Cummings.

NHS inductions delayed due to fire

Giving his closing remarks about the inductees is president of National Honor Society, senior Josh Foerst.

Lighting the candle representing scholarship is senior Heather Davidson.

Because the school was left without a gym for the first semester, the National Honor Society inductions, usually held in November, were delayed until April 21. To allow students to include the organization on college and scholarship applications, new inductees were "tapped" during class and given a flower to symbolize their acceptance into NHS until they could be officially inducted at the ceremony.

Speaking on character at the beginning of the ceremony is senior Lacy Dean.

Making her NHS induction official by signing into the book is junior Hali Crouso.

Excited about being inducted into National Honor Society as he lights his candle is senior Cory Miller.

Taking a break from her hard work during hallway decorating is senior student council member Marissa Goodman.

8. Struggling to hop to the finish line during the relay race on is journalism teacher Polly Dierkens.

8.

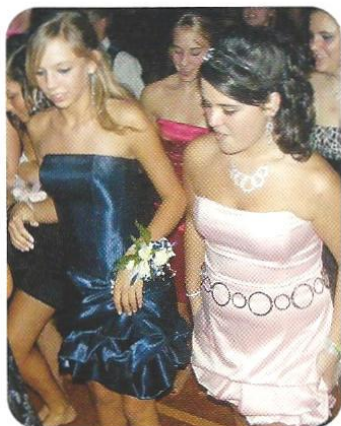

Traditionally the homecoming pep rally is held inside the gym the day before the homecoming dance. However, due to the June 1 fire, the gym was unavailable. Everyone had wondered where the pep rally was going to be held. So that Friday before the homecoming dance, staff and students gathered outside on the football field and bleachers for the pep rally.

'Under the Sea' held at SMS

This year, due to the June 1 fire, homecoming was out of the ordinary. Student council had just three weeks to plan the "Under the Sea"-themed dance, which had to be held in the middle school gym across the street.

Although it was smaller than the high school gym, more people than usual attended, said adviser Tracey Scheeman. Student Council made a profit of a little under $4,000 on the event, said Scheeman. During the middle of the dance, the smoke and fog machine set off the fire alarm. The students had to evacuate and wait outside the building for 20 minutes, for the fire truck to arrive and firefighters to check out the building...

Getting their groove on to the "Cha Cha Slide" are freshmen Alyssa Bielinski and Amanda Paugh.

Having a blast at the dance are seniors Kenny Bish, AJ Palania, Amanda Cobourn, Taylor Matusik and Hannah Ragle.

Taking a right step forward during the "Cha Cha Slide" are freshman Nick Grimm and sophomores Matt Kolke and Ashley Miller.

Dancing in the middle of her friends is junior Asia Wells.

When the fire alarm went off, seniors CaLee Skulina and Amanda Cobourn had to stand outside with the other attendees.

"I still had fun, it didn't really bother me." -Skulina

"[Being outside] sucked; it shows how together our school is."
-Cobourn

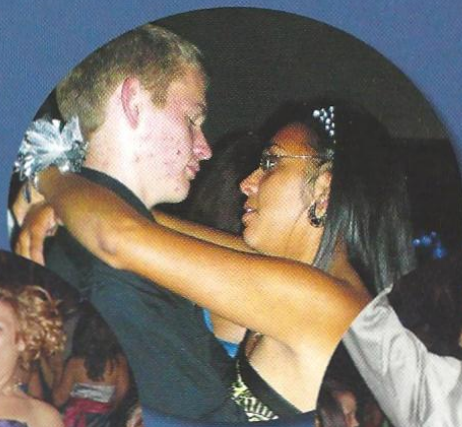

Sharing a moment at the dance are juniors Lindsay Lloyd and Tyler Sanders.

After jumping into the middle of a circle, freshman Kayla Harrington begins dancing in front of a group of friends.

Senior Jacob Hatfield and sophomore Paige Verma share a dance at homecoming.

With his eyes closed tight, junior Russell Galland gets into the music in the middle of a circle.

Waving to the crowd of family and friends at the homecoming game are seniors Da'Nae Reddings (1), Lauren Freeman (2), and Amanda Groff (3).

Just crowned homecoming queen and king are seniors Larissa Bradford and Stevie Magic.

Dancing to the homecoming song "The Only Exception" by Paramore are seniors Larissa Bradford and Stevie Magic.

After being announced at the homecoming dance are senior attendants Da'nae Redding and Dustin Monro.

In the moment during the court dance are senior attendants Lauren Freeman and Kenny Bish.

Sharing a dance as the center of attention are senior attendants Mike Melice and Amanda Groff.

Laughing as they share the court dance at homecoming are junior attendants Jessica Greene and Sawyer White.

Court attendants Kyle Woods and Sydney Jennings dance as the crowd looks on.

The Big Question: Is post secondary worth 'missing out' on high school?

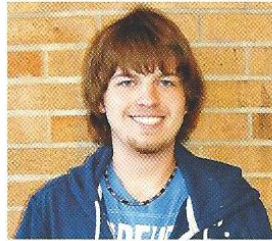

"I think I missed out on THE high school experience, but not MY high school experience. High school was never such a big thing to me. I just kind of wanted to get out and hurry up and do what I had to do. Now I kind of miss seeing people, but it's okay because I still come to high school when I can. I don't regret it only because I have a select amount of friends that I can see even outside of high school."

-Senior Paisley Stovall, who saved approx. $35,000 doing post

"I am not going to lie. I have missed out on a lot of things in high school because I did the PSEOP, but do I regret participating in the PSEOP, absolutely not! I found a quote the other day that sums up my reasoning as to why I don't regret missing out on my junior and senior years of high school (author unknown): "For everything you have missed, you have gained something else; and for everything you gain, you lose something. It is about your outlook towards life. You can either regret or rejoice." This quote applies to much more than my reasoning [for] doing PSEOP. It applies to the many decisions high school student have coming up, especially graduating seniors. Whatever decisions you make, make them with confidence."

-Senior Alex Lesak, who saved over $20,000 doing post

What's your funniest memory together?

"We would make fun of our dad all the time. This one time we were on our way to an Indians game seven years ago, and our dad was pulling into the parking garage. He didn't stop the car, and he ended up hitting the wall. We always make fun of him for that."

7. Seniors show off their tightest ends in treble ensemble the day of the game.

Spring

Once spring approached, everything seemed back to normal at SHS. Spring came with many thunderstorms and rainy days postponing and cancelling numerous softball and baseball games as well as track meets. Spring Fling, which was held in the high school gym, was a success. Prom was held May 7 at The Bertram in Aurora, and sure enough, it poured. After prom was held at Fun 'n' Stuff and had a great turnout.

Graduation took place March 25 at the Akron Civic Center.

Flinging into Spring

"Welcome to the Jungle!"

Dancing after being crowned are Spring Fling King Josh Foerst and his girlfriend, Spring Fling Queen, Cindy Deng. "I felt flattered to be nominated and shocked that I even won," Cindy said. Josh said he did not think he would win because he considers himself a "nerd."

Fact: Both Josh and Cindy went shopping the day of the fling and were late to the dance because they were eating at Chili's. They won King and Queen 20 minutes after they arrived.

Being wild with her Kid Cudi glasses on at the 2011 Spring Fling dance outside a group of her friends is junior Spenser Folan.

Performing a dance move in front of the crowd with senior Stevie Magic is science teacher Tracey Schneeman.

Breaking out their dance moves are sophomores Ariana Iorillo and Caitlin Davidson.

Challenging his friends to dance with him is sophomore Johnny Kelly.

"Putting money in the hat" are sophomore John Saucier, junior Cody Simpkins and sophomores Jordan Matusik and Joey Taylor.

A spring full of showers

On Friday, May 13, as yet another track meet is rained out, senior Vinny Valenti makes the most of the rain and splashes around on the flooded track and football field.

Performing as the Wise Old Judge during the spring play is sophomore Heidi Janyan.

After a long discussion with fellow 88.9 staff members, senior David Tackett takes a long, relieved stretch.

Helping fellow senior Sean Corron ask sophomore Jillian Meisinger to prom during the senior-teacher basketball game are a group of senior girls.

Performing her solo in the song, "Little Red Ridinghood" before the spring play is sophomore Jacey Kepich.

>> Making it to states

Kicking back for her first throw at states June 4 is junior Mercedes Oliver. Though Oliver did not place in either the shot or the discus competitions while in Columbus, she was proud just to qualify for states, as she was the only Rocket athlete to do so this season.

104 GIRLS TRACK

Even though the unusually rainy and cold spring impacted the girls' track team, causing the canceling of the Aurora and La'Brae Invitationals, numerous girls had personal bests, broke school records, and one even qualified for states. At PTCs, Mercedes Oliver, Destiny King, Mindy Chadima, the 4x200m relay team and the 4x100m relay team finished first. Athletes in four events also advanced to regionals: the 4x200m relay, 4x100m relay, shot-put and discus, and the 100m hurdles. This was the most events to advance onto districts in Streetsboro history. Only Mercedes Oliver qualified for states, and she did so in both shotput and disc, with throws of 38'7" and of 119'.

Hard to get games in when a season is full of rain

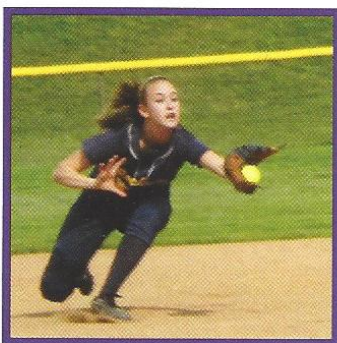

Gathering together before a game is the varsity softball team, coached by Tim Foster and Dave Hess.

The JV team was coached by Steve Oravec and Stephanie Jeffrey.

Recording yet another homerun to add to one of many school records she holds and working her way into the state books for homeruns in a season is senior Jaclynn Hess.

Making a diving catch against Walsh in the second round of tournament play is junior Colleen Rimmel.

Making the best of what they have had to deal with all season long, the varsity team goes mud sliding on their home field after a huge downpour of rain that began just one pitch into the game.

On May 14th, the varsity softball team traveled to Strongsville to participate in a fundraiser for breast cancer. Although the team ended up not playing because of rain -- like most every game this season -- the team still donated money for the cause.

Following through on her warm-up pitches in the game against Akron Buchtel, while allowing one hit throughout the entire five innings played, is senior Kristin Monahan.

Reminiscing

One of sophomore Sarah Lago's favorite memories from this school year was when her mom dressed up in a gorilla suit and found her during "A" lunch on her birthday, Oct. 29, "just to embarrass" her, she said.

Junior Nick Tonkovich said one of the most memorable moments of the year was when the school was spray-painted as a prank. He said he will not forget it because "it was funny."

Sister, little sister:

Well it's crazy how time flies by. We used to sit and watch the sky. Remember the times we cheered in the front yard as cars drove by and honked their horns a lot, like "drive by" at Grandma Betty's house, and junk food picnics that made us crazy and loud. You remember the salt and pepper show?

Yeah we were a little slow.

Mommy dressed us alike until I was 10. I wish, I wish we could do that again. Now I'm growing, and you take my place. While I'm gone be a good big sister to Erin and Tre.

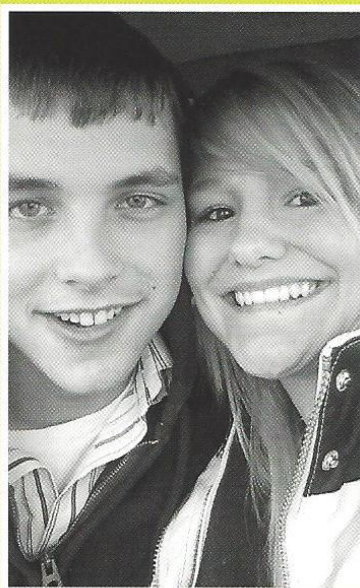

Love you.

Peyton Flanders & Kyle Willa

It all started the second semester of our sophomore year in biology. I would always try to be your partner in every lab, but you always had one. You never seemed interested when I tried talking to you. Towards the end of the semester I finally had the guts to ask you to see "Night at the Museum 2" with me. You simply said "yes." The very next day I invited you over and that was May 23, 2009. Since that day I have enjoyed every moment that I'm with you. Every time I see that cute smile of yours you brighten my days. Every day I feel closer and closer to you.

I Love You!

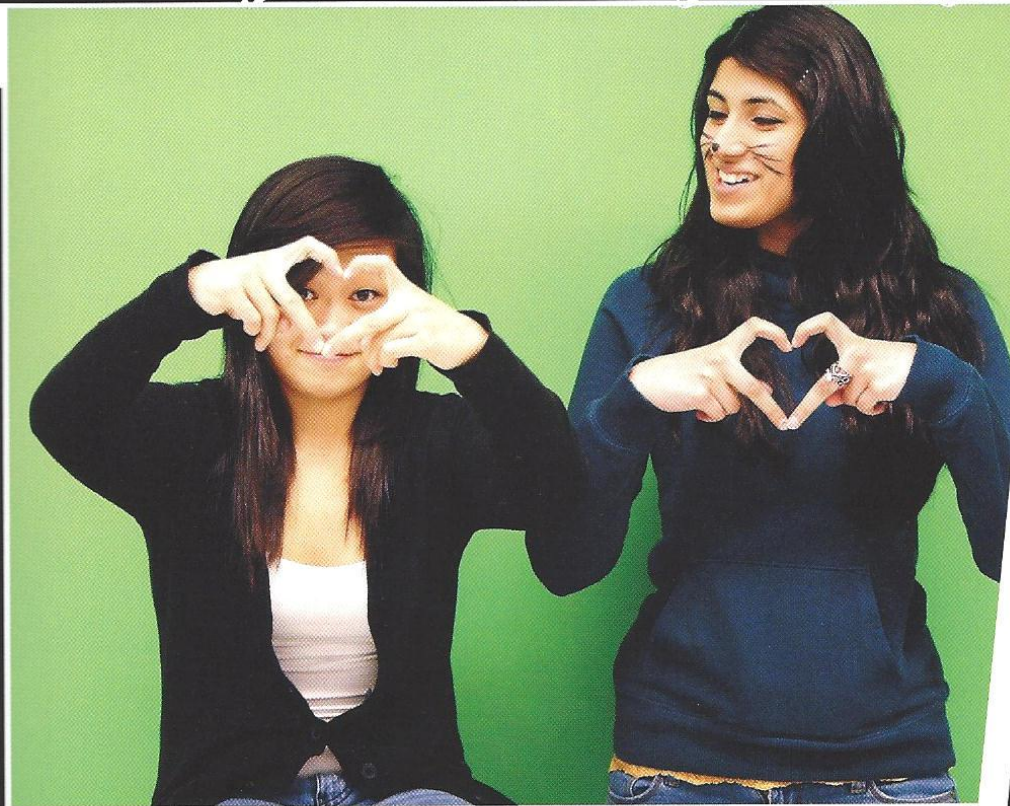

Melanie Long & Tim Burkhart

9-26-09 was the beginning of our fairytale. We were at our junior homecoming, dancing the night away. As we were dancing to "Then" by Brad Paisley, Tim whispered in my ear, "I can't believe the most beautiful girl in this room is in my arms." I couldn't help but smile and say "thank you." He looked at me and said, "There's only one thing not perfect about this moment...You're not my girlfriend yet." He asked me to be his girlfriend and from that moment on I was his princess and he was my prince charming, so happily in love.

Just the beginning

Da'Nae Redding & Dakota Luzader

Sweet Honey Buns Dakota Ray Luzader, Just thought I might remind you, how we met was really random. In gym class we started as great friends. You messaged me on "Myspace" got my number and we talked for hours! April 13th, 2009, you officially became mine. I love you so much, more than you'll ever know. Your kisses and hugs make my smile glow. I really do believe God made you for me. Babe, "I'm gonna miss you like the sky misses the sun".

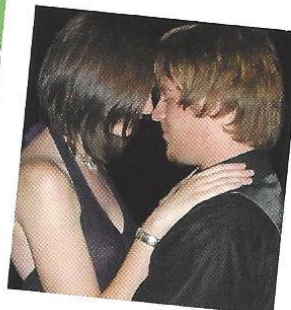

Love You,
Da'Nae

Lauren Freeman & Lawrence Gray

I knew I loved you from when we were small, It's funny we didn't know a thing about love at all. We got married in first grade on the playground at school. Then shortly after I had to move far away from you. I thought I'd never see your face again... Then you magically appeared... and my love for you will endure for all end.

Love,
Lauren

What's Hot & Not

Senior Nicole Blom received the iPhone 4 from her dad for her 18th birthday. "I was thinking about getting the Droid," she said, "but I didn't like how complicated it was to work. I wanted the iPhone because it was easy to use." Some apps Blom has downloaded on her iPhone include facebook, angry birds, Pandora, fml, and iBooks. Blom uses her iPhone with AT&T service and said she won't ever go back to a basic model after getting used to the features of the smart phone.

Ashley Jade Adams

November 22, 1992 - March 1, 2007

The morning of March 2, 2007 brought Streetsboro Middle School to a painful realization. After struggling with addison's disease her whole life, eighth grader Ashley Adams passed away at the young age of 14. With her friends and teachers brought to tears, Ashley's death caused the class of 2011 to come together and appreciate life and how quickly it can be taken away.

"She was an oddball that everyone loved."
--Senior Marissa Pavlick

Rob Fruscella

Rob,
I could tell you I am proud of you but you know that. I could say, "I love you!" but you know that, too! So, I am going to say a few things I may have forgotten over the last 18 years. Always set HIGH GOALS. Work smart, not hard. Walk tall. Do not forget to call home. Please visit at Christmas! Seriously, I am so very proud of you! I love you more than you can imagine! (That is, until you become a parent yourself someday.) So laugh often. Smile when you are happy and cry when you are sad. Plant a garden and watch it grow. Go have a great life!

You are off to an OUTSTANDING start!

Love Always,
MOM

Da'Nae Aliese Redding

To my little doll so sweet. You really knock me off my feet. God bless the day he sent my little angel to me. You were perfect from the day you were born. I knew you would grow up to be such a beautiful, athletic and intelligent young lady! I am so proud to be your mother. As you take this journey to college, remember to keep God first, fly past those monkeys and climb up those trees (LOL). Reach out and accomplish every goal you set out to accomplish. I love you with all my heart and as Grandma Betty would say, I will cross the ocean for you and I will go and bring you the moon. I will be your hero your strength -- anything you need! You are on your way to the top, sweetie. Congratulations, my 2011 graduate. You Go, Baby Girl! Love, Mom

Lucki Swoope

To my daughter Lucki,
You have been a joy and a light in my heart since the day you were born. I knew there was something special about you even before you were born, but what I didn't know was how lucky I was to have you as my daughter. You have entered every stage of childhood with excitement, curiosity and zest for life.

You have always showed a determination for whatever you wanted, remaining respectful when trying to get your point across -- even when setting booby traps for your siblings. I've watched you mature from a fun-loving little girl into a beautiful, independent young lady with a mind much wiser than her years. Where did all the years go?

Baby, take life by the horns and you turn them whichever way you want them to go. And when you go to college, it will be yet another adventure and turning point in your book of life. Enjoy every day of it!

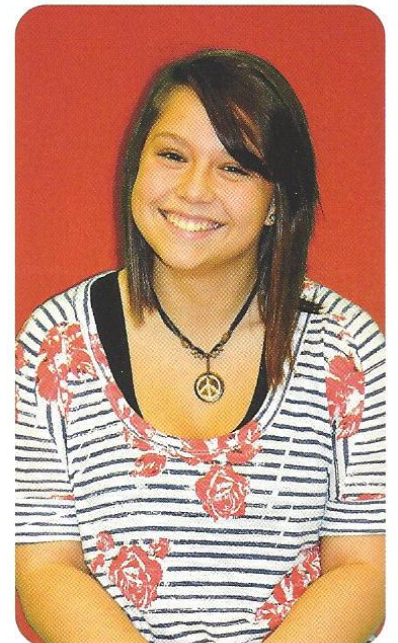

Love,
Mom

Angela Marie,

We want you to know how proud we are. You have shown such perseverance in achieving your goals, and established a great start to a wonderful future.
You are a gift!

Kaitlyn Marie McGinnis

Kaitlyn-

You came into our lives on 6/28/93 and we watched as you grew up into the beautiful young lady you are today. We are so proud of the accomplishments you have made in your life thus far. Know that whatever you strive for in your life, we will be behind you, supporting you in any way that we can. You are loved more than you will ever know.

Congratulations on your graduation. And maybe we are partial, but you are the best flute and piccolo player the Streetsboro Marching Rockets ever had!!!!

Love Always-
Mom, Dad and Brittany

Mandy,
I seriously can't believe it's your senior year, and you're graduating. Boy does time fly...It feels like yesterday that we were outside making forts, and driving mom crazy! The memories I have with you will continue to grow and I can't wait!! I love you and
I'm so proud of you.
Your big sis,
Katie

Amanda Selby

Mandy,
This past year I've watched you grow up tremendously. You've always been the best cheerleader in my eyes!
Watching you out there cheering, jumping, or flipping still amazes me, and a dad couldn't be any prouder than I am of you.
Keep looking forward, as your future awaits you. No matter where you are, how tough it gets, or what you are doing, I will always be here for you with open arms. Remember you will always be my "little girl."
Love ya,
Dad

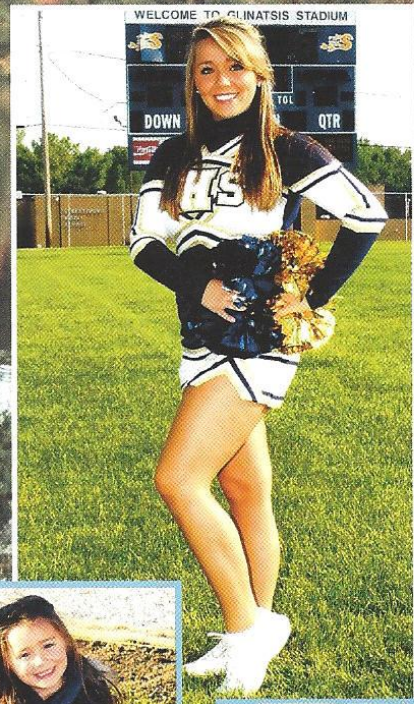

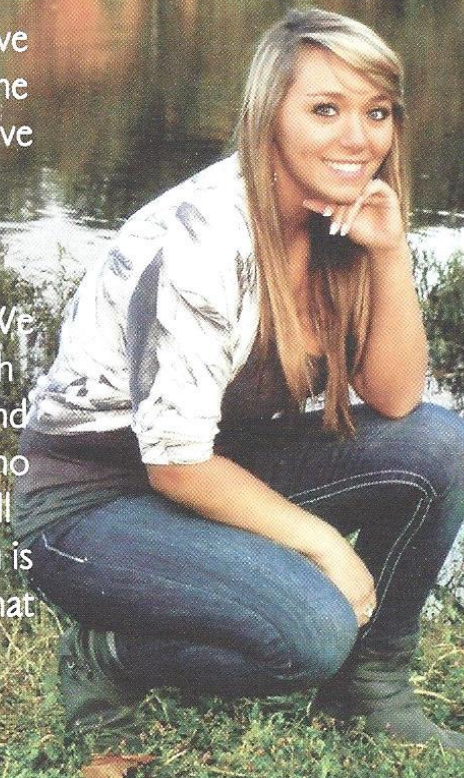

Amanda,
You are a beautiful and loving daughter, and have given me the best memories in life. (Yes, this includes the pool parties or, as your friends would say, "the biggest hot tub party.") Your many talents were achieved from your positive attitude and confidence, which helped you to accomplish things you never imagined you would. I am glad I was given the chance to watch you succeed. This is just the beginning, so follow your heart, dreams and goals.
May things stay within your reach. I will always be here for you, as you truly are my "lil' sunshine." I love you with all my heart and then some!
Love,
Mom

Brittany Johnson

Brittany, Seems like just yesterday we were helping you across the monkey bars. Now you have grown into a beautiful, responsible young lady ready to take on bigger challenges on your own. We know you can accomplish anything you put your mind to. We are so proud of who you are and what you will become. Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to.
Love you kiddo,
Dad & Amy

Christopher Bennett

My son -- my friend -- thank you for the wonderful memories of laughter and fun.
From Big White and LEGOs to spaghetti and chocolate milk, I've enjoyed the journey and wish you success and happiness as your future unfolds before you. It is my honor, privilege and the greatest blessing to be your mom.
You're something to be proud of.

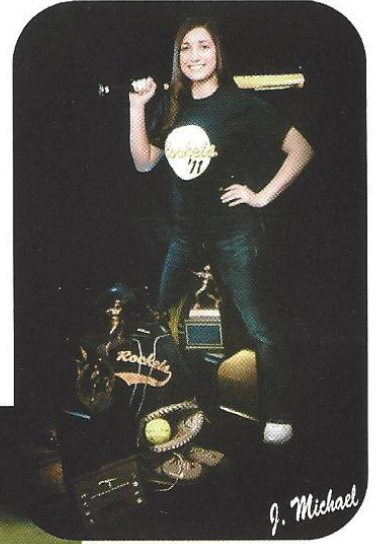

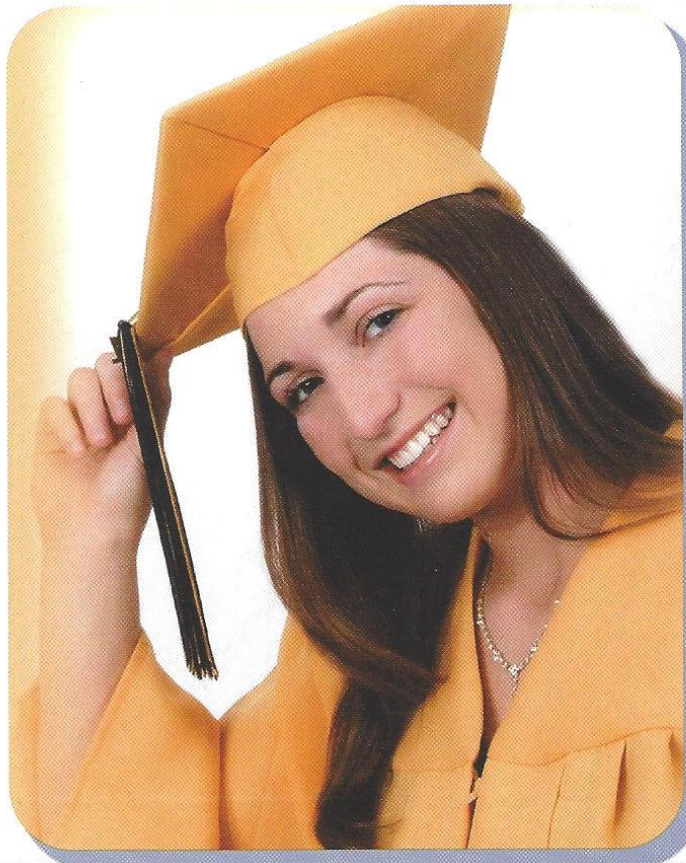

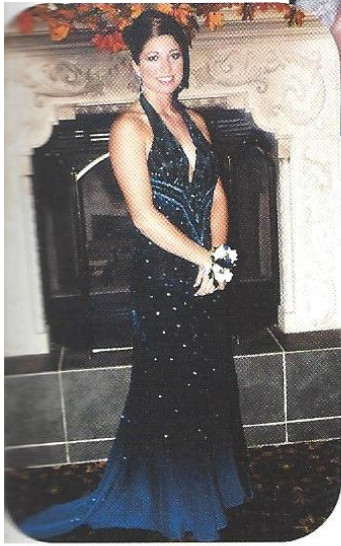

Always remember,
I love you forever . . . I like you for always...
(You know the rest!)
